Activities

We want to thank everyone for their understanding during the week of our rummage and bake sale. It doesn't matter how many notices we post or how many reminders are given, people miss things. So if you happened to come in one day and found your activity moved, or worse, canceled, we appreciate your patience and kindness, even though it probably inconvenienced you.

We also want to thank everyone for their support and generosity. The contribution of the donated baked goods for the Day Service program bake sale was tremendous. We are certainly blessed to have some very talented volunteer bakers in our midst. There was an enormous selection of unique items. Every time I walked by, there was something new to replace what had been purchased. Of course, Esther was a huge help, arriving on the first day in her Speedy Gonzales outfit with her small piñata sidekick. The next day, she came dressed as the Chips Ahoy Cookie Guy. Between the attire, which always provides a chuckle, and her insistence on not wanting you to miss out on a fabulous treat, she systematically clears the table.

The rummage sale was another huge success. With one day left to sell, the sale is on track to break a record. Last month, I mentioned that Sheila, Lynn and Ellen have been sorting, bagging and pricing. Folks contributed so much stuff that the Township kindly let us use part of the garage for sorting and storage.

Setting up and organizing a sale of this magnitude initially involves an army of volunteers. If you were here on Monday, you would have witnessed firsthand what I am talking about. Every cart we had was lined up by the back door, with a number of volunteers standing at the ready. Once the garage was opened, they filed out, gathered their trophies, returned to the bingo room, unloaded, and repeated, over and over again. Needless to say, there was yet another group of volunteers waiting inside to receive their goods and place them on the appropriate tables or shuttle them to the front lobby for the men's display.

That was just the first step on what is a 5 day event. Many of those volunteers were here first thing every morning, sorting, straightening, folding, helping and taking money the remainder of the day. There are things here we simply could not do without our volunteers, sales are just one of many, and it is so greatly appreciated.

You probably caught on to the theme here. It's about our volunteers. Last month, I also mentioned that we were celebrating Volunteer Month by hosting our annual Volunteer Appreciation dinner. In previous years, our volunteers were invited to join staff at an off-site venue, usually the Holiday Inn banquet room. While it was typically a nice event, it didn't convey a strong sense of gratitude for what our volunteers do for the staff. This is why we decided to hold it at the Center. While I won't bore you with all the details, a lot more planning and work goes into this event than into any other event we have, including those previously hosted at the Holiday Inn. This was the entire purpose of doing it in-house. It was a way for the staff to show you, our volunteers, how much even the littlest thing you do makes all the difference in the world to us. Even though ideas may conflict and stress levels can rise, we look past those moments because we realize that, together, we have assembled one of the best teams around and by all of us working together, we have made something each one of us should be proud of.

The Reading List
 By Sara Nisha Adams

An unforgettable and heartwarming debut about how a chance encounter with a list of library books helps forge an unlikely friendship between two very different people in a London suburb. Widower Mukesh lives a quiet life in the London Borough of Ealing after losing his beloved wife. He shops every Wednesday, goes to Temple, and worries about his granddaughter, Priya, who hides in her room reading while he spends his evenings watching nature documentaries. Aleisha is a bright but anxious teenager working at the local library for the summer when she discovers a crumpled-up piece of paper in the back of To Kill a Mockingbird. It's a list of novels that she's never heard of before. Intrigued, and a little bored with her slow job at the checkout desk, she impulsively decides to read every book on the list, one after the other. As each story gives up its magic, the books transport Aleisha from the painful realities she's facing at home. When Mukesh arrives at the library, desperate to forge a connection with his bookworm granddaughter, Aleisha passes along the reading list... hoping that it will be a lifeline for him too. Slowly, the shared books create a connection between two lonely souls, as fiction helps them escape their grief and everyday troubles and find joy again.

NOTE: When scanning in, choose EVERY activity you are here for.

Because we have added several different activities in recent years you may need to hit the Next Page more than once to find out what you are looking for. Remember Pat or Wanda can help if you are having trouble. Its better to ask for help then have one of them yell, "You Need to Select Something and Hit Finish"

And here is why!

Think of our kiosk and signing in as the tank and fuel gauge for our center. Because we are supported by Senior Millage funds, every hour you spend here is directly tied to the financial support we receive from the county. Each time you pick from the list and hit finish, you aren't just checking a box; you are actively 'voting' for the programs you love, from our lunch to bunco to walk and geri-fit. Without an accurate count of every hour, the county assumes the need for these services has decreased, which could lead to budget cuts. By signing in, you are personally ensuring that the Frenchtown Center for Active Adults remains a vibrant, well-funded hub for every senior in our community.

Thanks to our generous funders, we have launched a specialized mobile initiative. We are proud to introduce the Caregiver Caravan—a premium service available exclusively to families currently registered in our Adult Day Service program. It is our commitment to ensuring those who rely on us for daily care, also have the mobility they need to stay connected to our community.

Our new "Caravan" vehicle is:

- Fully Accessible: Designed for safety and ease of use for both participants and elderly caregivers.
- Volunteer-Powered: Driven by trained community members who understand the unique needs of our families.
- More than a Ride: The journey is the destination. By removing caregivers from their familiar (and often stressful) home environments, we provide them the mental space to relax, engage, and connect.

The "Caravan" did its maiden voyage on Tuesday, May 5, 2026. Caregivers were driven to Cracker Barrel for an enjoyable lunch.

When does a joke become a dad joke?

When the punchline is apparent.

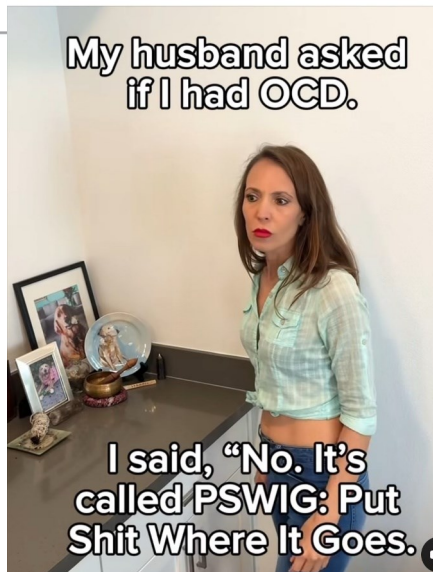

A man walking down the street noticed a small boy trying to reach the doorbell of a house.

Even when he jumped up, he couldn't quite reach it.

The man decided to help the boy, walked up on to the porch and lifted the child up who then pushed the doorbell.

He gently placed the young boy down, smiled and asked, "What now?"

The boy answered, "Now we run like crazy!"

WANTED:

Someone to brush their teeth with me because 9/10 dentists say brushing alone won't help tooth decay.

No weirdos please.

Alzheimer's & Brain Awareness Month in June

In addition to November and September observances, June is recognized in the U.S. as Alzheimer's & Brain Awareness Month, sponsored by the Alzheimer's Association. This month focuses on raising awareness on all types of dementia, supporting those affected, and promoting brain health. Activities include wearing purple, participating in walks, sharing stories on social media using #ENDALZ, and joining local or virtual events.

Symbolism. The purple ribbon is the official symbol of Alzheimer's awareness, representing dignity, wisdom, and hope for a future free from the disease. Wearing or displaying purple during awareness month, helps unify communities and amplify the message. By participating in Alzheimer's Awareness Month, Individuals can contribute to a global effort to improve understanding, support affective families, and advance research toward better treatments and prevention.

Beginning June 1, 2026, and through the month of June, the Center will have purple ribbons to purchase with a donation. This donation will benefit the Adults Day Services Program. Every 5th person to donate will also receive a complementary Alzheimer's license plate.
