

Privacy policy

As a Repco Authorised Service centre, Brian Turner Automotive is sensitive to privacy issues on the Internet. We believe it is important you know how we treat the information about you we receive on the Internet.

In general, you can visit without telling us who you are or revealing any information about yourself. Our web servers collect the IP addresses, not the e-mail addresses, of visitors. This information is aggregated to measure the number of visits, average time spent on the site, pages viewed, etc. Repco Authorised Service uses this information to measure the use of our site and to improve the content of our site.

There are times, however, when we may need information from you, such as your name and address. When information is needed, we will try to let you know at the time of collection, how we will use the personal information. Usually, the personal information we collect is used only by us to respond to your inquiry, process an order or allow you to access specific account information. Occasionally, we may make the e-mail addresses of those who provide information available to other reputable organisations whose products or services we think you may find interesting. In these cases, you will be offered an opportunity to limit access to your information.

If you register with Repco Authorised Service online, we may use this information to provide you with custom information about ourselves which you have either asked for or require. A technology called cookies may be used to provide you with tailored information. A cookie is a tiny element of data that a website can send to your browser, which may then be stored on your hard drive so we can recognise you when you return. You may set your browser to notify you when you receive a cookie.

At times, we conduct online surveys to better understand the needs and profile of our visitors. When we conduct a survey, we will try to let you know how we will use the information at the time we collect information from you on the Internet.

The Repco Authorised Service website may contain links to other sites and sales affiliates. While we try to link only to sites that share our high standards and respect for privacy, we are not responsible for the content or the privacy practices employed by other sites.

The Repco Authorised Service website and its affiliated websites may use cookies to collect some non-personally identifiable information to better target content to individuals in an effort to create a more relevant experience for each person and to provide aggregate reporting to advertisers and clients. This data cannot be traced back to any one user, it is anonymous. We may retain such information for up to two years. Aggregate reports generated from such information may be kept longer.

The Repco Authorised Service website may also use Google Analytics data and the double click cookie to serve ads based on a user's prior visits across a range of websites on the Google network.

To opt out of this use of your anonymous information on the Google advertising network visit www.google.com/ads/preferences/html/opt-out.html or to opt out of Google Analytics visit <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>. Please note that if you change your internet browser or delete all your cookies you will need to renew your opt-out.
