

OUR LADY of MOUNT CARMEL CATHOLIC CHURCH DOYLESTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA

Whenever we think of saints such as Saint Francis of Assisi (and his spiritual successors like Sr. Thomasann, who is a Franciscan Sister) perhaps what is most attractive about them is that they don't grasp at worldly things. They are fundamentally more concerned with letting go rather than grasping at.

Consequently, they experience true interior freedom and peace.

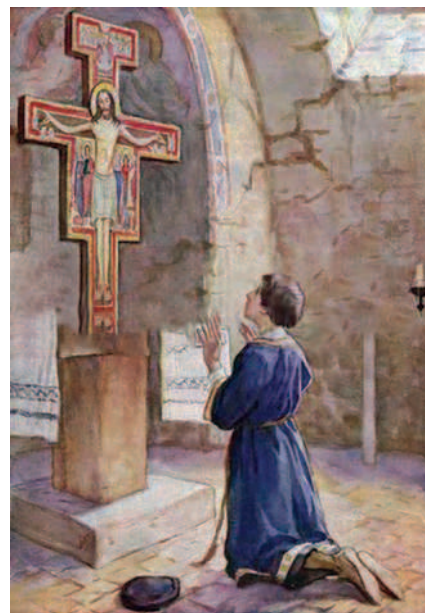

Saint Paul, in his Letter to the Philippians, explains that Jesus – though He is God – did not cling to or exploit His divine status. Paul writes that Christ emptied Himself by becoming human, by accepting the condition of a slave, and then humbled Himself by accepting death ... death on a Cross.

Whereas I try to make sure that what belongs to me stays with me, Jesus reveals a completely different way of life. Rather than accumulating for Himself, Jesus gives Himself away. And the great paradox in this is that whenever we let go, we don't end up with less – we receive something even greater!

When we learn to let go of our need to control, to surrender our pride, to back down on our insistence on being right, to relinquish our desire for recognition and our attachment to possessions and status ... whenever we imitate Christ in any of these ways ... we become more peaceful and more loving.

In light of Paul's magnificent letter, a good takeaway question for us to consider is this: What am I still grasping at that Jesus is asking me to let go of?

Do I grasp at a slight or resentment? Do I hold on to control? Do I cling to my reputation? Do I clutch an old wound?

What has me in its grip: My ambitions? Money? The need to always be right? The conviction that my life has to go according to my plan?

Friends, the invitation of our Catholic Faith is to imitate Christ and trust the Father's love completely. And in that surrender, we discover the freedom and fullness of life that we were grasping at in the first place.

God bless you,

Father Matthew Guckin

OLMC School

Dear Friends:

Our students had the incredible opportunity to experience a special assembly with Abbeyfest performer Joe Melendrez, a Catholic Hip Hop artist from Los Angeles. Joe shared his inspiring presentation, "CHOSEN," based on John 15:16: "You did not choose me, but I chose you." Through his message, Joe encouraged our students to recognize that each of them has been uniquely chosen by God and has a special purpose and calling. He offered practical ways for students to listen for God's voice and embrace His plan for their lives.

Joe beautifully connected his message to our school's HEART theme, reminding students that God knows each of us, loves us deeply, and calls us to share His love with others. Through music, personal testimony, prayer, and plenty of high-energy dancing, Joe brought our faith to life in a way that our students will not soon forget!

Students were invited on stage to sing, dance, participate in the leadership group, and even answer questions in the "hot seat." One student shared that his favorite artist was Joe and that his mom inspires him when she plays church music in the car!

The gym was truly electric as our students sang, danced, cheered, and celebrated together. When I asked some of our younger students what they thought, Evie said, "It was amazing and I want to go again. The music about God was so cool." Matilda added, "It was so much fun. I loved when he talked about God and showed his family."

What a joyful reminder that our faith is something to live, share, and celebrate! We are grateful for experiences that help our children recognize the Sacred Heart of Jesus within themselves and in those around them.

God bless,
Dawn Parker

Shepherds of Bethlehem Handmade Olive Wood Crafts for Sale October 3 & 4 After All Masses

Shepherds of Bethlehem imports all of their works of reverent art from the finest Christian craftsmen in Bethlehem and Jerusalem.

In these challenging times, with ongoing war, it's extremely difficult for the Christian community, which relies on tourism or pilgrimages. Many families are struggling to provide food for their children.

Let us be your connection to the Holy Land. We are honored to bless your home and the homes of your loved ones with unique, handmade gifts lovingly carved by our talented craftsmen. Each one-of-a-kind piece will serve as a devout and stunning visual reminder of the presence of God, your relationship to the Lord, and your connection to the Holy Land.

Bring Your Gift List

We will display and sell the carvings after the scheduled Masses On October 3 & 4.
