Seniors Legal, Support and Financial Protection Services

Experienced social workers, advocates and lawyers provide free high-quality help with things like:

- Independence and steps to stay safe
- Financial resilience, cost of living savings strategies, and scams awareness
- Connections to supports and services to live well
- Short-term counselling including check-ins and follow-ups
- Guidance on how to secure or recover money and assets
- Legal advice and support
- Explaining rights and options
- Legal representation before a tribunal or court (in some cases)

We help Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples aged 50 years and over and non-Indigenous peoples aged 60 years and over.

Contact us to discuss how we can help you.

What is Elder Abuse?

An act occurring within a relationship of trust or where there is a power imbalance resulting in harm to an older person. Harm may be:

- Financial
- Emotional
- Psychological
- Physical
- Social
- Sexual
- Neglect

Feeling unsafe, mistreated, pressured or taken advantage of are situations that can be hard to talk about.

We will listen, support, and help you understand your options at your own pace. If something doesn't feel right or you have any concerns about how you are being treated, get in touch for a private conversation.

Tasc welcomes and values all people, embracing diversity across cultures, ages, abilities and identities
