What Characters stood out to you in this episode?
Most interesting? Most moving?

We see the institution of the Eucharist in this episode as Jesus offers His body and blood for the establishment of a new covenant.

As a Christian how does understanding the Jewish passover enrich our understanding of the Eucharist?

Nicodemus and Matthias recite various prophets whose words Jesus is fulfilling. What events are they referring to?

Caiphas as Judas why he is doing this and Judas that he has seen to much yet not enough. How is this a challenge to trust in God even when we do not understand?

Nicodemus is quoting Isaiah 53 when he say, " He was a man of sorrows acquainted with grief". Do you think Nicodemus has any idea of what is coming for Jesus?

Bonus question: Does anyone know the importance of the name of Nicodemus' spy?
