GROUP MEMBERS

You are employees for Remote Possibilities, a company that helps clients who work remotely determine the best location to live based on their income, financial goals, and lifestyle desires. Your task is to research and prepare for an upcoming consultation with a client who needs help in their decision-making process.

PROJECT STAGES

STAGE	EXPECTATION	DUE DATE
1: Intro and Research	Become familiar with your client's situation and research city recommendations
2: Build a Budget	Create a budget for your top three city locations for your client
3: Summarize and Present	Organize your findings into a portfolio to present at your meeting with your client

PROJECT REQUIREMENTS

Your final product will be a portfolio that includes the following information:

1. Three city recommendations that meet the client's needs and budget
2. A suggested budget for each city that includes the dollar amount and percentage of the budget represented by each category
3. Your top city recommendation for your client

Be sure your portfolio is engaging, informative and easy to understand. Apply your creativity and math skills to present excellent options for your client!
