

The Epiphany of Our Lord, as presented to us in Matthew's Gospel, is one of the most enduring, compelling and exotic passages in all of literature.

These three figures – the Magi – arrive from the East, guided not by GPS nor maps nor armies ... but by a star! If nothing else, their journey reminds us that faith often begins with a question, a restlessness of the heart that refuses to find satisfaction with the ordinary.

The Magi were scholars, likely astrologers who were skilled at studying the skies. When they encountered a sign they were unable to explain, they chose curiosity over comfort. They left behind familiarity and status quo to follow a promise whose destination was mysterious.

Interestingly, these pagan men model a faith that is humble enough to seek and brave enough to risk. They had no idea whatsoever of the God of the Bible but they recognized truth when it shimmered before them! Just prior to reaching their destination, they encountered a truly wicked man in King Herod. Herod was threatened by the very idea of a newborn King.

In sharp contrast, these foreign kings were filled with hope and joy reminding us of the difference between fear and wonder: Fear clings and destroys whereas wonder opens and worships.

When they finally reached Bethlehem, the Magi found not a palace but a Child living in poverty and vulnerability ... and yet they knelt before Him. Their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh spoke volumes. Gold honored His kingship, frankincense honored His Divinity, and myrrh foreshadowed His suffering. Taken together, these offerings proclaimed that Jesus was not only God and King, but the One Who would fully share in our human condition.

The narrative concludes with a tiny historical detail that has a profound spiritual meaning: They returned home by a different route. Any encounter with Christ changes us. The journey of the Magi becomes our own – seeking sincerely, recognizing Divinity and becoming transformed.

God bless you,

Father Matthew Guckin

St. Vincent de Paul Wall

The first Wall to your right as you enter the Columbarium is St. Vincent de Paul. It stands sentry to the entrance with St. John Paul II. One of our smaller Walls, St. Vincent de Paul, has 36 niches in total.

St. Vincent de Paul was born in France and was educated by the Franciscans. He was ordained to the priesthood at the age of 20 in 1600.

For a time he worked as a chaplain to a wealthy family in Paris, but in 1617 he had a profound change of heart. While hearing the dying confession of a poor farmer, a deep compassion was stirred in Vincent, compelling him to alter his approach to the priesthood and life by redirecting his focus to the poor and marginalized. Vincent spent the rest of his life serving the poor and establishing several charitable organizations. He is the Patron Saint of charitable associations and volunteers.

Thank you, for Your Generosity and Love at Thanksgiving and Christmas for reaching out and touching people who are in need, and for offering your material and spiritual support.

Your gifts of toys, clothes, food and trimmings have reached young and old, sick and healthy, the poor, and the people who are alone during these holidays. You have made a difference in their lives by simply taking a tag off the Christmas trees or by getting a code number of a family, and by responding to a call for help.

There is no end to your generosity because it is rooted in God's love. Thank you for sharing that love and for teaching your children about the "gift of giving."
