What is Advocacy?

Advocacy is speaking, writing or acting on behalf of another person to promote, protect and preserve their legal and human rights. Advocates use these tools to help empower you, understand your rights and have your wishes and concerns considered.

What We Do

Explain your rights clearly

Help you understand letters, forms and decisions

Listen and talk things through

Court, hearings, appointments or assessments preparation help

Respect your choices

Matters we assist with include (but are not limited to):

- Mental Health Tribunal Hearings
- Disability Royal Commission
- Queensland Guardianship and Financial Administration
- Centrelink, DSP, Housing and NDIS applications, access, reviews and related concerns
- QSTARS – tenancy
- National Redress Scheme
- Complaints
