The word TENEBRAE is Latin for "shadows" or "darkness." The Tenebrae service is an ancient monastic tradition that took place on one of the last three days of Holy Week: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, or Holy Saturday. The purpose of this service is to remember the somber events that occurred in Jesus' life from the night He was betrayed to the moment of His burial.

The most distinctive aspect of the service is the use of the 15 Tenebrae candles. The flames of these candles are extinguished one by one as Scripture and hymns are shared to unfold the events of the Sacred Triduum. These candles represent Jesus Christ (the one candle that is not extinguished), the disciples (excluding Judas Iscariot), and the 3 Marys (the female disciples who were the first to go to Jesus' tomb).

This gradual 'descent into gloom' is a representation of Jesus' increasing sorrow of His Passion. After the concluding hymn is sung, the last candle is extinguished, and the church is 'plunged' into darkness.

A loud noise (traditionally called the strepitus) will be sounded in the dark, to represent the closing of Christ's tomb and the earthquake that occurred at the time of His resurrection.

At this point, another lit candle, which had been hidden from view, is put in the middle of the sanctuary, symbolizing Christ's resurrection.

The service ends, and those present are traditionally expected to leave in a contemplative silence.

N.B. The Tenebrae service, celebrated here at Most Precious Blood Church, is an abbreviated version of the medieval form of the liturgy.
