Agenda items

1. Adoration (Chapel of the Nativity)
2. Welcome & call to order Ann Hoey
3. Blessing & Installation of Dale Bachmeier Ann Hoey/Fr.
Steven
4. Councilor introductions
5. Approval of June 12 meeting minutes Ann Hoey

Anne Igo motioned to approve June meeting minutes. Andrew seconded. Motion passed.
6. PPC Annual Report Ann Hoey

The Pastoral Council annual report addressed to the church community was distributed in July.
7. PPC info of note for FY '25-26 Ann Hoey
 - Essential 3 training: all councilors currently meet requirements
 - Reminder of dates for upcoming parish events – please attend and invite friends.

- PPC upcoming meeting dates: 11/13/25, 2/12/26 & 5/14/26 - As there are fewer dates/year than in the past, it's important members make it a priority to attend.
- PCC Officer Nominations will be 2/12/26, and Election will be 5/14/26

8. PPC Ministries Review Subcommittee Ann
Hoey/Trish Reimann

Subcommittee met with several staff and found that overall, parish ministries are going well, with significant volunteer involvement. Staff largely have volunteer needs met. Discussed some recommendations for encouraging involvement in ministries at St Peters, and if possible, updating the parish website. A report of the Ministries Review subcommittee was discussed and the work of the subcommittee is considered complete.

9. Collaborative Campaign Leadership Team Fr. Steven

Fr. Steven provided a brief update on St. Peter's participation in the Archdiocesan capital campaign Lord Renew Your Church (<https://archspm.org/lordrenewyourchurch/>). The parish will launch a joint campaign starting this fall into 2026.

10. Vision for the council for FY '25-'26 Fr. Steven

Fr Steven is grateful for the service, support, and prayer of the council members in his role as pastor and as he welcomes people, evangelizes our community and makes decisions. All of us are called to draw others into our faith and faith community.

11. Discuss "The Holy Spirit, Fire of Divine Love", Chapter 4 Fr. Steven

The meeting ran short, and this was tabled until next meeting, in lieu of touring the CGS Atriums.

12. Tour of new atriums Fr. Steven

Fr. Steven gave PPC members a tour of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd new atrium areas in the basement level. St Peter's now offers CGS Level I, II, and III for parish children.

13. Closing prayer and blessing

Fr. Steven

Next meeting: November 13, 2025 from 6:15 - 8:00 PM
