

Dear Parishioners,

The celebration of our 175th Anniversary as a parish family has been exhilarating, to say the least.

Our celebration kicked off last December with our “church reveal,” whereby we showcased our choirs and turned on our Christmas lights. The celebration continued with a parish cruise to warm weather. We had a magnificent Spring Concert as our choir – accompanied by Father Matthew Brody – was simply spectacular. And our end-of-summer parish picnic was practically perfect in every way!

There have been many people who have been incredibly generous in making this year-long celebration a great success. Thank you to each of you.

This year’s reveal prior to Christmas will officially bring the Anniversary Celebration to a close in December. But between now and then there is one more really important gathering to mark our celebration: our capstone event.

On Sunday, November 16th, Archbishop Nelson Perez will be the Celebrant of our Anniversary Mass at 10:30 A.M. Sister Thomasann will return as Archbishop Perez dedicates the revitalized “Sister Thomasann Prayer Garden” just prior to Mass. Our church does so much good here in Doylestown – from educating young people to marrying young adults to assisting the elderly. But the most important thing we do is gather at Mass to receive the Lord’s Body and Blood.

After Mass, on November 16th, we will gather as a community along with Sister and the Archbishop for a luncheon reception at The Warrington.

Our school choir will perform, there will be a silent auction, and we’ll have live music throughout the afternoon.

We’ll also have history board panels displayed which will take us through the story of our parish.

The Archbishop is scheduled to speak as will long-time parishioners Dom and Mary Visco who will share their experiences of OLMC.

I’m writing this as an invitation to join us at the Mass and at the reception. The cost of the reception is $50 per person. If you would like to join us but cannot afford it, please ask me and I will help you out of my own pocket. I just want you to be there. You can call me at 215-348-4190.

Let’s continue to pray for one another.

Peace!

Father Matthew Guckin

on Halloween — this strange holiday where we seem to celebrate ghosts and goblins and

Thank you OLMC! Two parishioners have donated cars already. Can you join them and donate a car so someone struggling can work?

Peace & Justice has been asked by the Bucks County Opportunity Council to advertise that car donations are needed for the Wheelz2Work program. Ten people are on the waitlist for cars.

Because Bucks County is so long - 62 miles - not having a car is often the biggest impediment to self-sufficiency.

OLMC School

Dear Friends:

Our Lady of Mount Carmel School, we are grateful for the traditions that help our students grow in faith, wisdom, and character. Two of our most meaningful fall traditions are the Sixth Grade Bible Ceremony and the National Junior Honor Society Induction. This year, our Bible Ceremony was held in church for the first time, creating a beautiful and reverent atmosphere for this special milestone. Father Flanagan opened the prayer service by blessing the Bibles and sharing a reflection on the importance of words and names, reminding the students that God calls each of us by name and speaks to us through His Word.

Each sixth grader received their own Bible, which they will use this year as they study the Old Testament, and then continue to use throughout middle school to learn about the New Testament and Church history. The ceremony served as a powerful reminder that God's Word is a lifelong guide, offering wisdom and strength in every season of life. Seeing the students hold their Bibles for the first time—knowing they will continue to deepen their understanding of Scripture in the years ahead—was a beautiful witness of faith in action.

Our school community also celebrated the National Junior Honor Society Induction, led by NJHS Faculty Council and current members. This special ceremony recognizes 7th and 8th grade students who exemplify the five pillars of the organization: scholarship, leadership, service, character, and citizenship. Father Flanagan encouraged the inductees to serve the school and their classmates throughout the year, reminding them that true leadership is shown through service to others. We are grateful for these students who model faith-filled leadership and inspire their peers to live out our Catholic values each day.

God bless,

Dawn Parker
