

This is the third in a series of six essays on The Nicene Creed. 1925 marks the seventeen hundredth anniversary of the Creed.

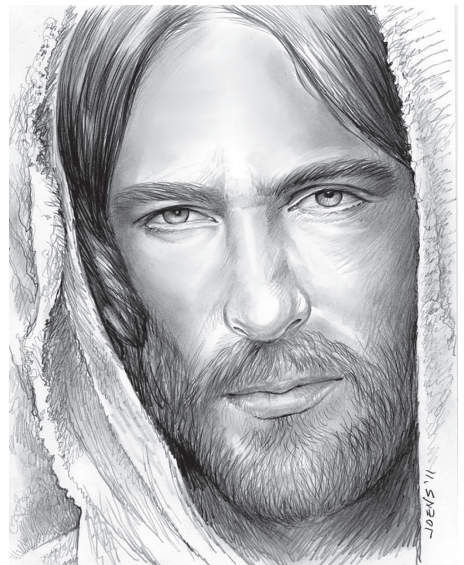

Did you ever wonder whatever happened to the Roman Empire? Or the Soviet Union? And when was the last time you saw a Visigoth?

It's truly amazing how many kingdoms have come and gone since the birth of Jesus Christ. Yet His Church ... proclaiming His Kingdom ... remains. The reason for such staying power has to do with Who Jesus Christ is. And Who He is happens to be the subject of the next part of our Creed.

In the first part of the Creed we profess believing in a God that devout Jews and Muslims could profess. But in this second part we arrive at thee defining point of Christianity: the Person of Jesus Christ.

- He is Lord; He has ultimate authority and dominion over believers.
- ... the only begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; He shares the same divine nature as the Father.
- ... God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made; This is stated to emphasize that Jesus is divine and has complete equality with the Father.
- ... consubstantial with the Father; This highlights that Jesus shares the same divine essence (substance) as God the Father.

- ... through Him all things were made; Before a builder builds a house he has an idea of the house before he begins building. It is through this idea that he is able to build.

- ... for us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven; God descends from heaven to embrace humanity in order to save us.

And then we bow our heads out of reverence for the words we are speaking.

- ... and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man; He is fully God and fully human, receiving His humanity from our Lady.

I think that's enough for now.

God bless you,

Father Matthew Guckin

Thinking of becoming Catholic?

OCIA, the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process through which adults who have either not been baptized or those who need to finish receiving the Sacraments of Initiation (Reconciliation, Communion and Confirmation) enter the Catholic Church. It is a period of discernment, discovery, and growth in the Catholic faith and their relationship with Jesus Christ.

The OCIA program at Our Lady of Mount Carmel will begin in October and run through April. We meet as a group for Mass at 9am on Sundays and then gather in St. Mary's Hall for class. Classes will end by 11:30am.

We'd love to hear from you and

SISTER THOMASANN QUINN PRAYER GARDEN REVITALIZATION

Since 1990, our parish prayer garden has been a place of prayer and peace for parishioners and non-parishioners alike. Earlier this spring the Archdiocese of Philadelphia granted the Parish permission to revitalize this sacred space. The Prayer Garden Ministry Team, under the direction of our pastor, Father Matthew Guckin, and our general manager, Deacon Lyle Benner, is excited to embark on the revitalization of the Garden, recently named the Sister Thomasann Quinn Prayer Garden. The Team's mission is to ensure the sustainability of our exceptional Prayer Garden for generations to come!

Scan the QR code to learn more about the revitalization project and the various donation and dedication opportunities.

A New Century

FLAG RAISING WORLD WAR I
OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL CHURCH
REV. V. G. CORCORAN, PASTOR

The turn of the century brought many changes to Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church. Father Patrick Fogarty, the Pastor, was a listener, and an observer. He started the century with a series of explanatory lectures for Catholics and non-Catholics titled "What Catholics Believe."

In 1901 Father John E. Cavanagh arrived at OLMC and covered its 65 square miles of territory on horseback when needed. One sick call could be a whole day event even with Father's "fast-stepping trotter." He was fortunate to end his era here driving a modern automobile.

The year 1915 saw the arrival of Father Vincent Corcoran during a time of increasing unrest due to the Great War. Money was tight and Father Corcoran made due with very little, but in time a two story addition was able to be added to the school. When the fuel situation grew tight, daily masses were held in the front room of the Convent. A portable folding altar designed and constructed by Father Corcoran was used for this purpose as well as at the County Home and County Jail where Father Corcoran read Mass.

Soon, thirty-six young men of the parish were called to arms; not all to come back. The Flag was placed in the Sanctuary along with the Papal colors to honor our boys. When that most joyful day came announcing the end of War, the Bells of St. Mary's sounded the message of "peace" over hill and dale.
