Montreal, Quebec & the St. Lawrence Seaway

Leave ordinary travel behind and step into a river journey few ever experience. This is not a big-ship cruise—this is an intimate voyage where historic cities, legendary waterways, and hidden ports unfold right outside your window, beginning in unforgettable Québec City.

Sail the legendary St. Lawrence Seaway, where your ship ascends and descends inside colossal locks—an unforgettable front-row seat to one of the world's greatest engineering feats. Shore excursions INCLUDED!

Drift through the dazzling 1,000 Islands, where castle-like mansions, secluded coves, and pine-covered isles appear around every bend. Walk the opulent halls of Fulford Mansion, then step inside the 1000 Islands Boat Museum to uncover the romance, craftsmanship, and adventure that have defined life on these storied waters for generations.

Discover bold innovation and rich culture at the Borealis Museum, the Montreal Museum of History, and the mighty Saunders Hydroelectric Dam, where power, progress, and place come together in unforgettable ways.

Claim your cabin aboard the Canadian Empress and experience Canada the way few ever do — up close, unhurried, and immersive. This is not a trip you read about later. This is the one you talk about for years.
