TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There are no limits on forgiveness

One of the hardest things to do is to forgive. While God's forgiveness and mercy is constant, you still have to accept it, and that means more than an inner spiritual acceptance: It involves active love of both the lovable and also the people who you don't like or don't like you, even your enemies. That kind of forgiveness needs a special kind of love that makes you willing to sacrifice. What goes around comes around. Show mercy, and God will be merciful to you. Your salvation depends on forgiving "not seven times but seventy-seven times"—that is, without limit.

Sirach 27:30-28:7; Romans 14:7-9; Matthew 18:21-35 (130). "Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins?"

FEAST OF THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

Where the cross leads

In the critically acclaimed Mexican film Pan's Labyrinth, an unhappy girl's mother has married a handsome general who is, by all accounts, a monster. The girl's only hope seems to be in following the directions of an ugly creature, Pan, who will lead her through her labyrinthine fate. At one point Pan goads the young girl, "You still have tasks to complete." She laments, "But they've locked the door and I can't get out." The creature hands her a piece of chalk. "Draw your own door," he suggests. It is not clear where the door will lead, to life or death. For Christians, the only door we have is the cross. Yes, it leads to death, but also to eternal life.

Numbers 21:4b-9; Philippians 2:6-11; John 3:13-17 (638). "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life."

MEMORIAL OF OUR LADY OF SORROWS

Pain beyond words

Unspeakable grief is the only way to describe what loving parents endure at the death of a son or daughter. It doesn't matter if the child lived 6 minutes or 60 years. Mary, the Mother of God, had to watch her son be tortured and executed. Our Lady of Sorrows is a title Mary earned by her spiritual martyrdom. Like all Christian martyrs, Mary remained faithful and found solace in the life of Christ despite her excruciating pain. Show compassion for the spiritual martyrs in your community, and be filled with Mary's grace as you contemplate her great sorrows.

1 Corinthians 12:12-14, 27-31a; John 19:25-27 or Luke 2:33-35 (444/639). "This child is destined ... to be a sign that will be contradicted and you yourself a sword will pierce."

MEMORIAL OF CORNELIUS, POPE, AND CYPRIAN, BISHOP, MARTYRS

Keep an open-door policy

During the first half of the third century, when Cornelius and Cyprian lived, the church faced the difficult question of how to treat the large numbers of Christians who had abandoned their faith in times of persecution. Some bishops refused to allow them back, but Cornelius and Cyprian argued for their return. Cyprian wrote, "One cannot have God for a father who does not have the church for a mother." Hardship and danger visit us at unexpected times, and we react in ways that are hard to predict. At times, we may run away from a challenge, only to ask ourselves later, "Why wasn't I more courageous in that situation?" It's good to keep the doors of the church wide open—any one of us might need that open door someday.

1 Corinthians 12:31-13:13; Luke 7:31-35 (445). "So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love."

Pardon me?

The woman who anointed Jesus' feet with precious oil first washed them with her tears. Why was she crying? Perhaps she saw clearly that her own sins caused her separation from God. The Pharisee who criticized Jesus for associating with the woman, on the other hand, was deluded into self-righteousness. Jesus is able to forgive the woman's sin because she first recognized her need for forgiveness; self-righteousness, though, is unforgivable because it suffers the delusion that it does not need to be forgiven. Saint Augustine explains: "How many there are who know that they have sinned against their brothers or sisters and yet are unwilling to say: 'Forgive me.' They were not ashamed to sin, but they are ashamed to ask pardon. They were not ashamed of their evil act, but they blush where humility is concerned." Don't let your pride get in the way of the joy of forgiveness.

1 Corinthians 15:1-11; Luke 7:36-50 (446). "Her many sins have been forgiven."

Time to name names

When you consider how many people Jesus healed and talked with and ate with and traveled with during his short life, you realize the vast majority of them are anonymous. They are simply known as the "poor" or the "sick" or some other group. When we don't know a person's name it is easier to think of them as a category instead of a human person with a history and a future. Today is a good day to notice the people we regularly encounter whose names we do not know: the homeless person on the street corner, the server behind the counter at the coffee shop, the senior who sits in the first pew in church. Then maybe ask their names.

1 Corinthians 15:12-20; Luke 8:1-3 (447). "Jesus journeyed from one town and village to another, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the Kingdom of God."

The ears have it

Jesus sometimes said things in the gospels that are puzzling, or at least perplexing on the surface. For example, when he took the disciples aside to explain to them the parable of the sower, he told them, "Knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of God has been granted to you; but to the rest, they are made known through parables so that they may look but not see, and hear but not understand." Why didn't he want the others to understand? Wasn't that the whole point of his mission? Perhaps Jesus was letting us know of the challenges we will face as we try to spread the light of the gospel to others. Regardless, strive to be one whose ears hear all the Lord has to say.

1 Corinthians 15:35-37, 42-49; Luke 8:4-15 (448). "Whoever has ears to hear ought to hear."

Women's Reflection

WRAP

of St. Joseph's and Prayer Group

The Women's Reflection and Prayer group is pleased to offer "A Biblical Walk Through the Mass" by Dr. Edward Sri.

Everything we say and do in the Liturgy is steeped in biblical language. A Biblical Walk Through the Mass explores the extraordinary biblical roots of the Liturgy and reveals what it all means and why it all matters. This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

Our program begins Tuesday, September 29 in person and Tuesday, October 6 on Zoom. Both programs will meet for 5 sessions at 7:15 pm. A break will be taken for an Advent study as well.

- To register, email wwpstjosbrookfield@gmail.com as soon as possible but no later than September 25, and let us know if you will be attending in-person or on Zoom.
- Order your book and workbook (study set) by going to ascensionpress.com > Programs > Adult Faith Formation and clicking on the image for A Biblical Walk Through the Mass. Online access, including the videos, is available for a small additional charge, but is not required.
- You will also need a Catholic Bible.

We will send confirmation emails to registrants on September 27. Please let us know by the 28th if you have not received your confirmation email (check your Spam/Junk folder first). If you have any questions about our program, please contact Barb Roeder at (203) 470 - 3832.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: THE LAMBS PROGRAM

If you are interested or have any questions, please talk to Father Chip or call the office at 203.775.1035.

Thank you for your consideration.

With our Parish Picnic coming up on September 20, please note that all parish volunteers must be VIRTUS compliant. For more information, please call the parish office at 203.775.1035, or visit VirtusOnline.org.

The next VIRTUS class will be held on Thursday, September 17, at 6:30 PM.

Blessing of the Backpacks

Fr. O'Neill will be blessing the backpacks of our fourth, fifth and sixth grade students next Sunday, September 20th at the 9:00 a.m. Mass.

If you would like to receive this blessing, please bring your child's backpack to Mass that day. Also, please have your child's name somewhere on their backpack, so it can be easily identified. Thank you!

Parent Meeting

A note went out earlier this month regarding a meeting Fr. O'Neill is having with the parents of children in our Religious Education Program. The date is Thursday, September 17th from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. in the Church. Only one parent from each family needs to attend. Please mark this on your calendar.

Bereavement Ministry

Coping with the loss of a loved one can weigh us down physically, emotionally and spiritually, but it is not a journey we need to walk alone.

St. Joseph's 8th Station Bereavement Ministry offers comfort and help during the grieving process.

This group meets the 2nd Saturday of each month, at 10:00 AM in the Parish Center. The sessions are led by Mary Shaughnessy and Patricia Tharrington.
