OCTOBER 2025

A message from Jo..

October..... the countdown is now on for Christmas, I guess someone knows how many weeks and days until the jolly man in the red suit makes another appearance. This year seems to have gone incredibly fast, but I say that every year!

The first month of spring has seen the blossoms appear, some warmer days.....and a frost or two in Dorrig. Having lived here all my life, I can almost guarantee the coming Long Weekend will be either stinking hot or freezing cold. It's a funny world we live in.

October in Dorrig will see the Bluegrass Festival once again on the 24th, 25th and 26th – it looks like there is a great line up of artists. Fingers crossed for a fine weekend; it is always a great time for entertainment on the Plateau.

Dorrig Show is on again in November – more about that next month.

As mentioned, the coming weekend is a Long Weekend, we will be closed on Monday 6th October.

Welcome back to work, Peter Smith – so pleased he has been “fixed”. Thank you to Paris, Brad, and Jack for taking over and trying to fill his boots while he was away. We have realised that Peter has stored a vast amount of knowledge in his head over the years he has been doing his job – the standard joke here for a long time, is that Peter can quote a 20-digit Part Number off the top of his head, but cannot tell you the postcode for Macksville 😊. Also, thank you to the many people that have enquired and contacted him about his health – that has meant a lot to him, and to us.

Jack Martin and Lou Molina are both taking Annual Leave during October. I hope they get to relax and have “time out”.

Another reminder – the grass is growing, and we have a couple of second hand zero turn mowers in stock, also a great range of new ones. Call in or give us a call if you are thinking about upgrading.

Also, if you are still receiving your invoices and accounts by mail, and you have an email address – please let us know what it is. I believe postage is now $1.70 – it would be so much easier (and quicker) to email to you.

Until next month..... Jo
