SUNDAY, MAY 17, 2026 | THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Not long after my brother's first child was born, a beautiful little girl named Mary Elise, I asked him what it was like. Was he nervous? Overwhelmed? He said, "When I first held her, I was in such shock. I think I just said, 'I am your dad. I am your dad.'" That moment marked a deep transformation for him. He was not just holding a baby; he was stepping into a new identity. Over the years, I have seen him live his fatherhood with quiet sacrifice, joy, and faithfulness. It started with that moment of truth.

This, I propose, is a glimpse of what Jesus means when he prays, "Consecrate them in the truth." (John 17:17) To be consecrated is to be set apart in love, not taken out of the world. Consecration sends us into it with a new identity, always one that binds us to him and to others in love. Our bond to Jesus and others is the deep truth that he continually renews.

Whenever we speak deep truths about ourselves, we experience this renewal: "I have sinned;" "I need help;" "I forgive you;" "I take you as my husband;" "I believe in one God..." Whether in confession, in the liturgy, or in a recovery group, truth heals and transforms.

And the deepest truth of all? That we belong to the Risen and Ascended Christ. Our lives are no longer just ours. We are his and he is ours.

Name one truth you need to step into more deeply, about yourself, someone else, or God. Maybe put it on a note on your mirror. Let that truth consecrate you this week.

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Where did he go? Many times when we think of those who have died, we imagine escape from this world to a purely spiritual place. Jesus' Ascension can leave us in a place of confusion. What happens to Jesus? And why does this matter to us?

The Ascension has been confirmed in the Creed for two millennia. In Jesus' Ascension, we're invited to consider our own ultimate end. Regardless of death's reality now, we believe in the resurrection of the body and the reunification of body and soul. One day, earth and heaven will meet perfectly and without end. We anticipate this "new heaven and a new earth" at every Mass and throughout the beauty, truth, and love of the Church and her members. Today, celebrate a foreshadowing of the fullness we all await!

Parade Float Captain Wanted!

The Goshen County Parade will be here before we know it, and we would love to have a St. Rose of Lima float rolling through town again this year! K of C Scholarship Winners

Congratulations to our 2026 Knights of Columbus Scholarship recipients! This year's $1,000 scholarships were awarded to Alyssa Krause and Laney Grubbs. We are proud of their accomplishments and wish them continued success in their future endeavors. Thank you to the Knights of Columbus for supporting our community through these scholarships.

CCW Volunteer Leader Needed

The St. Rose CCW women's group is looking for a new leader to help guide our quarterly meetings and ongoing parish service projects, including funeral luncheons, sacramental receptions, Christmas decorating, the Giving/Almsgiving Trees, and more.

We are looking for a woman of our parish who can:

- Host and lead quarterly meetings and create simple meeting agendas
- Check in with ministry leaders for the events listed above
- Maintain CCW stewardship letters (sent each September)
- Coordinate Cookies & Coffee weekends throughout the year
- Call parish women for donations or help when needed
- Assist with annual fundraisers to support CCW's financial stability

This is a low-maintenance volunteer leadership role that supports the beautiful work already happening in our parish. If interested, please call the St. Rose Parish Office and leave your information with the receptionist.

2026 LIVING AND GIVING IN CHRIST

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Thank you to all who responded to the Living in Giving in Christ 2026 annual appeal! Through your generosity and prayers, the Church in our diocese continues to be a living witness to God's mercy.

Your gifts to *Living and Giving in Christ provide critical funding for diocesan-wide ministries which enhance parish efforts. These include marriage preparation, youth programs, support for clergy, leadership formation, vocations discernment, and Hispanic ministry. Chancery Staff also assist parish leaders with the various operational needs of every parish community. These ministries and services strengthen every parish.

If you have not made a commitment in support of diocesan ministries, and you would like to, you can make a gift by returning your appeal card or in-pew envelope to the parish, or you may make a pledge online by scanning the QR code or by visiting dcwy.org.

Peace, Father Ray
