November 2023 Poor Souls in Purgatory

The Sanctuary Candles are lit in the Church, St. Jude Chapel, and Adoration Chapel. These candles are perpetually lit for two weeks for your special intention in a high place of honor which lets us know that Jesus is physically present in the Eucharist. They can be in memory of a loved one, for a special intention, in thanksgiving, or any intention. The cost is $15.00.

Week of October 29, 2023 - November 11, 2023

The Church Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week for the Powell Families by John Powell.

The St. Jude Chapel Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in loving memory of Ronnie L. Varnado by Family.

The Adoration Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week for Special Intentions by Anonymous.

Pray for the Poor Souls in Purgatory

Eternal rest grant to them, o Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

NOVEMBER - POOR SOULS IN PURGATORY

Over the centuries the month of November has been dedicated to the Poor Souls in purgatory. We will explore three questions and with a short answer on what our Catholic faith teaches about devotion to the Poor Souls in purgatory. Who are the Poor Souls? Why are the Poor Souls in purgatory?; and How are we to practice our devotion to the souls in purgatory?

Who Are the Poor Souls?

The Poor Souls are the souls of those people who died in the friendship of God. But they still have some suffering to undergo for the sins they had committed during their lives on earth. It is the infallible teaching of the Catholic Church that there is a purgatory. As the word itself indicates, purgatory is the state of those who still have to be cleansed of the penalty which they owe for their past offenses against God. The Poor Souls are poor because they are in suffering and need our help. We know from Sacred Scripture that there is a purgatory, as described in the second book of Maccabees, which unfortunately has been removed from the Protestant Old Testament (2 Maccabees 12:41-45).

The existence of purgatory is a defined truth of the Catholic faith. Those who die without the guilt of mortal sin, but with temporal punishment still due for their past offenses “are cleansed after death in purgatorial or cleansing punishments.”

It is commonly believed that the principal suffering in purgatory is the pain of loss. The souls are temporarily deprived of the Beatific Vision (seeing God face to face).

Why are the Poor Souls in Purgatory?

In order to understand why the Poor Souls are in purgatory, as Catholics we should know what we believe about the double effect of every sin. Every time we sin we lose more or less of God’s grace. This we call “guilt.” Every time we sin we also incur a debt of pain. This we call “penalty.”

Mortal sins are called mortal because they deprive the sinner of sanctifying grace and the right to heaven. Mortal sins also incur the debt of eternal punishment.

When mortal sins are forgiven in the sacrament of penance (confession), sanctifying grace is restored and the debt of eternal punishment is removed. But normally there is still temporal punishment to be expiated. Moreover, venial sins always carry with them a debt of temporal punishment, which is more or less remitted, depending on a person’s spiritual dispositions.

This immediately tells us that because we are sinners we must expect to suffer in expiation for our sins. The choice we have is between patiently suffering here on earth or suffering in purgatory after our bodily death.

Devotion to the Poor Souls

Devotion to the Poor Souls has two sides: our side and the side of the souls in purgatory. On their side, the Poor Souls are united with us in the one Kingdom of Christ. They can pray and obtain blessings for us here on earth. They are united, as the Second Vatican Council teaches, with the pilgrim Church in the Communion of Saints. We are therefore encouraged to invoke their aid, with a confidence of being heard by those who understand our needs. They know from their own experience what it means to carry the cross here on earth.

On our side, we are to do everything we can to help the Poor Souls in the Church Suffering. The sufferings in purgatory are not the same for all. They depend on each person’s degree of sinfulness. St. Thomas Aquinas held that the least pain in purgatory is greater than the worst pain in this life.

What does it mean to pray for the Poor Souls?

It means everything that we can offer for the faithful departed. We can offer our bodily pains in expiation for their sins. We can offer our spiritual sufferings, our disappointments and fears, our discouragement and estrangement from those we love. We can offer our vocal prayers, like the Rosary, the Memorare, the Angelus, the divine mercy chaplet, etc.

We can offer our mental prayers, like the Way of the Cross, our daily meditation and examination of conscience. We can offer our mortifications, like giving up some delicacy at table, or performance of some unpleasant work.

But the most effective offering we can make for the Poor Souls is the Holy Eucharist at the Sacrifice of the Mass; Holy Communion and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Over the centuries, the Catholic faithful have by now offered countless Masses for the Poor Souls.

As a suggestion: during the month of November, compose a Necrology. A necrology is a list of all the deceased persons whom we wish to specially remember in our Masses, and those to whom we wish to specially commend to the mercy of God. Every Catholic diocese in the world has a Necrology of its deceased priests and deacons. Every family should have its own Necrology of deceased members whom we daily remember to our merciful Lord.

Every time you say the grace after meals, be sure to add the invocation, "Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen." In every Rosary we recite, do not forget to say after each decade, "O, my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, and bring all souls to heaven, especially those who are in most need of thy mercy."

Remember that devotion to the Poor Souls is really a covenant between them and us. We pray and sacrifice for them; and they can pray and suffer for us. They appreciate whatever help we give them, to lessen their suffering and to shorten their stay in Purgatory. They will continue to show their appreciation when we join them in a heavenly eternity.

SAVE A SOUL !!!

INDULGENCES FOR ALL SOULS WEEK

By a plenary indulgence is meant the remission of the entire temporal punishment due to sin so that no further expiation is required in Purgatory. A partial indulgence commutes only a certain portion of the penalty. An indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray, even if mentally, for the departed. The indulgence is plenary each day during the Novena (Nov. 2-10). It is partial for the remaining days of November. A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who on the day dedicated to the Commemoration of the All the Faithful Departed (Nov. 2), piously visits a church. In visiting, the church, it is required that one Our Father and the Creed be recited. This is granted also on the Sunday preceding and following Nov. 2.

To acquire a plenary indulgence, it is necessary also to fulfill the following three (3) conditions within seven (7) days before or after the visit: sacramental confession, reception of Holy Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father. The condition of praying for the intentions of the Holy Father is fully satisfied by reciting one Our Father and one Hail Mary. A plenary indulgence can be acquired only once in the course of a day. A partial indulgence, applicable only to the souls in purgatory, can be obtained when the Eternal Rest (Requiem aeternam) is prayed. This is a good prayer to recite especially during the month of November:

Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
