

We can never underestimate the effect that Saint Paul had on world history. Paul was a giant in his time – a leading rabbi, a notorious philosopher, and a citizen of Rome. He was humble, courageous, and compassionate.

Paul spread the Gospel throughout the ancient world and brought it onto the European continent. I like to think of Paul as a combination of Abraham Lincoln, Martin Luther King, and Father Shane Flanagan!

Perhaps Paul's greatest legacy, however, were the words he penned and spoke to the Corinthians. Corinth was by all accounts a "sailor's town." When Paul arrived there the city was notorious for decadence and immorality. Yet, little by little, person by person, his inviting and powerful words transformed Corinth into a place where virtue and community flourished.

Take a few moments to slowly consider his words ...

Love is patient, love is kind. Love is not jealous, it is not pompous, it is not inflated.

Love is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury.

Love does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth.

Love never fails.

At virtually EVERY wedding I celebrate I get to listen to these words ... and they never get old!

But this "ode to love" isn't just meant for weddings. After all, Paul didn't first proclaim them at a wedding. The reading is meant for each of us in any season of life.

On Monday night at 6:30 we will have A Night Of Divine Mercy. Priests from all over the area will be here to extend God's forgiveness through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

I've included in this bulletin an examination of conscience based on the words of Saint Paul. I invite you to examine your soul in light of Paul's description of love ... and then join us on Monday night to be reconciled with the One Who is Love.

God bless you,

Father Matthew Guckin

OLMC School

Dear Friends:

In honor of Veterans Day, our school community proudly honored and prayed for the brave men and women who have served our nation. Evidence of this gratitude can be seen throughout our school, where students have taken part in meaningful activities to show their appreciation and learn more about the sacrifices made by our veterans.

At the request of Mr. Jack Kearins from the American Legion, our students wrote heartfelt thank you cards to local veterans.

Mr. Kearins personally delivered these cards to veterans residing in area nursing homes, where the recipients were deeply touched by the students' kind words and prayers. In addition, Mrs. Rockovich invited our eighth-grade students to create prayer posters in honor of veterans from their own families—a beautiful reminder of how service and faith often go hand in hand.

Mrs. McKendry and our fifth graders also welcomed First Sergeant Peter Chong to their social studies class. Sgt. Chong spoke about his military service and shared stories of duty, courage, and teamwork while stressing the importance of serving our country. He even brought along several uniform items, giving the students a hands-on connection to his experiences. Finally, Sgt. Chong presented our school with an American flag, symbolizing unity, respect and dedication.

Our seventh and eighth graders will continue their reflection on service and character while attending a Character Does Matter presentation before the eighth graders head over to Freedom Square to assist the artist in maintaining this beautiful memorial. Meanwhile, the seventh graders will assist Mr. Kearins in respectfully removing the Veterans flags from our OLMC Church cemetery. Through these experiences, our students are learning that gratitude for our veterans is best shown not only in words, but in action and prayer.

God bless,

Dawn Parker

Thanks once again for your tremendous generosity. Our winter coat collection was extremely successful. We received nearly 400 coats from parishioners. The Knights gave us 72 new coats.

Pray with the Saints of St. Mary's Cemetery Columbarium

Columbarium Wall St. Joseph

Joseph was a compassionate and caring man. He was the loving husband of Mary and foster father to Jesus, whom he treated as his own. Joseph was a working man, a carpenter, a just man, who took good care of his family. He became holy by opening himself totally to God.

Joseph is the Patron Saint of the Universal Church, fathers, travelers, and immigrants. Joseph is also the patron saint of a happy death because he died with Mary and Jesus close to him, the way we would all like to leave this earth.

When you are next at OLMC, come take a moment to visit with St. Joseph and our Mother in St. Mary's Cemetery Columbarium.

OLMC Prison Ministry

Inspired by the work of the late Fr. Davids

In Matthew 25:36 Jesus calls upon us to visit those in prison.

That's exactly what the OLMC Prison Ministry does. Our members provide support, encouragement, and guidance to women and men during this critical time in their life. We offer a one-on-one mentoring program as well as religious services (communion, Mass, confessions and Bible studies) in the Bucks County jail. We're about 30 strong and welcome members of OLMC and other churches throughout the county.

Our mentors, and the people we serve, are men and women of all ages. Might God be calling you to this ministry? To learn more please write to us at prisonministry@ourladymtcarmel.org

175th / 150th Jubilee Celebration
Parishioner Reflection
Timothy Haughey

1. What brought you to Our Lady of Mount Carmel?

I moved from Germantown to Chalfont as a child and attended St Jude School and Church. In 1958 I came to Our Lady of Mount Carmel School for several years to attend classes.

2. How long have you been in the Parish?

I have been a parishioner for 20 years.

3. How has Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish helped you in your life?

The Parish has helped me in my life by providing Community and a sense of purpose. I have met some wonderful people and I have enjoyed sharing life experiences with fellow parishioners. I have found love and support here at the parish during difficult times.

4. What is your favorite memory of living in the parish?

I remember meeting my best friend in the school yard. I was crying because I couldn't find my classroom. He was so kind. He showed me to my classroom. When I finally got glasses in the 4th grade, my days at school greatly improved.

5. What is your greatest hope for our parish in the future?

My greatest hope for the Parish is that we will continue to have a strong music ministry. Music is so important to pick us up in good and difficult times and to bring us closer to God. And I hope that we never take the blessing of beautiful liturgical music for granted.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish
