

English 10 CP - World Literature – Summer Reading 2026

Hello World Literature CP Students!

In class this upcoming school year, we will be reading, discussing, and studying a wide variety of world literature. The goal of this summer's reading is to expose you to various works of fiction from around the world in order to learn more about the world through literature. If you would like to read a novel that is not on the list, then you may email Mrs. Sica for approval. If you have any other questions regarding your project, please email Mrs. Sica at psica@bishopbrady.edu.

Happy Reading!

The Bishop Brady English Department

Note to Parents, Families, and Guardians: Our 2026 Summer Reading suggestions include some titles containing mature themes and content. Thus, we encourage parents and guardians to take an active role in helping individual students choose those books that are the best for them. Several websites, including Common Sense Media and Amazon.com, offer reviews to help parents and students make the best selection for them.

Bishop Brady Honor Code Pledge

By signing this statement, I agree that I have read the Honor Code Policy as stated in the Student/Parent handbook, understand it, and will abide by its provisions. As a student, my signature indicates that I agree to the following statement on all academic activities requested by faculty. I agree that if the statement is not requested, I still will abide by the Honor Code Policy.

The Assignment:

You will read and complete a project for one book from the list below:

Choices:

FICTION

The Girl in the Blue Coat by Monica Hesse - Netherlands

The Cellist of Sarajevo by Steven Galloway - Sarajevo

A Thousand Splendid Suns by Khaled Hosseini- Middle East

In the Time of the Butterflies by Julia Alvarez - Dominican Republic

Snow Flower and the Secret Fan by Lisa See - China

Book Options - You must select a book that you have not previously read - if you would like to read something not listed, please email Mrs. Sica at psica@bishopbrady.edu.

- For your fiction selection, you will complete a visual project which should represent the overall message or important theme of the novel.
- It should convey the deeper meaning you see in the work.
- The goal is to capture the essence of the novel in a unique way.
- You will be expected to explain to the class the purpose and meaning of your project through an informal presentation.
- No digital projects.
- Your selected project is due Thursday, September 3.

→ Project Ideas: (No digital projects. Your project must be physical/tangible.)

1. Scrapbook. Think about all the kinds of mementos you would put in a scrapbook if you had one. Then create a scrapbook for your character, cutting out pictures from magazines or drawing the mementos he or she would have in a scrapbook. Include at least ten mementoes.
2. Re-write and illustrate the story as a picture book for young children. Include both images and words. Your story should be at least twenty pages in length.
3. Word collage. Write the title of the book in the center of a sheet of paper. Then look through magazines for words, phrases, and sentences that illustrate or tell something about your book. As you look, think in terms of the theme, setting, plot line, as well as characters. Work to get fifty such words, phrases, or sentences so the whole sheet of paper will be covered with no visible blank space. The visual impact of the collage should tell a potential reader a lot about the book.
4. Create a character's room. We learn a lot about people by what they keep in their closets, what they have on their walls, what they select to put in a room. Select a character you know well and create a living room, bedroom, kitchen, or some other room that would mean a lot to the character. Draw it or write about it, making sure to include an explanation of why you designed the room as you did.
5. Create a mobile from items related to the story. Select 10 items that represent people, places, events, or other parts of the book and hang them from a hanger using string or yarn. Write a key that explains each object and why you chose it.
6. Create a diorama of a scene from the book. Create a scene from the book in a shoebox or other box paying attention to detail and nuance. Write a description of what the scene shows; this should be at least one, detailed paragraph.
7. Create an illustrated timeline showing the important events in this book. Your timeline should include at least twenty events from throughout the entire novel. While digital timelines are appealing, please create a physical project.
8. Invent a game (sport, board, word, logic, or other) inspired by the book. Your game should include the board(s), pieces, rules, etc.
9. Create a playlist of at least twelve songs and explain how each song relates to either the characters, settings or themes of your book. Be sure to include the song title, the artist, and a written explanation of at least 3-5 sentences per song.
