

My Grandmom never said goodbye, instead she said “God Bless” when leaving. Her reason was that as people of faith, there is never really a goodbye. As the Body of Christ, with God’s blessing, we remain connected. As I prepare for the next phase of ministry, I think I understand the wisdom behind her practice.

The first words Fr. Guckin said to me right after Archbishop Perez assigned me to OLMC was “be a father to our people.” I tried to make those words the foundation of my ministry here. The success and impact of that work I pray is fruitful.

I can say with certainty that OLMC has shaped the priest (and father) that I am. From Sunday Mass to donut days, morning car loop to retreat days, cross country fields to the school gym, ministry meetings to anointing the sick, life’s joyful times to the deep sorrows of life, and everywhere in between I have learned to be a father.

Thank you for your patience as a parish as a young priest learned to find his way in ministry. Thank you for your support and encouragement. They say that a priest’s first assignment shapes not only his vision of the priesthood but also the type of priest he will be. Thanks to all the members of Mount Carmel, I have been shaped into a priest ready to serve those entrusted to my care. For this I am eternally grateful.

I am forever grateful to Fr. Guckin for not only his mentorship but also his friendship over these past three years. I also owe a debt of gratitude to all members of this great parish who are too many to name. Those I’ve worked closely with and those I simply said a passing “hi” to, you have taught me how to truly be a shepherd of souls. I am forever in your debt.

As ministry moves me into High School I promise to not only remember the great memories but to pray for you daily. May God continue to bless and empower this transformational and generous parish. I won’t say goodbye; but in the words of my Grandmom, united in faith, I will say...

God Bless!

Farewell and Welcome

Farewell to Father Flanagan

When Paul had finished speaking he knelt down and prayed with them all. They were all weeping loudly as they threw their arms around Paul and kissed him, for they were deeply distressed that he had said that they would never see his face again. Then, they escorted him to the ship.

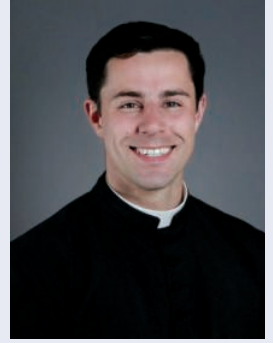

~ Acts of the Apostles, Chapter 20

When Saint Paul left the family of believers in Miletus, the people were understandably sad as Paul embarked on a new mission.

As Father Flanagan embarks on his new mission – to shepherd the young people at Bishop Shanahan High School – we will bid farewell to him in a way that is fitting and appropriate. We will have two opportunities to pray with Father and say “goodbye” to him.

On Saturday, June 13, we will pray together at the 5:00 PM Vigil Mass and greet him in Saint Mary’s Hall immediately following. We will have another opportunity to pray with him on Sunday, June 14 at the 12 Noon Mass and greet him in Saint Mary’s.

“I just want to be close to God,” said Father Dominic Mirenda recently, “I want to get to heaven and help everyone I meet get to heaven. Nothing else matters.”

The parish family of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish joyfully welcomes Father Mirenda as he begins his priestly ministry with us. A classmate of Father Charlie Cappelli and ordained on May 16, 2026, Father Mirenda brings with him a deep love for Jesus Christ and a sincere desire to help guide disciples through life and lead souls to heaven. Raised in Chester County as one of five children of Ted and Deb Mirenda, Father Mirenda’s faith, humility, and joyful spirit have already inspired many. We look forward to praying with him, learning with him, and growing together in faith as he begins this beautiful new chapter among us.

I am both humbled and grateful to Almighty God as He continues to bless our parish with holy young priests: from Father Brody to Father O’Brien to Father Flanagan and, now, with Father Mirenda. Let’s give thanks to God, for He has been so good to us!

Father Matthew Guckin, Pastor

Thank you!

The Parish is most grateful to Julianne Donahue and the team of parishioners who graciously hosted a beautiful reception in the School gym after Father Charlie Cappelli’s First Mass.

Caring for Friends

Caring for Friends (CFF) is one of the largest food banks and most comprehensive senior meals delivery programs in the five-county Greater Philadelphia region. It provides meals and visits to individuals who are homebound.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel has had a longstanding relationship with Caring for Friends. Dr. Maryann Galletta, an OLMC parishioner and coordinator of CFF at OLMC, is responsible for delivering frozen meals to the main hub in Philadelphia -- thanks to all the individual cooks who provide meals prepared with care in their own homes.

Help us fill our OLMC Caring for Friends freezer by preparing meals and freezing them. Cooking for CFF is a wonderful opportunity for discipleship that does not require meetings or time outside the home.

How to help:

1. Pick up a pack of Caring for Friends trays. These trays can be found in the room to the right of the Church Narthex (main vestibule) where the bathrooms are located. The trays are in a labeled wicker basket under the Information Center.
2. Return the filled trays (one at a time or as many as you have prepared) to the black soft-sided cooler under the bulletin board in the Church Narthex. The cooler is available during all weekend Masses.

OLMC School

Dear Friends:

This week, our school community celebrated one of our most beloved traditions—Spirit Day! The excitement was especially high because our “Principal for the Day,” Gina, took her leadership role very seriously. Principal Gina’s morning began by donning her custom ID badge and with clipboard in hand, she greeted the students at arrival, led prayers and announcements, and helped pack pretzels for the classes. She then designed her very own “Dress Down” pass, which she happily distributed to all faculty and staff—along with donut holes that she brought as a special treat. Principal Gina even held a Zoom meeting with St. Andrew School principal Mrs. Wagner to discuss possible uniform updates for the future. Throughout the morning, she visited classrooms and stopped by the lunchroom to make sure students were following expectations.

Principal Gina also kept a detailed log of students she witnessed showing kindness and made it her mission to recognize as many as she could. She issued many “Caught Being Kind” certificates before enjoying a celebratory lunch of pizza and Sprite with the 1A girls in the conference room. Her big day concluded in the gym, where she officiated our two Spirit Day Faculty/Student Newcomb games. With great confidence, she introduced our National Anthem singers and delivered play-by-play commentary as the games unfolded. Her leadership, enthusiasm, and joy made the entire day even more special for our students and faculty alike.

Spirit Day itself is always a highlight at Our Lady of Mount Carmel School, and this year was no exception. Our eighth graders arrived decked out in spirit wear, eager to show off not only their competitive skills but also their teamwork and sportsmanship. With plenty of energy—and a lot of friendly teasing—they once again managed to defeat the teachers in both matches. Father Flanagan joined the faculty team for both games and helped give the students a real challenge, but in the end, the eighth graders prevailed. It was a fun, spirited, joy-filled day at OLMC School, reminding us once again of the vibrant community we are blessed to share.

God bless,

Dawn Parker
