PRAYING FOR PEACE AND REPARATION

We invite you to stay at the end of Sunday Mass – following the closing hymn – and join us in praying three “Hail Mary’s” for Peace: in our World, in our Families and in our Hearts. We also pray the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel, for healing and reparation in our Church. The Prayer to St. Michael can be found on the back inside cover of the St. Augustine Missal.

SOLEMNITY OF PENTECOST
Church starts here

Pentecost is like falling in love: It hits you like a ton of bricks. You become totally devoted to someone else, only in this case someone else isn't that special guy or gal, it's everybody. And just like two people in love have an almost mystical ability to communicate their hearts to each other, the gift of the Spirit gives you the language of love that speaks to all kinds of people, no matter how different they might be. And just like love comes to those who wait for it, the Spirit of God comes to those who desire it with all their hearts.

Acts 2:1-11; 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13; John 20:19-23 (63). "He breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'"

MEMORIAL OF THE BL. VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH
A Mother to all

In 2018, Pope Francis added a memorial to celebrate the Blessed Virgin Mary in her role as "Mother of the Church" every year on the Monday after Pentecost as a way to foster Marian piety and the "maternal sense of the church." The Marian title of "Mother of the Church," was given to the Blessed Mother by Blessed Pope Paul VI at the Second Vatican Council. With its addition to the General Roman Calendar, it's now celebrated by the whole Roman Catholic Church. Ponder how your own faith has been nurtured within the church community, and take a moment to thank Mary for serving as mother of us all.

Genesis 3:9-15, 20 or Acts 1:12-14; John 19:25-34 (572A). "Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary of Magdala."

MEMORIAL OF PHILIP NERI, PRIEST
A man of good cheer

After an intense period of study, Saint Philip Neri saw in a vision that his mission was in the streets of Rome. So he planted himself amid the bustle of public squares and drew people out of their apathy with friendly humor and discourse. Once engaged he would eventually ask: "Well, brothers, when shall we begin to do good?" And then he'd lead the crowd to service among the sick and poor of Rome. Despite great demands on his time by the thousands who sought his counsel over the years, Neri was known to be ever cordial and welcoming. "Cheerfulness," he said, "strengthens the heart and makes us persevere in a good life. Therefore, the servant of God ought always to be in good spirits." Keep smiling!

1 Peter 1:10-16; Mark 10:28-31 (348). "Be holy because I am holy."

In the service of truth

All throughout history there have been truths that, once discovered and accepted, have changed everything. Discovering that the Earth is round and that the sun is the center of our solar system, for example, brought on a revolution in thought that is hard to overstate. The same applies to spiritual truths: Once they are known and accepted, the unwieldy, disconnected pieces of our lives tend to fall into place and everything changes for the better. Jesus' statement, "I came not to be served, but to serve," is one such radical spiritual truth. If we lived our lives from this perspective, wisdom and compassion would prevail. Just for today, approach every task and every person with this attitude in mind.

1 Peter 1:18-25; Mark 10:32-45 (349). "For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve."

Thursday, May 28, 2026
Dedicated to the one we love

Saint Teresa of Calcutta had a way of packing a lot of insight into statements that on the surface seemed pretty elementary. Take for example the way she described the Missionaries of Charity, the order she founded to care for the destitute dying and other "unwanted" persons: "Many people mistake our work for our vocation," she said. "Our vocation is the love of Jesus." Her words apply to all Christians. Whatever you do, put love for Jesus at the center. Your true calling and life's work will flow from there.

1 Peter 2:2-5, 9-12; Mark 10:46-52 (350). "So they called the blind man, saying to him, 'Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you.'"

Friday, May 29, 2026
Forgive as we are forgiven

Mark's gospel does not include Jesus teaching the Lord's Prayer, as he does in the other gospels. Like Matthew and Luke, however, Mark does show Jesus linking our own forgiveness to our willingness to forgive others. The Lord's Prayer asks that God forgive us as we forgive others; those who seek forgiveness must be "forgivers" themselves. In Mark, Jesus says: "Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses." Jesus characterizes his own mission as handing himself over "so that sins may be forgiven." We need and desire forgiveness. See how quickly it comes when you start by forgiving others.

1 Peter 4:7-13; Mark 11:11-26 (351). "All that you ask for in prayer, believe that you will receive it and it shall be yours."

Saturday, May 30, 2026
Keep it simple

Jesus asks both everything and almost nothing of his disciples. Everything: that we give our whole lives to following him. And almost nothing: that we trust him and the Father, love as we are loved, forgive as we are forgiven, and show the mercy we ourselves have received. Though it asks much—everything, really—being a Christian is actually pretty simple: love God with your whole self, and that love will overflow to others. As Saint Augustine put it: "Love, and do what you will."

Jude 17, 20b-25; Mark 11:27-33 (352). "Keep yourselves in the love of God and wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ."

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - We Are Never Alone

My children want my help sometimes, and other times, not so much. I remember being a teenager and young adult myself. At times, I thought I knew everything. I didn't need help because I was just so darn smart. Truth is, I needed to find my own way. I needed to stretch my wings and prove to myself and my family I could fly. I assume that is what is happening with my own children as well. It just seems so different now that I'm the parent.

Human beings need help. We need community, and we need to rely on one another. At Pentecost, we reflect on Jesus sending to the Church a helper, the Holy Spirit. God interacting with us in this manner means we are never truly alone. We focus most of the time on the Spirit of God as the assistance we need, and we do need Him for sure. However, since it is that very same Spirit that turned us into "Church" from a band of people looking to carry on after Jesus' ascension, at Pentecost we gained more than divine help: we gained each other.

Today, the Church needs help in a profound way. We need to lean on the Holy Spirit to blow through the Church with a profound renewal. But we cannot forget that we have been given each other to lean on as well. We are a gift to each other, and together with the Spirit's help, we are the Body of Christ here on earth. We must be strong and stand for one another. If we do that, this Pentecost will bear fruit that will be with us for many Pentecosts to come.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

This Sunday, we celebrate the fulfillment of the promise Jesus made to his disciples when he told them he was going to leave them, but that he would send an Advocate to assist them in the ministry he had left for them to do. That promise was fulfilled for the Apostles at Pentecost and for us at our Sacrament of Confirmation.

Of the graces we receive with this sacrament, two stand out as most often called upon: courage and wisdom. These virtues help us to stay the course when we encounter views contrary to Jesus' teachings. Jesus promised this great gift to them and to us, which we celebrate this weekend at Pentecost.

In the last two weeks, we kicked off the spring season with our Spring Flower Show last week and the Blessing of the Bikes last Sunday. Both events were very successful, and I want to thank Christine Errichiello, Pat Font, and their team of volunteers who worked diligently behind the scenes to make them both a success. Thank you all, and God bless!

We also remember all our American service members who served and sacrificed so that we might live and worship in freedom. We pray for them and their families this Memorial Day. May they rest in peace.

SANCTUARY LAMP INTENTIONS
Our Sanctuary Lamp burns this week for a Special Intention

Piety, Explained!

Piety is one of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit and is related to the virtue of justice.

St. Thomas Aquinas writes, "Piety denotes the reverence which we give to our faith and to our country. And since God is the Father of all, the worship of God is also called piety... therefore the gift whereby a man, through reverence for God, works good to all, is fittingly called piety." (Sum., II:II, 68, Art. 4)

The virtue of piety, which can be understood most easily as giving due reverence to God, should not be confused with "popular piety," which refers to external expressions of devotion that are unique to specific places and environments. The virtue of piety describes a person's fulfillment of their duty to God and the precepts of the Church; popular piety describes other practices that enliven their desire to fulfill that duty.

Bereavement Ministry

Coping with the loss of a loved one can weigh us down physically, emotionally and spiritually, but it is not a journey we need to walk alone.

St. Joseph's 8th Station Bereavement Ministry offers comfort and help during the grieving process.

This group meets the 2nd Saturday of each month, at 10:00 AM in the Parish Center. The sessions are led by Mary Shaughnessy and Patricia Tharrington.
