

Springtime Tallahassee returns March 27-28 with races, parade and road closures

Friday, March 27

Music Festival-related closures include:

- Duval Street: Northbound Duval Street will be blocked at Madison Street at 5:30 a.m. to construct the stage for the Music Festival. State employees will be allowed access to their parking garages.
- W. Pensacola Street: One lane will be open on W. Pensacola Street at Duval Street for westbound traffic from 5:30 to 9 a.m. At 9 a.m., there will be no more westbound traffic until after the concert, approximately 4 a.m. on March 28.
- Adams Street and Jefferson Street: Westbound traffic will be blocked completely at 9 a.m. Access to the Capitol complex gate under Waller Park will be allowed.

Saturday, March 28

The staging area for parade floats will close at 6:30 a.m. and reopen at the conclusion of the parade, approximately 12:30 p.m. Closures include:

- N. Monroe Street at Seventh Avenue: No southbound traffic from Seventh Avenue to Brevard Street.
- N. Monroe Street at Sixth Avenue: Eastbound traffic allowed; no southbound traffic.
- Brevard Street at Adams Street: No eastbound traffic.
- Brevard Street at Calhoun Street: No westbound traffic.
- Third Avenue at Adams Street: No eastbound traffic.
- Third Avenue at Thomasville Road: No westbound traffic.
- Fourth Avenue at Adams Street: No eastbound traffic.
- Fifth Avenue at Adams Street: No eastbound traffic.
- Fifth Avenue at Thomasville Road: No westbound traffic.

For the Springtime 5K/10K races, Franklin Boulevard will close from Tennessee Street to Lafayette Street from 7:30 to 9 a.m., then reopen for traffic diversion from Apalachee Parkway.

The parade route will close at 9:15 a.m. and reopen at the conclusion of the parade, approximately 12:30 p.m. Closures include:

- Monroe Street: Closed at Georgia, Carolina and Virginia streets.
- Monroe Street: Closed from W. Tennessee Street to Gaines Street for all traffic, including all cross streets.
- Tennessee Street: Closed from Calhoun Street to Adams Street.
- Apalachee Parkway: Closed for westbound traffic at Franklin Avenue.

Roads near the Jubilee in the Park will close from 6:30 a.m. through 7:30 p.m.:

- Duval Street: Closed from Pensacola Street to Park Avenue.
- Park Avenue: Closed from Duval Street to Monroe Street.
- College Avenue: Closed from Duval Street to Monroe Street.
- Jefferson Street: Closed from Adams Street to Monroe Street.