Questions and Responses

1. According to paragraph two on the overview section: It is anticipated that MHA will form a Community Advisory Group (“CAG”). The CAG will be comprised of invited stakeholders, including the GGV Resident Council or “GGVRC,” MHA and or Marin County staff, with attendance by elected and or County officials.
   i. Is there a timeline for member selection of the CAG?
      RESPONSE: There is no firm date. The CAG is supposed to start meeting in April.
   ii. Have all the members been selected?
       RESPONSE: No members have been selected.

2. According to the mission and charter for the Community Advisory Group: The CAG will review information, identify any challenges or concerns, and provide feedback on key planning elements for the rehabilitation of Golden Gate Village through discussions and workshops.
   i. Does CAG have decision-making power in the redevelopment process?
      RESPONSE: The CAG is advising MHA and the MHA Board. The CAG will need to collaborate, comment, and advise on what goes to the MHA Board for the Board to approve.
   ii. Are CAG members being compensated for their time? If not, is this being considered by MHA?
       RESPONSE: Currently no compensation for CAG participation is contemplated.
   iii. Does the CAG have an equity component or lens?
       RESPONSE: The CAG’s areas of focus are included in the RFP.

3. According to the RFP for Community Facilitation Services: “The CAG will advise on five key GGV planning elements.”
   i. Are there any additional objectives?
      RESPONSE: All the CAG’s areas of focus are included in the RFP. However, as new issues emerge in the process they may need to be considered.
   ii. Is the CAG responsible for developing any of its own objectives?
       RESPONSE: The CAG is not responsible for developing its own objectives.

4. According to the RFP, Enterprise is providing technical assistance.
   i. Are there additional consultants besides Enterprise hired to assist with the revitalization process at Golden Gate Village?
      RESPONSE: Yes, MHA has procured, legal, finance and development consultants that will provide technical information to the CAG.
   ii. Do you see us working closely with Enterprise or other consultants?
       RESPONSE: Yes, but MHA will assist in planning workshops and tasking the consultant team for the facilitator and the CAG.
