

The protection of children is our over-riding priority:

A civilisation should only be measured by the way it looks after and raises its children. Humanity's track record so far, whether in the past or today, can only be described as truly appalling! Collectively, we should all be utterly appalled with ourselves and hanging our heads in shame as to how remiss we have all been!

Children should be raised in a caring family environment within a strong community where their upbringing is constantly nurtured in a sea of love and constant vigil in order to protect their innocence whilst, at the same time, encouraging their natural inquisitiveness. Without fail, every child must experience a happy childhood where peace, food, shelter, education and a prosperous home life are the absolute norm and not the exception.

Currently, our children today in the UK (and in so many other so-called 'westernised' countries) are being brainwashed. Their education has been well and truly weaponised. Their ability to undertake simple critical thinking has been considerably diminished. They are allowing themselves to be digitally dumbed down with utter trivia as meaningless drivel on social media takes over their lives and their priorities.

To make matters worse, classrooms in schools and lecture theatres in universities are now deliberately filling young and impressionable minds with completely inaccurate science, economics, history and other academic disciplines in order to drive through a masked global agenda that will soon lock down all our innate freedoms forever. In addition, there now appears to be a deliberate ploy in some primary schools to indoctrinate and sexualise children at a very early age in order to gradually normalise paedophilia. And, related to all of this, we see the quite deliberate use of so-called 'Wokeism' that exists solely to addle and promote disharmony amongst young people when it comes to such issues as race and gender.

To sum up, the children of today are being fed nothing but a diet of unmitigated lies, carefully planned deception and out-and-out fear. They are all under a quite deliberate psychological attack that is exacerbating very real mental illnesses in an increasing number of children. Under the guise of such seemingly benign words as 'equity', 'inclusion', 'diversity' and 'sustainability', young minds are being deliberately addled and radicalised. Especially now as the fear volume has been turned right up as susceptible children are openly being subjected to such unfounded and extremely unscientific nonsense as 'global boiling'. These are calculated comments being made by the United Nations and other bodies which have most to gain from promoting this hidden agenda of future global control by a minuscule number of corporate and financial psychopaths.

However, there is even worse to come. Each and every day, throughout the entire world, there are now hundreds of millions of children being forced to experience hunger, unbelievable destitution and outright slavery. Most have very little if any education. Their young lives, if not suddenly cut short by war, strife or disease, is simply a desperate and daily fight for survival in an appallingly unfair and unjust world.

But how is it that we can have a world where such misery and injustice can be inflicted upon so many children? It's very simple! Because we, today's adults, have let them all down dreadfully. Thanks to our collective ignorance, apathy and outright stupidity, we have allowed a truly tiny number of very powerful corporate and financial oligarchs to create a global political and economic system that produces nothing but continuous misery, conflict, division, civil unrest and outright exploitation. A completely soulless system that sets out to destroy the natural world for a quick profit and which uses outright criminality to leave supposedly sovereign nations, communities and families all drowning in a sea of fraudulent debt.

But it actually gets a good deal worse. It is now a system, with the full support of the United Nations and other corrupted international agencies, that is actively seeking to harness cutting edge surveillance and invasive digital technologies in order to undertake the perceived managed retreat needed to combat so-called 'climate change' whereby the remaining survivors of the human race (those who have not been unlawfully culled by rogue medical procedures or by completely contrived wars and other

Protection of Children

'humanitarian emergencies') will be transplanted and relocated into SMART cities where they will be subjected to the cutting edge science of transhumanism.

This is where the human body will be physically merged into the 'internet of things' and the 'internet of bodies'. On the surface, there may appear to be some great physical advantages to be had by this for people suffering from infirmities. But, with just a little bit of critical thinking, the disadvantages are clearly enormous and dangerous. Our future generations would no longer be human-beings capable of free thought and free expression. No, the children of tomorrow would simply become cyborg slaves to the controlling psychopaths who make up these 'globalists' that unlawfully seek the full governance of the world under the most appalling conditions.

Sadly, there is one other dreadful and quite deliberately suppressed threat to a very large number of children today. Recently, in the United States, a low budget movie was released which virtually overnight became a box office sensation both in the cinemas and online. Entitled Sound of Freedom, this film, based on actual facts, shines a very clear light on how a huge number of children end up being trafficked for the sex industry. Paedophilia is rife, especially behind the scenes amongst those supporting this nightmare future for humanity. It is also a subject matter where the controlled mainstream media will not dare to go to investigate.

The numbers of young children involved in this truly dreadful trade was recently revealed by a former senior UN official, Calin Georgescu, a Romanian whistle-blower who has personally seen just how bad things are in the higher echelons of global governance. In a recent interview, he said "...the problem is that these oligarchs, all of them, are related with the system of paedophilia because we know that there are more than eight million children per year who just disappear – eight million does mean the entire population of Austria!"

This truly appalling figure becomes even more appalling when you read this exposé of how top level politicians, bankers, celebrities, members of royal families, police, military and judiciary appear to be involved in the sexual abuse, torture and the actual killing of children. Scroll down this excellent Stop World Control article and watch the harrowing interview with the former Dutch banker, Ronald Bernard and what he was encouraged to do for personal advancement in the criminal central banking system. And coupled with the ritualistic slaughter of these children, research the substance known as Adrenochrome.

To conclude, we are dealing with organised evil here. This can only be described as Satanic! None of us have any excuse at all for what is happening to so many children each and every day. We should all feel utterly ashamed of ourselves for our ridiculous ignorance, apathy and outright stupidity. We are the overwhelming majority, the proverbial 99.9%, and yet we are allowing all of this to happen on our watch. Come on people, we've got to put an end to this? We've got the solutions, we just need the unity and the coordinated drive to get the job done.

This Great Rising strategy is therefore dedicated to the children of the world, who we have hugely let down, as we set about taking down forever this Satanic web of absolute evil.
