

Family Activity:

This week with your family, everyone should share a time when you felt great and maybe in need of being humbled. Did you ever take the last piece of meat at the dinner table, or maybe the last brownie? Did you ask if anyone else would like to have it before you took it? If not, why did you feel entitled to the last bit of food?

God bless and see you at Mass!