

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Are you passionate about advocating for women's rights, safety and equality and making a real difference to helping women rebuild their lives after experiencing domestic family and sexual violence (DFSV) and towards secure employment. If so, we would love to hear from you.

The NT Working Women's Centre is seeking a dedicated Best Foot Forward Program Officer/Co-Ordinator to empower women, build strong community connections, and advocate for fair and safe workplaces.

BEST FOOT FORWARD (BFF) PROGRAM OFFICER/CO-ORDINATOR

Part-time 22.5hrs pw, (12-month contract)- Darwin

Expected commencement- October 2025

Level 4/5 (commensurate with experience/training) in accordance with NTWWC Enterprise Agreement
($90,302 - $107,984 p.a (pro-rata for part-time) plus 16% super. Salary sacrifice is also available

About the Role

This is a dynamic position for someone with strong people, advocacy and case management skills, combined with experience supporting victim-survivors of DFSV. The role focuses on:

- Supporting women beyond crisis and assisting them to rebuild their confidence, skills, and independence.
- Working alongside community partners to deliver tailored employment support.
- Building capacity in workplaces to improve safety and equality.

Our Workplace

- We welcome applications from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, and people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.
- NTWWC is a family-friendly workplace and supports flexible work arrangements.

How to Apply

Only written applications addressing the requirements of the position, outlining your experience/skills together with your CV will be considered.

Expressions of Interest must be received by Friday 26 September 2025