

But Mass is sooooo boring!

Whenever I hear that – usually within my own family – I start to go through the stages of grief. At first, there’s denial (how can this happen in my own family?); then comes the anger (how many times have I gone over this with you?); this is followed by denial (they’re probably just kidding me); then I get a bit depressed (because I feel as if I’ve failed); finally, I admit that I just have to accept it.

The blueprint for the Mass (which is anything but boring) is found in this weekend’s Gospel: The Disciples on the Road to Emmaus.

The Gospel passage begins with a community in procession. It’s a small community but a community nonetheless. As they’re walking Christ is present with them, though they don’t recognize Him. They’re struggling with their faith as they begin to go through the Scriptures. Jesus then gives a homily, explaining the Scriptures to them.

There’s a creed the two disciples profess, proclaiming this Jesus as a prophet who was handed over to be crucified but how some people had claimed He was risen.

At one point they actually express their petition: they beg Him to stay with them. And, indeed, He does.

In fact, He sits with them and takes bread and blesses it. He then breaks it and gives it to them.

Does any of this sound familiar? It’s the Mass right there in the Bible. There’s a community. There’s a procession. There’s God’s Word and an explanation of it. There’s a creed and petitions. There’s the celebration of the Eucharist. It’s all right there.

But then it gets really interesting as the disciples begin to reflect on what just happened. Their hearts, they admit, burned within them when they began to understand the Word. But they came to know Him in the “breaking of the bread.” That is, they literally became one with Him in the Eucharist.

Friends, the Mass is never boring. It’s the most awesome event ever!

God bless you,

Father Matthew Guckin

Pastoral Council Meeting - April 8, 2026

Present: Father Matthew Guckin, Deacon William Barrow, Mike Alferman, Mary Eileen Baltus, Kathleen Boucher, Julianne Donahue, Sara Jane McFadden, Tracy Ogden, Janice Perry, Michael Stefanski

6:45 PM - Opening Prayer Staff Updates

School – Mike S. for Dawn Parker: Greenhouse spring planting is in full swing! With hundreds of seeds planted by the students in March, it will be overflowing with flowers, plants, veggies, herbs and beautiful hanging plants. They will be available for purchase at the school's Annual Plant Sale, May 1 and 2. All proceeds support the school's ecological classroom and STREAM learning experiences.

PREP – Julianne: 92 candidates (PREP & School) were confirmed by Bishop Christopher Cooke. Deacon William presented a mini-retreat for catechists and assistants on March 7. "It was a great night." Students collected money for the Haiti mission by doing chores. May crowning of the Blessed Mother will be held early, April 19 and 20. On April 26 and 27, all students, grades 1 to 7 will take the year-end final exam to pass to the next grade level. PREP will end (for Summer) May 3 with the last family Mass. First Communion retreat is scheduled for May 7. On May 9, 86 students (PREP & School) will receive First Holy Communion.

Parish Engagement – Mary Eileen: The Parish will be hosting two mini-pretzel events after the 5PM Vigil Mass. This is in addition to the four Hospitality events that will occur after the 9AM & 10:30 Masses on the 4th Sunday of the month. "Second Sundays on the Portico" – A "New" Hospitality event, on the church portico will be held on the 2nd Sunday of the month, after the 9 AM Mass. Young families, especially, can enjoy donuts and water then can head over to Burpee Park with ROCKS for a playdate. The Parish will kick off the 2026 Hospitality Season on Mother's Day with the inaugural Second Sunday.

Parish Discipleship – Mary Eileen for Christine Weyer: 20 OCIA candidates and catechumens were welcomed into the Church at the Easter Vigil. The largest group yet at OLMC! A very successful study of Walking with Purpose (WWP) a women's Bible study– has been completed. A video is in the making that will share the impact on the attendees' relationship with Christ.

ROCKS - Sara Jane McFadden: The Annual Easter Egg Hunt was a huge success with the assistance of the Youth Ministry. 200 children and their parents participated.

Next Generation Parish (NGP) Working Session: Facilitated by Mike Alferman, Sara Jane McFadden and Mike Stefanski – The original vision, structure, goals and accomplishments achieved to date were reviewed. Potential plans for its future at OLMC were also discussed along with ideas to strengthen communication and engagement with parishioners. A smaller subgroup will continue the discussion about the next steps for the initiative.

8:06 PM – The meeting closed with a prayer for Linda Banecker, Consultant for the Catholic Leadership Institute, who worked with OLMC on the NGP Program.
This meeting concludes monthly Pastoral Council Meetings until October 2026.*

OLMC School

Dear Friends:

Last weekend, we gathered in extraordinary fashion to celebrate the OLMC School Blue and Gold 150th Anniversary Gala—an evening truly worthy of this remarkable milestone. It was a joy to welcome current parents, alumni families, community sponsors, faculty, rectory representatives, and cherished members of our parish to a night dedicated to honoring our past and building our future. From the moment guests stepped onto the blue carpet and entered the beautifully adorned venue, there was a palpable sense of pride, gratitude, and excitement that carried throughout the evening.

The celebration itself was nothing short of spectacular. Attendees were treated to wonderful music by Rose's Cross—with a special and memorable performance by Father Guckin—alongside exceptional food and beverages. Our students' artistic talents were on full display through stunning artwork, while the history walk invited guests to reflect on the rich legacy of our school from its earliest days to the present. Highlights such as the ice sculpture, OLMC School Mercer Tile designed by artist Katia McGuirk and numerous details added to the elegance and joy of the night. A particularly meaningful surprise came from our parish artist, Pat Achilles, who generously created a limited edition OLMC School Coloring Book, beautifully illustrating the school's journey from Saint Bernard's to today—an instant treasure that families were eager to take home.

This unforgettable evening would not have been possible without the dedication and vision of so many. I extend my deepest gratitude to our Home and School Executive Board, the Gala Planning Committee, and especially Mrs. Rebecca Crocker for their tireless efforts in bringing this event to life. Their commitment and creativity truly embodied the spirit of the evening. Thank you to everyone who joined us in celebrating this historic occasion with such joy and enthusiasm. Together, we not only honored 150 years of faith and education, but also reaffirmed our shared commitment to ensuring a vibrant future for our beloved school.

God bless,
Dawn Parker

Varcoe-Thomas
 Funeral Home of Doylestown, Inc.

Central Bucks Crematory
 Inc.

(215) 348-8930

Serving Families with Compassion, Respect & Professionalism Since 1879

CREMATION SHOULD NOT BE OUTSOURCED
 Most funeral homes use a third-party crematory. Varcoe-Thomas assures every step of care for your loved one is managed within our private facility. If you choose cremation, let our family care for your family.
