

OUR LADY — of — MOUNT CARMEL CATHOLIC CHURCH DOYLESTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA

When I was young I would often pray the rosary outside of abortion centers. Sometimes I was subjected to the vulgar slurs of those who supported destroying the lives of the most vulnerable: the unborn.

I continued to do this throughout my time in the seminary. I even worked on a respect life newsletter. Over time, however, it became difficult to continue. Not because my beliefs had changed ... I pray daily for the conversion of hearts of those who promote abortion.

I've backed away because of the actions and demands of some people who call themselves "pro-life." They're quick to complain that I don't do enough. Some employ tactics that are both repulsive and ineffective. Others condemn anyone who thinks differently. Many reduce the tragedy of abortion to a political ideology.

Respect Life Month invites us to look honestly into our hearts and ask ourselves if our words, attitudes, and actions reflect the love of Jesus Christ.

We rightly recognize the grave threats to human life posed by abortion and euthanasia, as well as the neglect of the elderly, the vulnerable, and those who have no one to speak for them.

But our commitment to life must reach even further.

Gossip, calumny, rash judgment and unkind words can wound another person's dignity and destroy relationships. We cannot proclaim the sacredness of life while forgetting the sacredness of the person standing before us.

With particular joy, we welcome the Sisters of Life to Our Lady of Mount Carmel this weekend. The Sisters proclaim the sanctity of every human life and serve women facing crisis pregnancies, mothers and children in need, and those wounded by abortion. Their joyful witness to the Gospel of Life reminds us that every person has dignity and purpose.

Please consider supporting their mission in North Philadelphia by using the envelopes that are in the pews.

May the Sisters of Life renew our own commitment to the Gospel of Life, so that everything we say and do bears witness to the truth that every human life is precious in the eyes of God.

To Life!

Is Halloween really a pagan holiday — or is it deeply Christian? In this short video, Dr. Ben Akers explains the Catholic roots of Halloween, the history of trick-or-treating, the dangers of the occult and even the Catholic perspective on vampires and zombies. Learn why Halloween is a time to reflect on death and rejoice in Christ's victory over sin.

SISTERS OF LIFE Welcoming The Sisters of Life

This Respect Life Month, we are blessed to welcome the Sisters of Life to Our Lady of Mount Carmel at all the Masses this weekend, October 24 & 25.

There will be Pro-life envelopes in the pews this weekend should you wish to make an offering to the Sisters. Envelopes can be returned by November 8 one of three ways: by placing them in the collection basket; by bringing them or mailing them to the rectory.

Welcome Natalie Morales

The Parish is blessed to welcome Ms. Natalie Morales, director of the Office for Persons with Disabilities and the Deaf Apostolate for the Catholic Church of Philadelphia, at the 9 AM, 10:30 AM and 12 Noon Masses on Sunday, November 1. Ms. Morales has been instrumental in guiding our parish in the implementation of Sensory Friendly Masses and in making available American Sign Language interpreters at weekend Masses to serve the spiritual needs of the deaf community in our parish and neighboring areas.

During Ms. Morales' visit, she will highlight very briefly how mental illness affects every family by offering cited statistics. She will share the mental health resources that the Catholic Church of Philadelphia offers and she will be available after Masses in the Narthex for anyone who would like to speak with her.

Caring for Friends

Our Lady of Mount Carmel has had a longstanding relationship with Caring for Friends. Dr. Maryann Galletta, an OLMC parishioner and coordinator of CFF at OLMC, is responsible for delivering frozen meals to the main hub in Philadelphia -- thanks to all the individual cooks who provide meals prepared with care in their own homes.

Help us fill our OLMC Caring for Friends freezer by preparing meals and freezing them. Cooking for CFF is a wonderful opportunity for discipleship that does not require meetings or time outside the home.

How to help:

1. Pick up a pack of Caring for Friends trays. These trays can be found in the room to the right of the Church Narthex (main vestibule) where the bathrooms are located. The trays are in a labeled wicker basket under the Information Center.
2. Return the filled trays (one at a time or as many as you have prepared) to the black soft-sided cooler under the bulletin board in the Church Narthex. The cooler is available during all weekend Masses.

OLMC School

Dear Friends:

What a wonderful month it has been at OLMC School! As we look back on the many ways our students have grown, I am reminded that a Catholic education is about so much more than what happens in the classroom. It is about nurturing curious minds, deepening our faith, and helping our children recognize the joy of learning and serving others.

Our sixth, seventh, and eighth grade girls recently put their STEM skills to the test at the Villa Joseph Sciathlon. Working together to solve challenging STEM tasks, the teams then selected one member to represent them in a Jeopardy-style competition. The girls had a fantastic time, and our seventh graders returned to OLMC with a 2nd place trophy! We are so proud of their teamwork, creativity, and enthusiasm.

Meanwhile, our third graders experienced the wonder of new life as they carefully watched over their chick eggs. Their excitement was contagious as all 24 healthy chicks hatched. The little chicks spent a week in the classroom before returning to the farm, while the students learned about each stage of egg and chick development. What a memorable way to bring science to life!

Our faith was also at the heart of a special experience for a group of fifth graders who traveled to the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul to celebrate Mass with Archbishop Perez and more than 1,200 students from across the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. The liturgy included a special devotion and the formal consecration of our Archdiocesan school community to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Gathering with so many fellow Catholic school students was a beautiful reminder that we are part of something much larger than our own school community.

From scientific discoveries and academic accomplishments to shared prayer and acts of service, our students continue to grow in mind, heart, and spirit. We are grateful to our teachers, families, and parish community for helping make these experiences possible. What a blessing it is to watch our children learn, celebrate, and live their faith together!

God bless,
Dawn Parker
