

This is the second in a series of six essays on The Nicene Creed. 2025 marks the seventeen hundredth anniversary of the Creed.

The Nicene Creed, which we proclaim at every Sunday Mass, originated at the Council of Nicaea in 325 A.D. and reached its final form at the Council of Constantinople in 381 A.D.

The first words of the Creed are these: I believe. It's similar to the Pledge of Allegiance in that we begin by saying, I pledge allegiance ... It takes more courage than we realize to begin a statement with words like "I" rather than "We" because it's easy to hide behind a group. As Americans, we take personal pride in our country and the flag it represents. Similarly, the Creed enables us to make a personal confession of faith highlighting the personal relationship we have with God.

In the first paragraph of our Creed (which consists only of nineteen words), we profess our belief that there is only one God. I need to be reminded of this often as we live in a world where so many people worship so many different gods ... false gods that always disappoint us, never help us and cannot possibly save us!

Moreover, in this first paragraph, we proclaim this God to be a Father. Jesus called God His "Father" over 165 times. Like every good father, our God provides for us and protects us and sustains us. And this proclamation invites us to relate to Him as a child relates to a good dad.

We also proclaim God to be almighty. He has infinite power and absolute authority. How almighty is our God? From nothing He made everything. He made heaven (yes, there is a heaven) and He made this beautiful earth. He made everything we can see (like people and plants and mountains) and everything we can't see (like angels and souls).

In just nineteen words we begin to proclaim with courage and clarity a good reason to trust in our good God.

God bless you,
Father Matthew Guckin

Prayer Garden

SISTER THOMASANN QUINN PRAYER GARDEN REVITALIZATION

Since 1990, our parish prayer garden has been a place of prayer and peace for parishioners and non-parishioners alike. Earlier this spring the Archdiocese of Philadelphia granted the Parish permission to revitalize this sacred space. The Prayer Garden Ministry Team, under the direction of our pastor, Father Matthew Guckin, and our general manager, Deacon Lyle Benner, is excited to embark on the revitalization of the Garden, recently named the Sister Thomasann Quinn Prayer Garden. The Team's mission is to ensure the sustainability of our exceptional Prayer Garden for generations to come!

Scan the QR code to learn more about the revitalization project and the various donation and dedication opportunities.

HOW TO SUPPORT THE REVITALIZATION

There are two ways to access the donation form: Scan the QR code below to submit the donation form electronically. Then mail or drop off your donation check to the rectory.

Need a hard copy of the form? Pick up the form at the rectory or from the Lucite holders at the Church doors or the Narthex Information Center. Mail or drop off the completed form, along with your donation check, to the rectory.
