

This weekend we celebrate the building of a church – Saint John Lateran Basilica in Rome. Saint John Lateran – and not Saint Peter’s - is the cathedral church of Rome.

This basilica cathedral has depictions of the Bible throughout. There’s an icon of Matthew 16 where Jesus makes Peter the head of the Church. Ezekiel 47 is on display, too, as waters are shown flowing out to all creation giving life to everything.

To walk through Saint John Lateran is like taking a Bible Study class!

The Bible is truth. It guides us through life with its wisdom and strength. In the spirit of Saint John Lateran Cathedral, consider this as an “emergency list of Bible passages” for you to use when necessary.

In sorrow? Dial up John 14. Has someone let you down? Read Psalm 27. Have you sinned? Go to Psalm 51.

Are you worrying right now? Matthew 6:19-34 is for you. In danger? Go to Psalm 91. Does God seem far away? Psalm 139 will help. Lacking faith? Look at Hebrews 11 for a few moments. Lonely? Afraid? Psalm 23, the most popular psalm of all, will cure you.

Are you bitter? Saint Paul’s First Letter to the Corinthians (chapter 13) should do the trick. Feeling down and out? Get your Bible out and read Romans 8:31-39. Searching for peace? Peruse Matthew 11:25-30.

Preparing for travel? Psalm 121 is more important than packing your suitcase. Looking for courage? Read the first chapter of Joshua. Do you just want to get along with others? Then just read Romans 12. Running low on cash? Pray Psalm 37.

Have people been unkind to you? John 15 is a good place to start. Discouraged about your work? Take a step back and read Psalm 126. Losing confidence in others? Go to 1 Corinthians 13 and slowly read it.

Do you want to know the secret to lasting happiness? Paul’s letter to the Colossians, 3:12-17 will definitely help you!

God bless you,

Father Matthew Guckin

OLMC School

Dear Friends:

Our third graders recently enjoyed an unforgettable hands-on science experience that brought new life into their classrooms! Farmer Melvin from Quiver Farms visited with a rooster and a hen, introducing the students to the fascinating world of chickens. He explained the different breeds and the stages of a chicken's life cycle, and then left each homeroom with 12 fertilized eggs and an incubator. Over the next several days, the students eagerly watched for signs of development, candling the eggs to observe the growing chicks inside. Each egg was lovingly named, and the excitement in the classroom grew daily until, at last, the chicks hatched—fluffy, chirpy and full of energy!

The teachers used this special opportunity to incorporate meaningful lessons about life cycles, responsibility, and care for living creatures. Students learned about the parts of an egg, observed the chicks' rapid growth, and reflected on the wonder of God's creation. Watching the chicks become independent reminded everyone of how each life, no matter how small, is precious and purposeful. The classroom was filled with excitement as the students cared for their tiny friends!

Inspired by their new understanding, the students then completed a creative project about their own life cycles. They documented milestones from their early years—ages 1, 3, 5, and 8—and imagined what they might be like at 13, 19, 22, and even 55. From future veterinarians and teachers to artists and engineers, their dreams were as unique as they are. We are truly grateful for the teachers who make learning so meaningful, for Farmer Melvin who brought this experience to life, and for our third graders whose curiosity and joy remind us of God's wonder at work.

God bless,

Dawn Parker

Pray with the Saints of St. Mary's Cemetery Columbarium

This Week's Featured Saint: Our Lady of Mount Carmel

The largest wall in our new Columbarium takes its name from our church, Our Lady of Mount Carmel. A title for the Virgin Mary, Our Lady of Mount Carmel is the patroness of the Carmelite Order who built the first structure in her honor.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel also has a deep rooted tradition with the Brown Scapular. It is believed that Mary gave the Brown Scapular to St. Simon Stock in 1251 with promises of protection for those who wear it faithfully.

The Our Lady of Mount Carmel Wall is the keystone of the Columbarium, centered between two long walls of niches. Its architectural and spiritual elements provide a peaceful environment for those niches, or sacred homes, of the deceased.

There is a bench for resting in front of the wall. Please come pay a visit.

Find the prayer video series in this week's Flocknote.

It never ceases to amaze how the littlest kindness means so much to our guests. And how generous they are looking out for each other. Many of the folks are working long, cold days, so being able to help them get warm food and a safe place to rest is a blessing to us. — Maria Evans

Today at Our Lady of Mount Carmel

For 175 years, Our Lady of Mount Carmel Roman Catholic Church has fostered a sense of belonging for its members and visitors as well as exhibiting a shared love and commitment to the church and the community of Doylestown.

Today this sense of community and shared worship has continued with the arrival of our 14th Pastor in 2020, Father Matthew Guckin.

Covid was still upon us when Father arrived and his nightly online prayers were a comfort to many. We were able to stay connected to our church even if we could not be there. This was a good beginning to the revitalization of the Discipleship Ministry, where many can enjoy programs like The Chosen, Walking with Purpose, Children's Adoration, ROCKS, and Into the Breach.

Convent - Sisters of St. Francis

There has also been physical updates to this wonderful old historic parish, starting with the church rectory. Anyone who has been in the new reception area has seen what a relaxing and welcoming space it is today. The most striking addition is the St. Mary's Cemetery Columbarium which was completed earlier this year. This sacred space is a much needed addition to our cemetery.

Also new to OLMC is The Art and Environment Committee which keeps the inside and outside of the church beautifully decorated and relative to the current liturgies. This enhances the worship experience for all who attend.

The school also had a revitalization in the last few years: the gym floor, which was then dedicated to long-time parishioner and CYO volunteer Jack Lafferty.

Revitalization of the Prayer Garden started earlier this fall. The Garden will be blessed as the Sister Thomasann Quinn Prayer Garden in honor of this wonderful Sister of St. Francis who has brought so much to the church and school over the years. We had to say goodbye to the Sisters of St. Francis last year after 150 years of collaboration and teaching at the school. The convent is now known as the St. Francis Center.

We would not be where we are today without all the time, talent, and care that has been so carefully applied to Our Lady of Mount Carmel over the last 175 years. Thank you to all those who have gone before us and to the stewards of today and of tomorrow.
