

We should be very proud to be both Catholics and Americans. Jesus Christ founded our Church and I cannot think of another country (in all of history) that I would rather live in.

Continuing our little series, I'd like to share some of my thoughts about a hero of mine – Dorothy Day.

Born in 1897 in Brooklyn, Day grew up in a family that struggled financially after her father lost his job. As a young woman, Dorothy was intelligent, passionate, and deeply concerned about the suffering of the poor. She became involved in journalism and social activism, often associating with writers, labor organizers, and political radicals who sought justice for workers and immigrants.

In early adulthood, Dorothy lived a restless life far from the Catholic faith she would later embrace. In a painful period that she would regret, she became pregnant in a troubled relationship and had an abortion. The experience left a deep spiritual wound and eventually helped awaken in her a desire for God, truth, and forgiveness. Some years later, the birth of her daughter, Tamar, brought her even closer to faith and stirred within her a longing for something greater than politics or social theories could offer.

In 1927, Dorothy Day entered the Catholic Church. Her conversion transformed her life completely. She came to believe that Catholicism contained both the fullness of truth and the deepest call to serve the poor. Along with Peter Maurin, she founded the Catholic Worker Movement, which combined devotion to the sacraments with practical works of mercy such as feeding the hungry and sheltering the homeless.

Dorothy Day had a profound reverence for the Faith. She attended daily Mass, loved the Eucharist, prayed faithfully, and defended the dignity of every human person. Her life became a witness to conversion, mercy, and radical Christian charity.

Though she never wanted to be called a saint, Cardinal John O'Connor of New York officially opened her cause for canonization in 2000.

Dorothy Day, Servant of God, pray for us!

In imitation of Dorothy Day, may America bless God!

Farewell and Welcome

Farewell to Father Flanagan

When Paul had finished speaking he knelt down and prayed with them all. They were all weeping loudly as they threw their arms around Paul and kissed him, for they were deeply distressed that he had said that they would never see his face again. Then, they escorted him to the ship.

~ Acts of the Apostles, Chapter 20

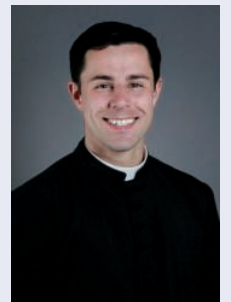

When Saint Paul left the family of believers in Miletus, the people were understandably sad as Paul embarked on a new mission.

As Father Flanagan embarks on his new mission – to shepherd the young people at Bishop Shanahan High School – we will bid farewell to him in a way that is fitting and appropriate. We will have two opportunities to pray with Father and say "goodbye" to him.

On Saturday, June 13, we will pray together at the 5:00 PM Vigil Mass and greet him in Saint Mary's Hall immediately following. We will have another opportunity to pray with him on Sunday, June 14 at the 12 Noon Mass and greet him in Saint Mary's.

Father Mirenda was just ordained a Catholic priest in May. We will welcome Father into our parish family in early July. For his first mission Father will be joining our Youth Group on our annual mission trip to Catholic Heart Work Camp.

We continue to be blessed here at Mount Carmel as the Church has sent to us another newly-ordained priest!

Caring for Friends

Caring for Friends (CFF) is one of the largest food banks and most comprehensive senior meals delivery programs in the five-county Greater Philadelphia region. It provides meals and visits to individuals who are homebound.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel has had a longstanding relationship with Caring for Friends. Dr. Maryann Galletta, an OLMC parishioner and coordinator of CFF at OLMC, is responsible for delivering frozen meals to the main hub in Philadelphia -- thanks to all the individual cooks who provide meals prepared with care in their own homes.

Help us fill our OLMC Caring for Friends freezer by preparing meals and freezing them. Cooking for CFF is a wonderful opportunity for discipleship that does not require meetings or time outside the home.

How to help:

1. Pick up a pack of Caring for Friends trays. These trays can be found in the room to the right of the Church Narthex (main vestibule) where the bathrooms are located. The trays are in a labeled wicker basket under the Information Center.
2. Return the filled trays (one at a time or as many as you have prepared) to the black soft-sided cooler under the bulletin board in the Church Narthex. The cooler is available during all weekend Masses.
