Marian Antiphons

In monasteries, convents, and other religious communities, the Marian Antiphon has been the final words of prayer each day for centuries. Many parishes have begun to mirror this custom by singing the Marian Antiphon at the end of Mass, just as we did here at Saint Michael's during the Easter Season. The four Marian Antiphons are:

Alma Redemptoris Mater (Advent through the Presentation of the Lord)
 Ave Regina Caelorum (Presentation of the Lord until the Easter Vigil)
 Regina Caeli (Easter Vigil through Pentecost Sunday)
 Salve Regina (Day after Pentecost until the First Sunday of Advent)

These prayers, along with excellent English translations, may be found in the back of the Missal on pages 644 to 646. In addition to Prayers of Thanksgiving after Mass, it is fitting to offer these prayers of veneration to Our Lady, expressing our closeness with our Blessed Mother and asking her prayers for the week ahead.

Last weekend, we heard the powerful parable of the Good Samaritan, in which Jesus makes clear that to love our neighbor means to act with compassion—even when it is inconvenient or costly. It was a call to do, to serve, to engage the world with mercy. Today, however, we are given a different—but equally essential—lesson in discipleship: the call to be present with the Lord.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus visits the home of Martha and Mary. Immediately, we see two different responses. Martha, filled with the impulse to serve, busies herself with hospitality. Mary, on the other hand, sits at Jesus' feet, listening to Him, soaking in His presence and teaching. When Martha becomes frustrated and asks Jesus to redirect Mary to help with the work, Jesus gently responds: "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her."

Jesus is not criticizing service (few as diaconia/deacon means service). After all, just last week He praised the Samaritan for taking action to help a stranger. But here, He is reminding us that discipleship is not just about what we do for others—it is first and foremost about our relationship with Him. If our hearts are not rooted in the Lord, then even our good deeds can become burdensome, anxious, or self-focused.

A Message from Our Clergy

Deacon Jared Auclair

This balance between doing and being—between Martha and Mary—is at the heart of the Christian life. Some of us may naturally lean toward action, always finding something to fix or someone to help. Others may feel drawn toward contemplation, prayer, and study. Who am I more like; I think Martha. Both are essential. But today's Gospel asks us: Are we making space to sit at the feet of Jesus? Are we nourishing our souls with His Word?

This message finds a beautiful parallel in the first reading from Genesis, where Abraham, like Martha, extends generous hospitality. But notice what happens in that encounter: Abraham's service opens him to a divine promise—God reveals that Sarah will bear a son. In the presence of the Lord, even service becomes sacred when it is grounded in relationship.

St. Paul, writing to the Colossians, gives us a final reflection. He speaks of suffering for the sake of the Gospel—not for worldly gain, but to make the Word of God fully known. This is the fruit of a disciple who knows when to serve like Martha, and when to sit like Mary.

As we continue through the summer, may we not allow the busyness of our lives to eclipse the “one thing necessary.” Let us follow the Good Samaritan in mercy and Martha in service—but never forget Mary's example of spiritual attentiveness. In doing so, we welcome Christ not just into our homes, but into the very center of our hearts.

COVER ART

The stained glass artistry of James Powell & Sons is crafted by a London firm known for their work in churches and other buildings in the 19th and 20th centuries. In this image, Mary is shown sitting at Jesus' feet, engaged in listening to his words, while Martha is depicted as occupied with domestic tasks, such as preparing food, as recounted in the biblical narrative (Luke 10:38-42). This contrast is a central theme in many interpretations of the story, emphasizing the importance of prioritizing spiritual nourishment over worldly concerns.

ATTENTION ALL VOLUNTEERS

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

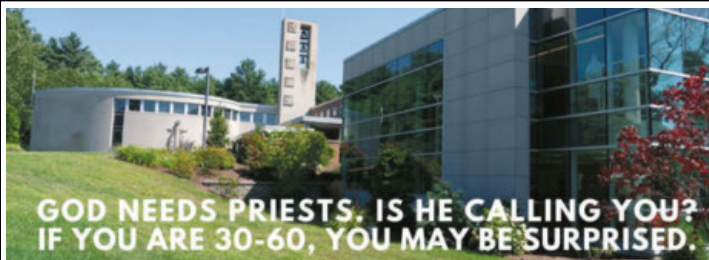

Thank you all for volunteering for the various ministries at St. Michael's. Your efforts keep our corner of God's vineyard fruitful. In our activities we always need to be keeping a safe environment for all. In the wake of the abuse scandal from two decades ago, the Archdiocese of Boston now requires certain tasks and trainings for all parish volunteers: every volunteer must complete and submit CORIs annually, and every parish volunteer must also take a class called "Protecting God's Children" (PGC) at least once. To assist in these efforts, St. Michael's is offering a PGC class on Tuesday, August 12th from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. right here in Hudson.

We are asking any parish volunteer who has not already taken this class to sign up. There are other sessions being offered throughout the Archdiocese at www.virtusonline.org. Please note, this requirement is not restricted to those who serve the youth – it is for every volunteer, every staff member, and every member of the clergy team. These training classes must be completed prior to the fall startup of the various ministries here at St. Michael's.

Preregistration is required. Again, to register or view the list of classes being held elsewhere, go to www.virtusonline.org, create an account, and register. If you do not have access to a computer and need assistance with the signup, please call or visit Lori or Andrea at the parish center. We thank you for your cooperation in this matter. This class is a requirement for continuing in any ministry in the Archdiocese of Boston.

ALTAR SERVING

We are planning to launch our altar service program training in August for both boys and girls, with program start in September. Students between grades 3 - 12 who have completed First Holy Communion are invited to join this ministry! If someone you know is interested, please have their parents contact Dcn Chuck and/or Jackie Johannes via email: deacon_chuck@stmikes.org and/or jjohannes1215@gmail.com.
