

On Monday at 5:30 we will, again, celebrate our annual “Christmas Reveal.” Our stupendous choir and our new Children’s Choir will lead us in song as we make our final preparations to welcome the birth of Jesus Christ!

Our Youth Group – under the masterful direction of Dawn Solly – will be serving hot chocolate to warm us. Lest I forget, we will be joined by two very special visitors: Santa Claus and the World’s Biggest Elf.

Like the lighting of the Doylestown Christmas Tree on the day after Thanksgiving, this gives us the opportunity to slow down and take in the beauty created in our church by the Art & Environment Committee. They ALWAYS do a spectacular job but this year they will outdo themselves.

We call the event the “Christmas Reveal” because you’ll get to see the church’s artistic transformation from the simplicity of Advent to the grandeur of Christmas.

But there’s still another reason.

In our Gospel this weekend, we find Joseph in the midst of uncertainty. It is then that an angel appears to him and reveals God’s plan for him to take Mary into his home and to name the child Jesus.

This revelation changes everything because it’s at this moment that Joseph chooses faith over fear. Advent faith is not about having perfect clarity; it’s about having the courage to follow God’s voice when our path is unclear.

I do hope you worship with us on Christmas. On Christmas Eve our Masses are at 4 P.M., 6 P.M., 8 P.M. and 10 P.M. The 6 P.M. Mass is a “Sensory-Friendly Mass” (no music, soft lighting, limited movement and a brief homily). The 10 P.M. Mass will feature our choir, who will begin to sing at 9:30 P.M.

Our Christmas Day Mass schedule has changed. We will not celebrate Mass according to our Sunday schedule. Instead, our Christmas Day Mass schedule is as follows: 8 A.M., 10:00 A.M., and 12 Noon. We will have music at all Masses with the exception of the 6 P.M. Sensory Mass on Christmas Eve.

God bless you,

Father Matthew Guckin

Sensory Friendly Mass

Come to Me

~Matthew 19:14

Wednesday, December 24 • Christmas Eve • 6 PM

Sunday, December 28 • 4th Sunday of Month • 12 Noon

The Parish will celebrate two Sensory Friendly Masses this month: Christmas Eve (December 24) at 6 PM and Sunday, December 28 at 12 Noon.

Sensory Friendly Masses at OLMC are celebrated with lower lighting, softer volume, shorter homilies, limited physical interaction and no music (with the exception of a soft underplay of recorded music played during the distribution of Communion).

Please be considerate of this as we do our best to reach out to everyone in our parish family, so that all can hear the voice of God which guides, purifies, strengthens, forgives, feeds, comforts, enriches, liberates, heals and saves.

Pray with the Saints of St. Mary's Cemetery Columbarium

St. Peter the Apostle Wall

"O Holy Apostle, you are the Rock upon which Almighty God has built His Church." Those words refer to St. Peter, also known as Simon Peter, who was the first Apostle to perform miracles in Jesus's name. He was also unquestionably considered the head of the Apostles.

Peter travelled to spread the Gospel and is considered the first leader of the early church. Peter was crucified upside down, declaring himself unworthy to die in the same manner as the Lord. He is believed to be buried in Rome, under the high altar of St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City. His Feast day is September 29 and St. Peter is the Patron Saint of fisherman, shipbuilders and the papacy.

The Wall of St. Peter is located in the center of the Columbarium and like St. Patrick and St. Francis it faces in two different directions. Come visit and spend time with St. Peter.

OLMC School

Dear Friends:

As we continue our year-long celebration of the 150th anniversary of OLMC School, I am delighted to share a recent project that beautifully captured both the history and the heart of our community. Under the guidance of our technology teacher, Mrs. Skelly, our eighth graders explored a new photography unit designed not only to teach technical skills, but also to deepen their appreciation for the legacy they inherit. The unit began with a guest presenter who introduced the art of visual storytelling, inspiring our students to see the familiar spaces of our campus with new eyes.

Students were then invited to walk through the school and church grounds in search of a single image that could symbolize our 150th anniversary. What emerged was a "photo walk" filled with creativity, reverence, and deep reflection. Some photographs were literal reminders of our history, while others were symbolic expressions that captured a memory or represented our school. After printing their image, each student wrote a personal description explaining the significance of their chosen subject in light of this special milestone.

I had the privilege of interviewing several eighth graders about their work, and their insights were both touching and profound. Everett shared that he photographed the convent, explaining that "it has so many good memories, and every time I see it, it reminds me of Sister Thomasann." Ronnie chose the statue of Saint Mary in the prayer garden, noting how it reminds him of his sixth grade Bible ceremony. Lily took a photo of her friends with a teacher, writing that her photo "captured a moment that represents friendship, growth and the lasting impact of an incredible teacher." The search for the perfect photo allowed the students to relive their OLMC School memories, according to Ben. Their reflections remind us that our campus is much more than a collection of buildings—it is a home shaped by the people and faith that fill it.

As we view these images displayed around the school in the coming weeks, may they serve as a reminder of the blessings of our past and the hope we carry into the future. I am so proud of our eighth graders for their thoughtful work and grateful for the teachers and parish community who help form our students each day. May God continue to bless our school as we journey together into the next 150 years.

God bless,

Dawn Parker

St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel, we hear that Jesus will be named Emmanuel, which means "God is with us." The mystery of the birth of Jesus is supremely a mystery of love. May each Christmas find us more and more like him: more humble, more holy, more happy and more full of God.

Your gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul help those who are poor and suffering to find Emmanuel and they also came to know that "God is with us."

If you would like to transfer funds directly to OLMC's SVDP, you can visit parishgiving.org and use the dropdown menu to choose SVDP.

During November 2025 through your Poor Box gifts and other donations, the OLMC Conference brought the love of Jesus to the poor. Our Conference volunteered for 28 hours and provided 19 neighbors with the following assistance:

Rent	$6,425
Temporary Housing (Motel)	1,945
Food	300
Electricity/Oil/Water	1,860
Gas	420
Supplies & Fees	1,177
Dental & Medical Bills	600
Total	$12,727

God bless you for your consistent and very generous support of our neighbors.

Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a job loss, an illness or other difficulties? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. We want to help!

Parishioner Reflection

Mary and Dom Visco

1. What brought you to Our Lady of Mount Carmel?

We moved to Doylestown from Bensalem in March of 1983. Our family was growing and we needed more room. We visited Doylestown and loved the area.

2. How long have you been in the Parish?

We joined in March of 1983.

3. How has Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish helped you in your life?

The sacraments, parish missions, retreat days, and prayer groups that have been offered, have helped us grow and develop our spirituality.

4. What is your favorite memory of living in the parish?

We have been blessed by the kindness of the priests, deacons, nuns, staff and fellow parishioners. When we joined in March 1983, the Pastor, Msg. McDonough, personally welcomed us and even helped us to find a babysitter. Over the years, we have experienced much joy as members of this Parish. As our children grew, there were many ways for them to join in faith activities, such as choir, bell choir, youth groups and bible studies. When they were teens, the CYO group sponsored a senior citizens prom. It was a wonderful night where senior members of the Parish danced and laughed with Parish teens.

5. What is your greatest hope for our parish in the future?

Our hope is that all who come through the doors of Mt. Carmel Church will feel the presence of God and find the peace and comfort of the Holy Spirit and find the warmth in a welcoming community.
