GIVE

“Without cost you have received;
without cost you are to give.”

MATTHEW 10:6-8

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

A few years ago, I met a woman in my parish who was a successful lawyer. Yet in her free time, she poured her energy into a nonprofit she founded to advocate for children with special needs. When I asked what inspired her, she spoke of her niece, who was born with disabilities. Her niece was both a glorious gift and a constant challenge. Out of that painful, beautiful experience, she felt called to create something lasting for other children and parents. The nonprofit thrived, not because she had mapped it all out, but because she was deeply moved to act.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus is “moved with compassion” for the crowd, for they were “like sheep without a shepherd.” (Matthew 9:36) So he calls his disciples, ordinary men with no special qualifications, and sends them to heal, preach, and cast out demons. Their mission flows not from their skills but from his authority and the Spirit’s gifts.

The Second Vatican Council teaches that the Spirit continually pours out charisms, special graces for the good of the Church and the world (cf. Lumen Gentium 4 & 12). These often arise from the unfolding of our lives: from what breaks your heart, what fills you with hope, what suffering has shaped you. The Spirit works through those very experiences to equip us with gifts that build up others.

What is your charism? Well, what needs around you call you to loving action? This could be where Christ is sending you. Allow your heart to be moved like Christ’s. Then get to work.

A Totus Tuus Thank You

As another wonderful week of Totus Tuus comes to a close, I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to everyone who helped make it such a tremendous success.

This year, we were blessed to welcome 100 children who participated throughout the week. Programs like Totus Tuus do not happen on their own—it truly takes an entire parish community working together.

Thank you to our adult and student volunteers who generously gave their time and energy, to our host families who welcomed the missionaries into their homes, to everyone who provided meals, snacks, and monetary donations, and to our St. Rose Prayer Team and all who kept the missionaries, volunteers, and participants in their prayers. Thank you also to Father for celebrating Mass, hearing confessions, and helping ensure that Christ remained at the center of everything we did.

We are confident that God worked in countless ways throughout this week. Through prayer, the sacraments, joyful witness, and authentic friendships, seeds of faith were planted and nurtured in the hearts of both the children and adults who participated. We pray that those seeds continue to grow and bear fruit for years to come.

Thank you for your generosity, your prayers, and your support of our parish youth. We look forward to sharing a more detailed recap of this year's Totus Tuus program in the coming weeks!

POPE LEO'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR JUNE is for the values of sports:

Let us pray that sports be an instrument of peace, encounter, and dialogue among cultures and nations, and that they promote values such as respect, solidarity, and personal growth.

LABORERS

“The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few.”

This excerpt from Matthew's Gospel has become a catchphrase in the modern Church. We give ourselves vertigo with the amount of head-shaking we do over the much-lamented “decline in numbers.”

Which numbers, you ask? Well, take your pick — numbers of baptized Catholic children who continue to profess their faith in adulthood, numbers of registered parishioners, numbers of priests ordained each year. All are a fraction of what they were generations ago.

That last one — the priests — that's a particular worry for us, isn't it? So we pray, “Send us laborers, Lord! Make them holy. Make them earnest.”

And then we add, in the silence of our hearts: “Make them perfect.”

It's no secret that part of the reason the pews are empty is because we often find it hard to love the Church if we find it hard to love a particular priest, a particular bishop, or a particular human representative of the Church.

Because that's the thing about priests and bishops and all the laborers in the field: they are human. They are sinners. Just like you and me.

We must consider this: today's Gospel lists the Apostles whom Jesus sent out in ministry to heal, console, and evangelize, and right at the end — like a record scratch — comes the name of Judas Iscariot, the betrayer. If ever a laborer failed in his work, it was Judas.

And surely, when he did, his fellow laborers were so demoralized and so disenchanted that they considered laying down their tools and leaving the harvest to wither and die.

But they did not, and we must not.

Without cost we have received, and without cost we are called to give.

So we labor on, for the day is drawing to a close, and the threshing time is near.
