PRAYING FOR PEACE AND REPARATION

We invite you to stay at the end of Sunday Mass – following the closing hymn – and join us in praying three “Hail Mary’s” for Peace: in our World, in our Families and in our Hearts. We also pray the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel, for healing and reparation in our Church. The Prayer to St. Michael can be found on the back inside cover of the St. Augustine Missal.

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Tell me a story!

“Once upon a time . . .” is second only to “In the beginning . . .” as the greatest opening line. These memorable story starters signal to listeners that they are entering a world of magic and mystery, where things are turned upside down and then set right again. Human beings love stories. Long after we’ve forgotten the basics of grammar and arithmetic, we remember the stories we heard, read, and lived. That is why Jesus chose parables as his main teaching tool. His stories may not always be easy to understand, but they aren’t soon forgotten. Call to mind your favorite parable today and enter into its mystery and magic.

Wisdom 12:13, 16-19; Romans 8:26-27; Matthew 13:24-43 (106). “I will open my mouth in parables.”

Monday, Jul 20, 2026

No qualifications needed

The scribes and Pharisees were “credentialed” religious leaders, and they took offense with this upstart Jesus. Without degree or pedigree, he appeared out of nowhere (or so it seemed) and began teaching with authority. They wanted to “see his papers,” to be given some proof, and then they would believe him. The operative phrase here is “and then.” How many times in our own faith journey have we uttered that qualifier? Help me get well, “and then” I will believe; find me a job, “and then” I will have faith; answer my prayers, “and then” I will believe. Isn’t it time we dropped the qualifier, stopped demanding signs, and let the truth of Jesus’ message speak for itself in our hearts? As Blessed Benedetta Bianchi Porro says, “For those who believe, everything is a sign!”

Micah 6:1-4, 6-8; Matthew 12:38-42 (395). “An evil and unfaithful generation seeks a sign.”

Tuesday, Jul 21, 2026

MEMORIAL OF LAWRENCE OF BRINDISI, PRIEST, DR OF THE CHURCH

Make love your starting point

A theological and biblical scholar, fluent in several languages, renowned preacher, diplomat, and minister general of the Capuchin order, Saint Lawrence of Brindisi (1559-1619) pretty much did it all. Yet he never forgot the purpose of his work. “God is love,” he wrote, “and all his operations proceed from love.” Saints like Lawrence show us the strength of faith and inspire us to stretch ours. They also demonstrate how all our activity needs the guidance of love. Micah 7:14-15, 18-20; Matthew 12:46-50 (396). “Whoever loves me will keep my word.”

Wednesday, Jul 22, 2026

FEAST OF MARY MAGDALENE

Maudlin no more

Mary Magdalene is often depicted weeping (the English word maudlin, meaning “excessively weepy and sentimental,” is derived from Magdalene). Although in 1969 the Vatican officially separated Mary Magdalene from the sinner in Luke’s gospel, centuries of sermons and Christian art depicting Mary as the sorrowful, penitent prostitute have embedded that image into the Christian psyche. But this doesn’t do justice to the woman early Christians called the “apostle to the apostles.” Mary Magdalene was the first to see and recognize the risen Lord and announce his Resurrection to the apostles. Let her joyful witness inspire you to see Christ more clearly in your own life.

Song of Songs 3:1-4b or 2 Corinthians 5:14-17; John 20:1-2, 11-18 (603). “Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, ‘I have seen the Lord.’”

Thursday, Jul 23, 2026

You don’t have to look far

Sometimes God seems hard to spot. We may feel we get a glimpse at times, but frequently God can seem to be somewhere else. The presence of God, though, is actually all around us. God’s Spirit dwells in each person. Everyone is made in the image and likeness of God—as if we all carry a picture of God around with us in our pockets, to remind us of who we are. We can see God in creation. The Catechism of the Catholic Church says that scientific discoveries “invite us to even greater admiration for the greatness of the Creator, prompting us to give him thanks for all his works . . .” Most of all we see God when we love. “God is love,” the First Letter of John says. Look for God’s presence today. It’s really not all that hard to find.

Jeremiah 2:1-3, 7-8, 12-13; Matthew 13:10-17 (398). “Blessed are your eyes, because they see, and your ears, because they hear.”

Friday, Jul 24, 2026

Let God’s word take root

Jesus said that the person who hears the word of God is like a seed: Where it falls makes a difference. In good soil it brings forth life. God knows that people do not always understand his word, which became flesh as the embodiment of love. But if you seek to understand it, to live by it, to embody it, you will come to know God and you will bear much fruit, like a seed planted in rich soil. Be guided by these words of Saint John of the Cross: “To love is to be transformed into what we love. To love God is therefore to be transformed into God.”

Jeremiah 3:14-17; Matthew 13:18-23 (399). “The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it.”

Saturday, Jul 25, 2026

FEAST OF JAMES, APOSTLE

You send me

What makes the apostle James different from the many others named James in the New Testament? The word apostle comes from the Greek apostolos, “someone sent out.” The more general meaning of the word is translated into Latin as missio, from which we get missionary. But it is also used in a more specific sense to refer to the first 12 disciples whom Jesus chose, named, and “sent out” to the world. While we honor James in name today as one of those 12, we can honor him and the other apostles much more by carrying on their work in the world. Ready for your send-off?

2 Corinthians 4:7-15; Matthew 20:20-28 (605). “Whoever wishes to be great among you shall be your servant.”

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: RELIGIOUS EDUCATION GRADE COORDINATORS

Grade Coordinators are needed to sit with our EDJE classes at the 9:00 a.m. Mass from September through May. As a coordinator, your role would be to take attendance, distribute lanyards to the children, and help ensure that students remain attentive and respectful during Mass.

For anyone interested in volunteering who is not familiar with our program, Fr. O'Neill leads a 30-minute Bible lesson for the children following Mass, and dismissal is at 10:30 a.m. In addition, we no longer have all of the children attend Mass at the same time. Instead, the grades alternate weeks: one week, grades 1, 2, and 3 attend, and the following week, grades 4, 5, and 6 attend.

We are also in need of substitute coordinators. If this is something you would be interested in, please let Pat Smith know. High school students who volunteer to sit with a class may earn service hours.

If you are interested in filling this much-needed role, please email Pat at patsmith@stjosephbrookfield.com. Please include in your message whether you would like to sit with your child's class, and we will do everything we can to accommodate your request.
