

When I look back on my childhood, everything seemed to be centered around food. Whether it was Sunday afternoons, holiday celebrations, weddings or funerals, food enriched every aspect of our lives. My parents hosted new neighbors, held baby and wedding showers and cooked at neighborhood barbeques.

Picturing my dining room table in our little row house in Northeast Philly apart from family and friends is impossible. Though barely able to seat six comfortably, it often welcomed a dozen or more people, with every square inch covered in roast beef, mashed potatoes and green beans.

There's a tremendous connection between breaking bread and building bonds!

The early Church understood the significance of breaking bread and building bonds as early disciples met regularly for community and prayer while sharing in the Eucharistic Feast.

Even after His death, Jesus prepared breakfast for the disciples. Amidst the air of the Sea of Galilee and a crackling fire, He broke bread and once again built a bond of love (see John 21).

With all this in mind, I invite you to join with us next Sunday (September 14) for our parish picnic. It's another way to help celebrate the 175th Anniversary of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church.

The picnic will be held in Burpee Park and will begin at 1 P.M. We will provide the food and drinks. We will have face painting and a bouncy slide and live music throughout. There will be a Kona Ice Truck, too. We just ask that you bring a folding chair to sit on.

I want to express my gratitude to Julianne Donahue, our Director of Religious Education, for chairing this event. I also want to thank Sheila Duffy-Cyr and Tim Glasgow for assisting Julianne and the Ministry Leaders who have helped. This has been a tremendous undertaking and Julianne has provided great leadership. Our rain date is the following Sunday.

I personally invite you and your families to join with us as we, once again, break bread and build bonds.

God bless you,
Father Matthew Guckin

Christian Formation

Are you considering becoming Catholic?

Join us for OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults), previously known as RCIA. This process is a period of discernment, discovery and growth in the Catholic faith. Our goal is to help you deepen your relationship with Jesus Christ and learn how to live as His disciple in the Catholic Church. OCIA is designed for:

- Those who have never been baptized
- Those baptized in another faith
- Baptized Catholics who haven't yet received the Sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Through this process, participants—called Catechumens (unbaptized) or Candidates (already baptized)—prepare to receive the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Communion, and Confirmation) and enter the Catholic Church.

Program Details:

Our OCIA program at Our Lady of Mount Carmel begins October 5th and continues through mid April.

- We meet and attend the 9:00 AM Mass on Sundays
- Following Mass we gather in St. Mary's Hall
- Sessions conclude promptly at 11:30 AM

If you'd like more information, contact Christine Weyer at OCIA@ourladymtcarmel.org

OLMC School

Dear Friends:

We are proud to announce that Our Lady of Mount Carmel School has been recognized as a 2025 School of Distinguished Instruction by the Archdiocese of Philadelphia! This honor is awarded to schools whose students perform in the top tier on the Terra Nova standardized tests, and we are proud to share that this is the 5th time we have earned this award.

This ongoing achievement is a true testament to the dedication and excellence of our faculty, whose passion for teaching and commitment to our students' growth remain unmatched. Our students consistently rise to the challenge, showing not only academic strength but also the virtues and gifts that define Catholic education.

We also extend our heartfelt thanks to our school families. Their continued support, prayers, and partnership in our mission make all the difference. This recognition belongs to all of us, and we are deeply GRATEFUL to share it with such a strong and faithful community!

God bless,
Dawn Parker

Discipleship/Get Involved

A Theological Reflection on the Beauty of Creation

Father Guckin will talk about Creation on Monday, September 8, at 6:30 PM in St. Mary's Hall. (It is also the Blessed Mother's birthday.)

The Season of Creation is from September 1 through October 4 (the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi) where we are called to find ways to be stewards of God's Creation. Care for God's Creation is one of the seven pillars of Catholic Social Teaching.

In July, Pope Leo XIV celebrated the first Mass for the Care of Creation and urged Christians to embrace bringing peace and reconciliation to our world and all creation.

Peace & Justice will focus on Creation this year, as well as Immigration and Poverty as we strive to live our faith by recognizing the dignity of the person and helping the poor and vulnerable.

Women Entrepreneurs

On September 9 in St. Mary's Hall, The Ladies of Mount Carmel will welcome

Mariann Kuttler and her daughter Marci Schankweiler who will discuss entrepreneurship. Doors open at 6:30 and the program starts at 7:00 PM.

Mariann and her husband Herb were the successful proprietors of MaryAnn Pastry Shoppes. Marci, an attorney, is the founder of the cancer respite foundation, For Pete's Sake, founded after she lost her husband Pete to cancer. Join us for what promises to be an interesting program. All are welcome.
