I am responsible for and I have established and maintained an effective system of internal controls over compliance requirements. INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANT'S REPORT ON COMPLIANCE AND ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER COMPLIANCE

Honorable Kelly L. Fulkerson
Circuit Clerk

Members of the County Board
White County, Illinois

Report on Compliance

We have examined compliance by the Office of the Circuit Clerk of White County (Office) with the specified requirements listed below where applicable laws, rules, regulations, and court orders require the Office to collect, hold, and disburse moneys to applicable parties or entities, outside of moneys already on deposit in White County's funds and accounts used to finance the regular operations of the Office, as more fully described in the Circuit Clerk Audit Guidelines (Guidelines) as adopted by the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts, during the year ended November 30, 2025. The management of the Office is responsible for compliance with the specified requirements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Office's compliance with the specified requirements based on our examination.

The specified requirements are:

- A. The Office has complied, in all material respects, with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and court order in its financial and fiscal operations.
- B. Moneys or negotiable securities or similar assets handled by the Office or held in trust by the Office have been properly and legally administered, and the accounting and recordkeeping thereto is proper, accurate, and in accordance with law.

Our examination was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants; the standards applicable to attestation engagements contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the Clerks of Courts Act (Act), and the Guidelines. Those standards, the Act, and the Guidelines require that we plan and perform the examination to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Office complied, in all material respects, with the specified requirements. An examination involves performing procedures to obtain evidence about whether the Office complied with the specified requirements. The nature, timing and extent of the procedures selected depend on our judgment, including an assessment of the risks of material noncompliance with the specified requirements, whether due to fraud or error. We believe that the evidence we obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We are required to be independent and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with relevant ethical requirements relating to the engagement.

Our examination does not provide a legal determination on the Office's compliance with the specified requirements.

In our opinion, the Office complied with the specified requirements during the year ended November 30, 2025, in all material respects. The purpose of this report on compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing and the results of that testing in accordance with the requirements of the Guidelines. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.

Report on Internal Control Over Compliance

Management of the Office is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the specified requirements (internal control). In planning and performing our examination, we considered the Office's internal control to determine the examination procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the Office's compliance with the specified requirements and to test and report on the Office's internal control over in accordance with the Guidelines, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Office's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Office's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with the specified requirements on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with the specified requirements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Guidelines. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.

Our examination was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants; the standards applicable to attestation engagements contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the Clerks of Courts Act (Act), and the Guidelines. Those standards, the Act, and the Guidelines require that we plan and perform the examination to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Schedule is presented in accordance with the criteria, in all material respects. We believe that the evidence we obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We are required to be independent and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with relevant ethical requirements relating to the engagement.

In our opinion, the Schedule of Accountabilities (Schedule) for the year ended November 30, 2025, is presented in accordance with the criteria set forth in Note 1, in all material respects.

Report on Internal Control Over the Schedule of Accountabilities

Management of the Office is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over preparing a complete and accurate Schedule in accordance with the Circuit Clerk Audit Guidelines published by the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts (internal control). In planning and performing our examination, we considered the Office's internal control to determine the examination procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the Schedule and to test and report on the Office's internal control in accordance with the Guidelines, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Office's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Office's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with the specified requirements on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with the specified requirements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our examination we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that have not been identified.

The Schedule of Accountabilities (Schedule) includes only those accounts and funds where laws, rules, regulations, or court orders require the Circuit Clerk of White County (Circuit Clerk) to collect, hold, and disburse moneys to applicable parties or entities, outside of those funds which finance the Circuit Clerk’s regular ongoing operations. The Schedule is prepared on the cash basis of accounting, where receipts, including interest and investment income, are recorded when physical cash, a negotiable instrument, or an electronic transaction is received by the Circuit Clerk and disbursements are recorded when physical cash, a negotiable instrument, or an electronic transaction is processed by the Circuit Clerk.
