

Next Saturday, at the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter & Paul in Philadelphia, OLMC parishioner Charlie Cappelli will be ordained a Catholic priest by Archbishop Perez.

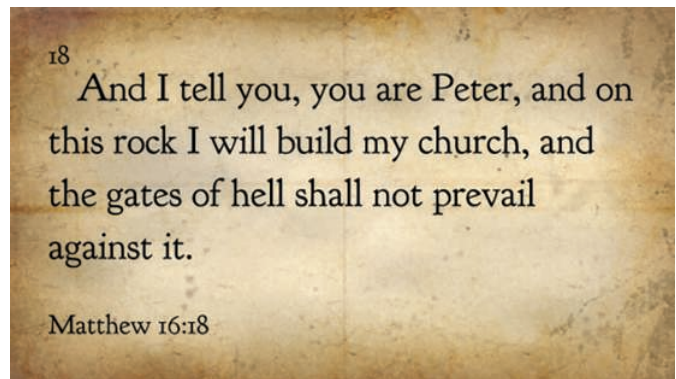

Archbishop Perez, himself, was ordained a priest in 1989 by Cardinal Bevilacqua. Cardinal Bevilacqua was ordained in Brooklyn in 1949 by Bishop Molloy. Bishop Molloy was ordained a priest in Rome in 1908 by Cardinal Respighi. This Cardinal was ordained in Rome in 1866 by Cardinal Lucido Parocchi. Cardinal Parocchi was ordained by Cardinal Patrizi Naro in Italy in 1856 ...

This line of succession traces all the way back to The Last Supper.

At that sacred meal, Jesus Christ instituted the priesthood. Our Lord took simple bread and simple wine and said to these simple men: This is My Body ... this is My Blood ... Do this in memory of Me! (see Luke 22:19-20)

Ten days later Jesus did something extraordinary again. Gathered with that same group of men He said: As the Father has sent Me so I send you. He then shared His very own Spirit with them by breathing on them and commanded them to forgive sins in His Name. (see John 20:19-23)

A priest is – more than anything else – another

Christ ... an alter Christus. We priests have received a share of Christ's Spirit so that we can celebrate the Eucharist and forgive sins in His Name.

I'm not better than anyone ... but I do have His Spirit within me (which I received at my own ordination). This is why, at Mass, I don't say, This is Jesus' Body or This is Jesus' Blood. Instead, I say the words Christ Himself spoke – This is MY body and This is MY blood. It's why, in confession, I say I forgive you and not Jesus forgives you.

Pray for Charlie. Next Saturday, when he receives Christ's Spirit, his soul will be changed forever. Friends, that's about as heavy as it gets. He needs our prayers. We're having a Holy Hour for him on Friday at 5 P.M. Join us

God bless you,

Father Matthew Guckin

Caring for Friends

Caring for Friends (CFF) is one of the largest food banks and most comprehensive senior meals delivery programs in the five-county Greater Philadelphia region. It provides meals and visits to individuals who are homebound.

Currently CFF provides over 40,000 meals weekly with the support of pantry and shelter partners.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel has had a longstanding relationship with Caring for Friends. Dr. Maryann Galietta, an OLMC parishioner and coordinator of CFF at OLMC, is responsible for delivering frozen meals to the main hub in Philadelphia -- thanks to all the individual cooks who provide meals prepared with care in their own homes.

Help us fill our OLMC Caring for Friends freezer by preparing meals and freezing them. Cooking for CFF is a wonderful opportunity for discipleship that does not require meetings or time outside the home.

How to help:

1. Pick up a pack of Caring for Friends trays. These trays can be found in the room to the right of the Church Narthex (main vestibule) where the bathrooms are located. The trays are in a labeled wicker basket under the Information Center.
2. Return the filled trays (one at a time or as many as you have prepared) to the black soft-sided cooler under the bulletin board in the Church Narthex. The cooler is available during all weekend Masses.

OLMC School

Dear Friends:

Although the calendar has turned to May, the first grade students at OLMC School are still joyfully reflecting on a wonderfully literary April. Throughout the month, our youngest learners explored a wide variety of literature with a special emphasis on poetry, discovering just how fun and meaningful reading can be. Their enthusiasm was contagious, and it was a delight to see them dive into books with such curiosity and excitement.

As part of their journey, the first grade teachers invited their students to take on an optional "30 Book Challenge," designed like a scavenger hunt to inspire them to branch out and try new genres. From classic fairy tales and mysteries to poetry, mythology, and even science fiction, students eagerly rose to the occasion—many reading alongside parents and family members at home. It was heartwarming to witness their commitment and joy as they checked off each category. Those who completed the challenge were rewarded with small prizes, but the true reward was the sense of accomplishment and love of reading they developed along the way. We are so grateful to our families for supporting this initiative!

To close out the month, students celebrated Poetry Month with a lively and memorable "Poem in Your Pocket Day." Each child selected a poem, carefully tucked it into a handmade pouch, and spent time sharing it with classmates. Mrs. Dineen described the round-robin style activity as energetic and full of life—students moving from friend to friend, proudly reading their chosen poems aloud. While it may have looked a bit busy from the outside, it was a beautiful example of students building confidence, expressing themselves, and truly enjoying the moment.

In addition to their classroom celebrations, our entire school community embraced the spirit of service through a successful book drive to benefit Philly Reads. Students generously donated gently used children's books for readers of all ages, and student volunteers worked together to sort and count each contribution alongside our service chairpersons, Mrs. Ivicic and Mrs. McFadden. Thanks to this collective effort, we are proud to share that 1,500 books were donated to this worthwhile organization. Our students truly love service, and this initiative was a meaningful way for them to share their love of reading with others.

God bless,
Dawn Parker
