

An Open Letter To Senior Citizens

Dear Fellow Seniors,

Having worked and lived with Fathers Brody, O'Brien, and Flanagan these past six years has been a great blessing for me. As a priest who is now in his sixties, being on mission with these young men has helped me to understand my current place in the world and in the Church.

We seniors don't do ourselves any favors when we say or think that "things were better in the past." Such nostalgia only leads us down the path to bitterness and resentment. It poisons our ability to enjoy the life we now have. Trust me, no matter how "glorious" we may claim the past was, it cannot compare to what lies ahead.

Wishing we had done things differently doesn't help us, either. Regrets are dangerous because they reduce the remainder of our lives to something that can only be endured. The past can't be re-written but to be caught in an endless cycle of "what-ifs" and "if-onlys" robs us of whatever time we have left. God offers us complete forgiveness and encourages us to move forward with hope and purpose.

The older we get the more we experience loss. Friends die, family members drift apart, our physical abilities decline, and opportunities that once seemed endless now become scarce. Dwelling on our losses never brings them back. It only steals what remains. Loss is painful and shouldn't be ignored or dismissed. It must be processed, accepted and released because life is still happening. Lest we forget the words of Jesus: No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the Kingdom of God (Luke 9:62). There is still beauty to be found, relationships to nurture, lessons to be learned and laughter to enjoy!

The world, in a sense, belongs to the young just as it once belonged to us. They will shape it in ways I may not agree with. That's life. But that does not – in any way – diminish the wisdom we can share with them. And if we have the opportunity to share such wisdom we must do so with love.

Friends, our legacy is not in things we may have accumulated, titles we may have been given or trophies we may have won. Rather, our legacy – the value we pass on to the young – consists of the wisdom we have gained, the example we have set and the love we have given to those who come after us.

God bless you now and forever,

Father Matthew Guckin

Archdiocesan Feasibility Study

Archbishop Perez has begun a feasibility study for a significant fundraising campaign across the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

These funds would assist in the missionary efforts of the Church throughout the five counties. In a spirit of collaboration, the Archbishop wants to hear the thoughts of at least fifteen parishioners from each parish.

Would you be a voice from Our Lady of Mount Carmel?

The interview would be scheduled (in person or over the phone) at your convenience. If you are willing, please contact Father Guckin (Pastor@ourladymtcarmel.org).

A Theological Reflection on the Beauty of Creation

Father Guckin will talk about Creation on Monday, September 8, at 6:30 PM in St. Mary's Hall. (It is also the Blessed Mother's birthday.)

The Season of Creation is from September 1 through October 4 (the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi) where we are called to find ways to be stewards of God's Creation. Care for God's Creation is one of the seven pillars of Catholic Social Teaching.

In July, Pope Leo XIV celebrated the first Mass for the Care of Creation and urged Christians to embrace bringing peace and reconciliation to our world and all creation.

Peace & Justice will focus on Creation this year, as well as Immigration and Poverty as we strive to live our faith by recognizing the dignity of the person and helping the poor and vulnerable.
