NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Shake that sinking feeling

Two important stories in scripture—God’s coming to Elijah in a “tiny whispering sound” and Jesus’ walk on the water—say a lot about our spiritual journey. Elijah was not in a good way. He lived in a bad place with a bad king, the other prophets were dead, and Queen Jezebel had a contract out on his life. Saint Peter also had a problem: Boldly stepping out on the water to walk to his Lord, he got scared and started to go under. For both these holy people in distress, God came to the rescue. When things get tough, we can, like them, lose our nerve. But we know God will answer. The trick may be to have that confidence before we get into trouble.

1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a; Romans 9:1-5; Matthew 14:22-33 (115).

“Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus.”

FEAST OF LAWRENCE, DEACON, MARTYR

Know where your treasure lies

The word deacon means servant and was first used to describe someone who waited on tables. Today there are more than 51,000 deacons serving in the church worldwide, nearly half of them in the United States. But deacons were not always welcome. In the midst of a severe persecution of the Christians of Rome in the second century, Lawrence (d. 258) was the last remaining deacon to be sentenced to death. We are told that he spent his final days giving everything the Christian community owned to those in need. When a Roman official demanded he produce the wealth of the church, Lawrence replied, “Here is the treasure of the church” as he brought forth poor, sick, blind, and lame people. Look to Lawrence for inspiration as you strive to understand the true meaning of Christian charity and the value of every life.

2 Corinthians 9:6-10; John 12:24-26 (618). “Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life.”

MEMORIAL OF CLARE

Regifting made holy

One of the most beautiful lines in the Eucharistic Prayer for Children is: “We bring you bread and wine and ask you to . . . make these gifts the body and blood of Jesus your Son. Then we can offer to you what you have given to us.” These words could be the motto of the Poor Clares, founded in 1212 by Saint Francis and Saint Clare. The Poor Clares live, work, and pray in constant, joyful recognition of their complete dependence on God. Their intentional poverty is their way of offering to God what God has given to them. We might not live in voluntary poverty, but what can we do today to recognize our dependence on God?

Ezekiel 2:8-3:4; Matthew 18:1-5, 10, 12-14 (414). “Whoever becomes humble like this child is the greatest in the Kingdom of heaven.”

Wings, wheels, and wisdom

When we think “cherubim,” most of us imagine that chubby little angel sitting on Grandma’s bookshelf. But the cherubim, who play a role in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, are grander and more intimidating than that. In Christianity they are the second highest of nine choirs of angels. Ezekiel describes them as curious creatures with both wings and wheels—which have given centuries of artists a field day trying to illustrate. Cherubim also have many eyes, which is why they received the attribute of wisdom. Their is to worship God continuously—which is what the wise do. Ezekiel 9:1-7; 10:18-22; Matthew 18:15-20 (415). “Then the cherubim lifted their wings, and the wheels went along with them.”

A heart-healthy habit

The Mayo Clinic specializes in wellness—not just physical but also emotional. Their list of the benefits of forgiving someone include: better relationships; greater spiritual and psychological well-being; less anxiety, stress, and hostility; lower blood pressure; fewer symptoms of depression; a stronger immune system; improved heart health; higher self-esteem. Pretty healthy stuff, this forgiveness. Of course, Christians have touted the spiritual and physical benefits—or graces—that come with forgiveness for 2,000 years. Take two doses of forgiveness and call an estranged loved one in the morning! Ezekiel 12:1-12; Matthew 18:21-19:1 (416). “So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives his brother from his heart.”

MEMORIAL OF MAXIMILIAN KOLBE, PRIEST, MARTYR

The word made flesh

Maximilian Kolbe (1894-1941), a Franciscan Friar, earned his martyrdom when he volunteered to die in place of a stranger at Auschwitz, the most notorious of the Nazi concentration camps. What is less well known is that Kolbe was a prolific publisher. He published catechetical and devotional material, a daily Catholic newspaper that reached a circulation of 225,000, and a monthly magazine with a circulation approaching 1 million. Within a month of arriving in Japan on a mission in 1930, penniless and knowing no Japanese, Kolbe and his brother friars were printing a Japanese magazine that grew to a circulation of 65,000. Not only did Kolbe spread the Good News of God’s love, but in his life and death he lived it. May we do the same.

Ezekiel 16:1-15, 60, 63; Matthew 19:3-12 (417). “The word of the LORD came to me.”

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BL. VIRGIN MARY

In praise of magnificent humanity

In 1950, following the devastation of World War II, Pope Pius XII proclaimed the infallible doctrine of the Assumption of Mary, affirming that Mary was assumed body and soul into heaven. Pius expressed hope that the “exalted destiny of both soul and body may in this striking manner be brought clearly to the notice of all persons.” It was a vision of the human person in stark contrast to the unspeakable inhumanity of the war. In celebrating Mary, we remember that our bodies and souls “bear witness to the grandeur of humanity, in which God has made his dwelling,” as Pope Leo frames it in Magnifica Humanitas. “At the heart of the Christian understanding of the human person,” says Leo, “lies the great biblical affirmation that men and women are created in the image and likeness of the Triune God.” May our embrace of this teaching renew our reverence for human life and strengthen our resolve to reject war.

Revelation 11:19A; 12:1-6A, 10AB; 1 Corinthians 15:20-27; Luke 1:39-56 (622). “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord.”

19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In our Gospel reading this weekend, we hear the familiar story of the Apostles' mistaking Jesus for a ghost as He passed them on the water.

I am fairly confident any of us would have reacted in a similar way. His response, however, was far more significant for us today when we find ourselves in fear and doubt and not trusting in God. "Take courage, it is I. Do not be afraid."

One of the most difficult acts of faith that we are called to embrace is when we find ourselves fearful and lacking control. How difficult it is to embrace Jesus' guidance to His apostles and apply it to the situations in which we find ourselves. To be able to hear Jesus say, "Relax, I've got you." That takes letting go. That takes humility. That takes great faith and the ability to respond, "I know you do."

Nothing new to report around the campus of late. We have some projects in the development stages, but nothing else (except the new mulch in the school playground in the lower lot, and we have already reported on the concrete work done on the stairs coming up from the lower lot). The handrails will be painted soon.

We are making progress on the Memorial Garden. Hopefully, we will be able to make it a reality before the snow flies. Next on the agenda will be a spokesman from the Diocese who assists with these projects to come to answer any questions prospective purchasers may have. We hope to schedule that in early September. More to follow.

AUG 14 RISEN
1 HOUR, 48 MIN

Risen is a compelling historical drama that explores the resurrection of Jesus through the eyes of a skeptical Roman tribune tasked with investigating Christ's missing body. Blending mystery, faith, and powerful storytelling, the film offers a fresh perspective on one of history's most significant events.

Catholics should watch Risen because it brings the reality of the Resurrection to life, encourages deeper reflection on the truth of the Gospel, and reminds viewers of the transformative power of encountering the risen Christ.

AUG 21 FATIMA

The 2020 film Fatima tells the true story of three young shepherd children in Fátima, Portugal, who receive apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary in 1917. As the children face skepticism, ridicule, and pressure from both their families and government officials, they remain faithful to Mary's messages.

The film highlights Christian themes of faith, prayer, repentance, hope, and trusting God in the midst of suffering. It also emphasizes the power of prayer—especially the Rosary—and God's call to conversion, peace, and perseverance.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: RELIGIOUS EDUCATION GRADE COORDINATORS

Grade Coordinators are needed to sit with our EDJE classes at the 9:00 a.m. Mass from September through May. As a coordinator, your role would be to take attendance, distribute lanyards to the children, and help ensure that students remain attentive and respectful during Mass.

For anyone interested in volunteering who is not familiar with our program, Fr. O'Neill leads a 30-minute Bible lesson for the children following Mass, and dismissal is at 10:30 a.m. In addition, we no longer have all of the children attend Mass at the same time. Instead, the grades alternate weeks: one week, grades 1, 2, and 3 attend, and the following week, grades 4, 5, and 6 attend.

We are also in need of substitute coordinators. If this is something you would be interested in, please let Pat Smith know. High school students who volunteer to sit with a class may earn service hours.

If you are interested in filling this much-needed role, please email Pat at patsmith@stjosephbrookfield.com. Please include in your message whether you would like to sit with your child's class, and we will do everything we can to accommodate your request.
