

About The Principal:

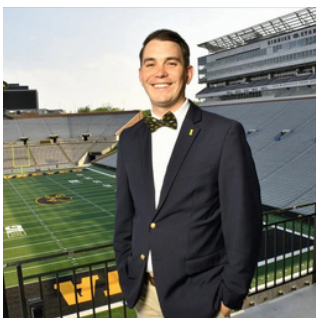

Dr. Benjamin Horton is a New Hampshire native and alumnus of Diocesan Schools in the Granite State. A graduate of Saint Anselm College, he later earned a Master’s degree through the University of Notre Dame's prestigious Alliance for Catholic Education (ACE) Teaching Fellows Program, a Ph.D. in Educational Leadership and Policy from the University of New Hampshire, and an MBA from the University of Iowa.

Throughout his career centered around sustaining and strengthening Catholic education, Dr. Horton has worked in Catholic schools throughout Northern Ireland, the Midwestern United States, and Florida, including teaching assignments in schools serving culturally diverse and economically disadvantaged communities. Most recently, he served as Assistant Academic Dean at his alma mater, Saint Anselm College, leading initiatives focused on student success, retention, academic support, and institutional effectiveness. He also taught for eleven years in the College’s Humanities Department.

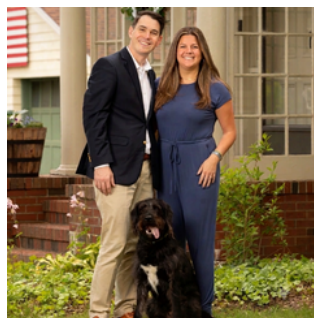

Dr. Horton’s experience in educational leadership, enrollment support, strategic planning, and student development uniquely positions him to lead Bishop Brady High School and carry out the Diocese of Manchester’s vision for a strong and sustainable Catholic school system in Concord.

Dr. Horton was a five-sport high school athlete and an NCAA Division II college athlete. He enjoys supporting Saint Anselm College Athletics and has served as a coach and faculty/staff advisor for the Hawks’ athletic programs. He is a passionate University of Iowa and University of Notre Dame Football fan and maintains deep connections to the University of Notre Dame, including serving as President of the Notre Dame Alumni Club for New Hampshire.

Dr. Horton met his wife, Alexandra, during their time as undergraduates at Saint Anselm College. During their free time, the Hortons enjoy fly fishing, backcountry skiing, traveling, reading, and spending time outdoors with their rescue dog, Clash. Dr. Horton looks forward to providing strong, authentically Catholic leadership to Bishop Brady High School for years to come.

Dr. Horton visiting historic Kinnick Stadium at the University of Iowa.

Dr. Horton and his wife, Alexandra, with their Irish wolfhound, Clash, named for “Clashmore Mike,” legendary Notre Dame coach Knute Rockne’s dog.

Dr. Horton enjoying his passion for the outdoors and backcountry skiing.