WATERMELON, WATERMELON

Stephanie Leavell

Poco a Poco

Watermelon, watermelon yummy
Watermelon, watermelon yummy
I've got some watermelon in my tummy
Cool and crispy when it's sunny
Watermelon, watermelon yummy
(Repeat)

1-2-3 save some for me
4-5-6 your fingers might get sticky
7-8-9 the taste is divine
Watermelon, watermelon get in my belly
Watermelon, watermelon get in my belly

Watermelon, watermelon yummy
Watermelon, watermelon yummy
I've got some watermelon in my tummy
Cool and crispy when it's sunny
Watermelon, watermelon yummy

SHAKE THE PAPAYA DOWN

arr. Judith Waller & Ruth Dwyer

Poco a Poco

Mama says no play; This is a work day,
Up with the bright sun, get all the work done.
If you will help me climb up the tall tree,
Shake the papaya down.

Shake them down, shake them down,
Climb the tall tree, shake them down.
Shake them down, shake them down,
Shake the papaya down!

I love papaya, yes I do,
Juicy papaya, yes I do.
If you will help me, I'll help you,
Shake the papaya down!

Tommy Cahoon, Addie Perkins, percussion

Poco a Poco will now join their families and will return to the stage for Blessing

THE PEACE OF WILD THINGS/CANTIQUÉ

Matthew Olson/Gabriel Fauré

Chorale

When despair for the world grows in me and I wake in the night at the least sound in fear of what my life and my children's lives may be,
I go and lie down where the wood drake rests in his beauty on the water, and the great heron feeds.

I come into the peace of wild things who do not tax their lives with forethought of grief. I come into the presence of still water.

And I feel above me the day-blind stars waiting with their light. For a time
I rest in the grace of the world, and am free.

Word, equal to the Almighty, our only hope,
Eternal light of the earth and the Heavens;
We break the peaceful night's silence,
Divine Saviour, cast your eyes upon us

Spread the fire of your mighty grace upon us
May the entire hell flee at the sound of your voice;
Disperse from any slothful soul the drowsiness
Inducing it to forget your laws!

Oh Christ, look with favour upon this faithful people
Which has now gathered to bless you.
Receive its singing, offered to your immortal glory,
And may it leave with the gifts you have bestowed upon it!

HOPE LINGERS ON

Lissa Schneckenberger

arr. Andrea Ramsey

Chorale

My mother, when love is gone,
in our darkest hour, hope lingers on.
My father, when peace is gone,
in our darkest hour, hope lingers on.

Chorus:
I will not hate, and I will not fear;
in our darkest hour, hope lingers here.

My sister, when equality's gone...
My brother, with tolerance gone...

Chorus

My love, when honor is gone...
My country, when justice is gone...

Chorus

BAMBU

arr. Ruth Dwyer & Paulo Castro

Junior Singers

Bambu, criançada, Bambu.

Bambu, tirabu,

Aroeira mantegueira.

Tirará Madelena Para ser bambu.

Bambu, todo mundo, Bambu!

Bamboo (Dance) children!

Bamboo (Dance)

under the butter tree.

Madelena, take us to the dance!

Everyone, Bambu!

HERE RATTLER, HERE!

arr. Ruth Dwyer & Martin Ellis

Junior Singers

Rattler was a fine old dog, fine as he could be.

Ev'ry night at supper time, I paid that dog a fee.

Here Rattler, here!

Here Rattler, here!

Call Rattler from the barn.

Here Rattler, here!

Once I had a settin' hen, set her as you know.

Set her on a hundred eggs, and hatched out one old crow!

Rattler had a muley cow, muley as she could be.

Took two jaybirds forty years to fly from horn to horn.

Here Rattler, here!

Here Rattler, here!

Call Rattler from the barn.

Here Rattler, here!

AND NATURE SMILED

Allan Koepke

Anima

On the hillside grew a lovely rose
A beauty to behold
The sun and rain did bless the rose
And nature smiled, it was told

Proud was the rose in the midst of widow-hood
Its fragrance pure as finest gold
All creation understood
And bowed as its petals would unfold

Soon the weeds did gather 'round the rose
"Share with us your beauty"
They asked in coy repose
"Give us one each petal, for then we all will be,
Beautiful and worthy to stand with dignity"

"Run, run! Run from the horse-tail Run, run away"
Was the cry of the loon
"Stay, stay, stay"
Cried the thorn tree
"Listen to your heart"
Came a plea from the moon

Then a stillness settled on the land
The rose, in all her wisdom
Stretched out a gentle hand
And touched each one around her
None was to be denied
She knew the secret of their beauty came from deep inside

"Each of you is a part of a plan from above
You give life to others, there is no greater love
Be strong in one another and then you all will see
You don't need any petals, you have your dignity"

On a hillside grew a lovely rose
A friend amid the wild
The sun and rain did bless the rose
And nature smiled

WHERE THE LIGHT BEGINS

Susan LaBarr

Anima

Perhaps it does not begin.
Perhaps it is always.

Perhaps it takes a lifetime
to open our eyes,
to learn to see —

the luminous line
of the map
in the dark

the vigil flame
in the house
of the heart

the love
so searing
we cannot keep
from singing,
from crying out.

Perhaps this day
the light begins in us.
We are where the light begins.
Perhaps it does not begin.
Perhaps it is always.

MANGO WALK

Jamaican Folk Song

arr. Ken Berg

Treble Choir

“Mango Walk” is an orchard of Mango trees

“Number ‘leven” (11) is a specific variety of mango grown in Jamaica.

Chorus:

My brother did-a tell me that you go mango walk*!

You go mango walk, you go mango walk.

My brother did-a tell me that you go mango walk and steal all the number ‘leven.

My brother did-a tell me not to tango without a mango! Oh, no!

My brother did-a tell me not to steal all the number ‘leven.

Now tell me, Joe, do tell me for true, do tell me

That you don’t go to no mango walk and steal all the number ‘leven.

Now tell me, Joe, do tell me for true, do tell me

That you don’t go to no mango walk and steal all the number ‘leven.

Chorus

I tell you, Sue, I tell you for true, I tell you for true, I tell you

That I don’t go to no mango walk and steal all the number ‘leven

I tell you, Sue, I tell you for true, I tell you for true, I tell you

That I don’t go to no mango walk and steal all the number ‘leven

Chorus

Don’t go mango walk!

CLOUDS

Cynthia Gray
Treble Choir

Gently falling rain, falling from the sky,
Streaming down like teardrops, teardrops from on high.

Clouds, oh won't you tell us what those tears are for?
Do you weep for something, something we've ignored?

Could it be that from your lofty post to high above,
You have seen how little we have given of our love?
Do you see the lonely, weary, troubled and the poor?
Have you seen the fighting and the war?

Clouds, there must be some way to make your crying cease.
Share with us the secret of happiness and peace.

Do you mean to say that each of us can play a part?
With each spark of love we light, a flame of love may start.
Reaching all around us, giving hope to those we know;
This, you say, will help true peace to grow?

Clouds, though you are parting, your point you've made quite clear.
Peace will never happen unless we start it here.
Unless we start it here.

SHENANDOAH

Sea Chanty arr. Paul Basler
Troubadours

Oh Shenandoah, I long to hear you
Away you rolling river,
Oh Shenandoah, I long to hear you,
Away, I'm bound away
'Cross the wide Missouri.

Farewell, goodbye,
I shall not grieve you
Away you rolling river,
Oh Shenandoah, I'll not deceive you
Away, I'm bound away
'Cross the wide Missouri.

Oh Shenandoah, I long to hear you
Away you rolling river,
I long to hear your rolling water,
Away, I'm bound away
'Cross the wide Missouri.

SISI NI MOJA (WE ARE ONE)

arr. Jacob Narverud

Troubadours

We all laugh,
We all cry,
We all feel hunger,
We all feel pain.
(Heja, heja)

We all love,
We all hate,
We all hope,
And we all dream.
(Heja, heja)

We are one world, one people.
And we all breathe the same,
A tribe of many languages,
A group of many heartaches,
Fighting for peace among the land.

Heja, heja, sisi ni moja.
O heja, heja, sisi ni moja.
We are one.

We all want,
We all need,
We all seek passion,
We all seek joy.

We all bruise,
We all scar,
We all fail,
But learn to thrive.

We are one world, one people.
And we all breathe the same.
In the darkness of the night and in the glory of the morning,
We walk along the path and find our way.

Heja, heja, sisi ni moja.
O heja, heja, sisi ni moja.

Now we stand here together and lift our hearts in song,
To the rhythm of this moment in our lives:

Heja, heja, sisi ni moja.
O heja, heja, sisi ni moja.
We are one.

DAISIES WHITE/THE LITTLE CREEK

arr. Northern Harmony/Matt Carlson

Concert Choir

Daisies White

At night when I go to my bed
I see the stars shine overhead
They are the little daisies white
That dot the meadow of the night.

And often when I'm dreaming so
Across the sky the moon will go
She is the maiden sweet and fair
Who comes to gather daisies there.

And in the morn when I arise,
There's not a star left in the skies.
She's picked them all and dropped them down
Upon the meadow of the town.

The Little Creek

Come with me to the little creek
Where my thoughts are running free.
They might run swift or they might run deep,
But these waters wind their way through me.

When we reach the hill, we'll follow it down.
Cross the rough and rocky ground.
Get a little bit lost and a little bit found,
But it evens out when we hear that sound.

Why are we so scared to search our centers?
It may seem so, but every door you enter
You find a piece of something inside you never knew.
Keep moving through.

You've got your pain, I've got mine.
It's hard to say it'll work out fine.
But we can share the load when we share a sigh.
At the creek our dreams are by design.

It flows in you, and it flows in me.
Some days you will find it, some days it's hard to see.
There's twists and there's turns and there's lessons to learn by the creek.
Take a breath and think.

Please don't be so scared to search your center.
Let those seeds grow, 'cause every door you enter
You find a piece of something inside you never knew.
Keep moving through.
Believe it's true
I know that you
Will keep moving through.

Make a little change at the little creek.

TRUE COLORS

Billy Steinberg and Tom Kelly

arr. Matthew Brown

Concert Choir

You with the sad eyes,
Don't be discouraged.
Oh, I realize it's hard to take courage.
In a world full of people
You can lose sight of it all,
And the darkness there inside you makes you feel so small.

But I see your true colors shining through.
I see your true colors and that's why I love you.
So don't be afraid to let them show
Your true colors are beautiful, like a rainbow.

Show me a smile then,
And don't be unhappy.
Can't remember when I last saw you laughing.
If this world makes you crazy
And you've taken all you can bear,
Don't you know you can call me up
Because you know I'll be there.

But I see your true colors shining through.
I see your true colors and that's why I love you.
So don't be afraid to let them show
Your true colors are beautiful, like a rainbow.

Can't remember when I last saw you laughing.
If this world makes you crazy
And you've taken all you can bear,
Don't you know you can call me up
Because you know I'll be there.

But I see your true colors shining through.
I see your true colors and that's why I love you.
So don't be afraid to let them show
Your true colors are beautiful, like a rainbow.

GET ON BOARD LITTLE CHILDREN

arr. Andre J. Thomas

Concert Choir & Chorale

Get on board, little children
Get on board today
Get on board, little children
Get on board today

I hear that train a-comin'
She's comin' 'round the curve
She's loosened all her steam and brakes
And straining every nerve

Get on board, little children
Get on board, little children
Get on board, little children
There's room for many a more

Get on board, little children
Get on board today
Get on board, little children
Get on board today

The gospel train is comin'
I hear it just at hand
I hear the car wheels movin'
And a rumblin' through the land

The fare is cheap and all can go
The rich and poor are there
No second class on board this train
No difference in the fare

Get on board, little children
Get on board, little children
Get on board, little children
There's room for many a more

Get on board, little children
Get on board, little children
Get on board, little children
There's room for many a more

Get on board, little children
Get on board today
Get on board, little children
Get on board today

Get on board, little children
Get on board today
Get on board, little children
Get on board today

Andrea Mazzariello, percussion

GRADUATING SENIOR

LILANA SIMONS

Favorite thing about being in NYC

My favorite part of being in NYC is singing with people of different ages. Everyone brings something unique, and together it creates something special.

Do you have a favorite composition you've performed as part of NYC?

My favorite composition is "Where the Light Begins" by Susan LaBarr.

What are your future plans?

I plan to attend St. Olaf College to study Nursing and Dance.

NYC Alumni and Poco a Poco are invited to come forward and join in singing Blessing.

BLESSING

Katie Moran Bart
Combined Choirs

May the road rise up to meet you;
May the wind be always at your back,
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
And the rains fall soft upon your fields.
Until we meet again, my friends,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.
