

Family activity:

This Sunday is called “Good Shepherd Sunday.” Jesus says that there are good shepherds and bad shepherds. He says that he is the “gate” for all of us to come into safety and love. Are there good shepherds today? False shepherds? What are they? Which are you following right now? As a family, pray Psalm 23 together:

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

In verdant pastures he gives me repose;

beside restful waters he leads me;

he refreshes my soul.

He guides me in right paths

for his name's sake.

Even though I walk in the dark valley

I fear no evil; for you are at my side.

With your rod and your staff

that give me courage.

You spread the table before me

in the sight of my foes;

you anoint my head with oil;

my cup overflows.

Only goodness and kindness follow me

all the days of my life;

and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.

God bless and see you at Mass!
