

MARJORIE JOSEPH SCHOLARSHIP: OUTSTANDING BEGINNING DOCTORAL STUDENT AWARD

CATEGORY: Graduate – Beginning Doctoral Students

AWARD: $1,000 for One Outstanding Beginning Doctoral Student

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: June 1

ABOUT MARJORIE JOSEPH:

This scholarship is named in honor of Marjorie Joseph, former professor at California State University Northridge, author of numerous textile science articles and books, and the first editor of the Clothing and Textiles Research Journal.

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION/CRITERIA:

- Students can win the award only once. Therefore, if a student has received the award in the past, he or she may not reapply.
- Scholarship selection criteria includes:
  - (1) Enrollment (applied, accepted, and confirmed) in a doctoral program in an ITAA member program (one that includes the disciplines of textiles, apparel, and/or merchandising) at the time of application package submission.
  - (2) Since this award is for beginning doctoral students, the applicant's completed academic hours for doctoral work (at the time of application package submission) must be between 0-30 in the semester system or 0-45 in the quarter system.
  - (3) ITAA graduate student member at the time of application package submission.
  - (4) Professional experience in and contributions to the textiles and apparel profession, including, but not limited to, involvement and leadership in professional organizations.
  - (5) Academically sound background and high level of scholarship, with a balance of study in textiles, apparel, and supporting disciplines.
  - (6) Potential for future contributions to and leadership in the textiles and apparel profession.
  - (7) Potential for successful completion of an advanced degree.
  - (8) Completed application package for the Marjorie Joseph: Outstanding Beginning Doctoral Student Award (submission deadline July 1).
- The Student Fellowships and Awards Committee will review the completed application packages and determine the recipient after July 1. All applicants will be notified of the Committee's decision as soon as possible. Awardees must notify the ITAA office of acceptance and supply the ITAA office with a digital photograph (300 dpi) by September 1.

SUBMISSION PROCEDURE:

Doctoral students, who meet all of the above scholarship selection criteria, adhere to the required submission deadline, and submit a complete application package, will be considered for this scholarship. The application package for the Marjorie Joseph Scholarship: Outstanding Beginning Doctoral Student Award must include all of the following requirements for consideration (incomplete or late submissions will not be considered):

- (1) Completed application form.
- (2) Two letters of recommendation (these may include your major advisor and/or a person under whom you have worked directly). At least one letter must be written by a current ITAA professional member (individuals with an advanced degree in textiles and apparel or a related discipline, employed at a college or university, and involved in education, scholarship, or outreach) or emeritus member (individuals who are retired and have a minimum of seven years of ITAA membership in the professional category). Letters must be on official letterhead, signed, and address the following: (a) how long the referee has known the applicant and in what capacity, and the applicant's (b) academic and leadership abilities, (c) personal characteristics, (d) extracurricular and community involvement, (e) professional goals, and (f) potential for future contributions to the textiles and apparel profession. If students are applying for multiple graduate awards, the same recommendation letters may be reused and submitted for each award (letter requirements are the same for all graduate awards). Please advise the people writing letters on your behalf as to which award(s) you are applying to, so that they may include the award title(s) in their letter.

- (3) Transcripts (unofficial is acceptable) from all institutions of matriculation (i.e., Bachelor's degree and graduate work).
- (4) Description of research topic:
- A. If the research topic has been approved by the dissertation committee members, then the applicant must provide one of the following:
- A graduate school form with the appropriate signatures; OR
  - A signed letter on department letterhead from the dissertation advisor/committee chair, which states and explains the approved research topic.
- B. If the research topic has not been approved by the dissertation committee and/or submitted to the graduate school, then the applicant must write a brief synopsis/abstract (500 words or less) of their research topic intentions. The brief synopsis/abstract must include the following:
- The intended topic;
  - Type of study (qualitative or quantitative);
  - Method(s) for data collection;
  - Possible/intended means of analyzing data; and
  - Signature of the dissertation advisor/committee chair.

The applicant/submitter is responsible for completing, obtaining, and providing all of the above scholarship requirements as a complete application package. The above scholarship requirements must be combined (a complete application package) and saved into one basic Adobe Acrobat PDF file (PDF Portfolios will not be accepted). The PDF file should be named as follows: MJoseph-Applicant Name. Finally, the PDF file should be uploaded by July 1 using the submission link via the ITAA website.

In order to complete and electronically sign the application, you must download the application and save it to your computer or external device.
