The Elk Mountain Marriage Encounter Experience is April 12-14. If you are interested, please call 307-215-9444 and check on application availability. The next Experience will not be until Nov 1-3 at The Ranch in Ucross. The Experience is mostly private with voluntary opportunities for sharing and getting to know the other couples during mealtime. Because the important "stuff" of the Experience takes place in the privacy of your room, each presentation becomes applicable to couples of any age, whether they are newlyweds, or married for many years, in a first marriage, or second or third. Non-Catholics are welcome. To learn more, watch: <https://www.facebook.com/watch/?v=635747607124827> OR visit www.me.org/

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are in need of two volunteers who will be willing to join the Adoration Team of St. Rose. We need the hour from 11:30-12:30 filled by two or three volunteers. It is our hope that anyone who signs up will be attending adoration for years to come at this time. With two or three volunteers you will not need to worry about a substitute because there will always be one or two more there. If you are interested, contact Fr. Ray at 532-5556. Thanks for signing up, one hour of adoration will change your life.

NEW POSITION AT ST. ROSE

It is with sadness that we say good by to Lori. She stepped in as Cathy was leaving, and did a remarkable job in the past year. We will miss Lori. We are now looking for someone to take care of our books. This person must have good computer skills and hopefully some accounting background. The person hired will need to work two hours a day, those hours are flexible for us. Lori will work with the person that is hired to show them what their duties will be. If you are interested, talk with Fr. Ray at the office.

NOVENAS ON OUR WEBSITEGOSPEL MEDITATION
A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Outside Chicago, there is a small cemetery in the woods behind Mundelein Seminary, where I was a student. One night I was exploring it. I looked up and was shocked to see an imposing seven-foot angel towering over me and preparing to blow a trumpet. Adrenaline rushed through me. I gasped and uttered, "Oh my God!" Quickly I realized it was in fact a massive bronze statue. I tried to calm myself down. But it still freaked me out.

As we begin to celebrate Easter today, this image might seem a bit unnerving. But please recall that for the first disciples on the morning of the resurrection, it was precisely that. It wasn't joyful at first, it was terrifying. It wasn't peaceful, it was unsettling. In that Jerusalem cemetery, something otherworldly had happened. Angels announced that he was no longer dead, but alive. They had blown their trumpets, so to speak, and Jesus had risen. Soon the disciples' shock in that dark cemetery would turn into joy.

We all have our own places of the dead, too, don't we? Deceased loved ones. Our tired patterns of blame. Relationships stuck in resentment. Indifference to the poor. Lost dreams. Despair about our future. Fear of sickness and death. These are our "cemeteries" where we don't expect much to happen. Today we enter — if we dare — those places with the disciples. See the mighty angel standing there, trumpet ready to blare!

— Father John Muir ©LPi
