

This is the final essay on The Nicene Creed. 2025 marks the seventeen hundredth anniversary of the Creed.

This Gospel business is high stakes. A quick read of the sixth chapter of John's gospel makes it clear:

Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day.

With these words of Christ, we plainly see that our salvation is dependent upon the Eucharist. And the Eucharist comes through the Church. The Church, therefore, is necessary for salvation. Which begs the question: How do we know what the Church is and where the Church is found?

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

The final part of the Nicene Creed answers this by giving us four indispensable adjectives: ONE, HOLY, CATHOLIC and APOSTOLIC.

Another way to put it is this: There's a unity of belief by believers; we are sanctified by the truth and repentance; everyone has a right to hear Christ's teachings; and the Church traces her lineage directly to the Apostles.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins ...

This reminds us that baptism isn't merely a symbol but an act whereby the believer dies to their old self ... plagued by sin ... and rises to new life in Christ.

And I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A human person is a body and a soul. This is what God intended the human person to be. Death, which was not God's plan, is best defined as the separation of the body from the soul. Since God's plans cannot be thwarted, it stands to reason that God intends for the soul to ultimately be reunited with a transformed body.

This teaching is affirmed by the Bible and by countless saints. And I greatly look forward to enjoying the endless life to come!

God bless you,

Father Matthew Guckin

- Our goal is building closer ties with two sister Catholic parishes in the Middle East, with their families and with the refugee families being serviced in their community.
- Abouna (Father) Mattheus Maciel is pastor of Our Lady of Carmel church in Amman, Jordan.
- Abouna Imad Twal is pastor of Our Lady of Grace parish in Amman, Jordan.

Major Activities of MEFT

- 2024-2025 pre-recorded videos between 7th grade OLMC students and our sister parishes in Amman, Jordan, sharing culture and religious traditions
- 2017-2019, twice yearly video sessions between children of our parish and Our Lady of Grace school in Amman, Jordan

Funding Sources

- MISSION CO-OP Annual Appeal (2024-present)

How You Can Get Involved

- Father Guckin received approval from the Archdiocese in 2024 that the Annual Mission Co-op Appeal can be designated for OLMC's Mid-East Family Ties Ministry.
- Please use the designated Mission Co-op Appeal Envelope OR bring a plain envelope marked MEFT or Jordan this weekend.
- Please make checks payable to Our Lady of Mount Carmel, with JORDAN noted in the memo.
- Thank you for your past generosity. Your prayers and, most importantly, participation will allow us to continue to help Catholic parishes in the Middle East, with their families and with the refugee families being serviced in their community.
- Please pray for peace in the Middle East.

If you are interested in becoming involved, please email us at jordanministry@ourladymtcarmel.org
