School Report

Today was a traditional snow day. No school or after school activities.

The Frank W. Sower Trust will conclude on December 31, 2025, after 25 years of faithful stewardship and generosity.

An inquiry is being made to bring in a school resource officer. Multiple options to cover the costs are being considered and include SRO grant application and possibly raising tuition.

Winter Greenery has arrived! Please get with Emily Jones to arrange pick up.

191 enrolled students as of end of October.

Second Grade Behavior Specialist: Determined position is no longer needed; staff member will be repurposed.

Ms. Sage Sower will now assist with math and reading in small groups for second grade. Ms. Sower will also focus on social skills lessons with 1st-2nd grade; this will be a common language- social skills class between kindergarten (beginning second semester) and 2nd grade and as needed writing in 1st grade.

Proposal to modify school uniforms under consideration to include navy polo, khaki bottoms & plaid skorts.

Holiday Shop: December 8th -12th. Please get with Katie Brown to volunteer for wrapping and student assistance with shopping. You may also sign up here: <https://signup.com/go/jogJZVv>

Christmas program will be 12/16 at 6:00 pm.

The Red Wagon Advent project is underway. Donations will be dropped off at the Simon House and ACCESS on 12/19. If you'd like to donate, you can drop off personal hygiene and personal care items at the school office. Hand sanitizer and Lysol are also good options.

Grandparent Auxiliary Group pending: New Initiative launched to engage grandparents in school activities and donation opportunities at Good Shepherd.

Christmas Break runs 12/21 through 01/04. Back to school on Monday, January 5th.
