SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2026 • 26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This Sunday, Jesus tells a short, uncomfortable story. A father asks two sons to go work in the vineyard. One says no, but later goes. The other says yes, but never shows up. It is a parable so simple, we almost miss how sharp it is. Jesus is clear about who it is for. This is not aimed at pagans or outsiders. It is aimed squarely at religious people, people who know the right words and sound obedient.

Jesus is not condemning unbelief so much as disobedience. The polite hypocrisy that says the right things while quietly resisting the Father's will. St. John Chrysostom put it bluntly, "Not words, but deeds, are what God requires. Nothing so exasperates Him as insincere obedience, while nothing so delights Him as repentance."

Every disciple must face that mirror. Do I publicly profess faith in Christ while privately resisting what He asks of me? It is easy to say, I believe in God in my heart. But if faith never becomes action, it slowly becomes an illusion.

Jesus does not expose hypocrisy to shame us. He reveals it to heal us. He wants our hearts and our deeds to speak the same word, to let our yes truly mean yes. Like the second son who initially refused but afterwards changed his mind and went, Jesus invites us to step into the Father's will, however late, however imperfectly.

Challenge: Where are your public faith and private obedience divided? Where do you say, I will go, but never enter the vineyard? Go, get to work, even if it is late. The Father's vineyard is still open.

FAITH IN ACTION

Priesthood Sunday

Whenever we interact with our priests, do we see them as human and frail like the rest of humanity? Or on the other hand, do we see them as supermen, able to withstand all the stresses and strains of being human? I hope you see your priest as very human. Quite possibly, even more human than most of us. Why? Because they not only have their own struggles being human, but they accompany us in our humanness too. Therefore, this Priesthood Sunday, turn the tables. Attempt to be the listener to the human side of your priest. Do not automatically tell him your troubles; begin by asking him what is going on in his life. Thank him warmly for giving up so much to spend his life in service to others. Try it. You might be surprised to find out your priest is just like you!

Thank You for a Wonderful Open House!

What a wonderful way to begin our Religious Education year! Nearly 200 people joined us for our Parent Open House and dinner, where we enjoyed soup, sandwiches, pie, ice cream, cookies, and plenty of fellowship.

We are excited to have 114 students registered for Religious Education this year! A heartfelt thank-you to everyone who helped prepare, serve, donate food, set up, clean up, and make the evening such a success. We are so grateful for the many people who give their time and talents to this ministry.

As we begin the year, please keep all of our students, catechists, leaders, kitchen volunteers, and families in your prayers. May we continue to grow together as a faith community, always Centered on Christ.

Help Feed Our Students

Each Wednesday, we provide an after-school snack for our younger students and an evening meal for our older students. Scan the QR code to sign up to donate snacks or help provide a meal throughout the year.

Want to Help, but Can't Sign Up for a Meal?

You can still help feed our students! Scan the QR code to make a monetary donation directly to our Religious Education food fund. Donations of any amount help us purchase food and fill in the gaps throughout the year. We are incredibly grateful for your support!
