Making a Good Confession

The past two Sundays, this column has been focused on how to use our new Source & Summit missalettes to enrich our worship at Mass, including a survey of the four Marian Antiphons and a look at some options for devotional prayers of thanksgiving after Mass.

Our new missalettes also contain some beautiful texts to help us make a good confession. On pages 590 and 591 are found some options for Prayers Before Confession:

God's Mercy (St. Catherine of Siena)
Reflecting Your Brightness (William of St. Thierry)
A Seed of Love (St. Teresa of Jesus)
Who Will Help Me? (St. Hildegard von Bingen)

These brief little readings help us to settle our hearts from the concerns of the world outside, that they might be opened to the mercy which Our Lord desires to share with us.

On pages 592 to 594, you will find an excellent Examination of Conscience. This helps us to make a good confession by calling to mind those sins which we might have forgotten or overlooked.

Finally, on pages 595 and 596, there are multiple forms of the Act of Contrition. The last one on page 596 ("O my God, I am heartily sorry...") is probably the one most of us learned as children, but other forms of the prayer might be appropriate for certain occasions or for penitents of various ages or stages of development.

While traveling with my family in Rome this past week, we had the blessing of visiting the Vatican. Standing in St. Peter's Basilica, walking through the Vatican Museums, and praying before the tomb of St. Peter himself was humbling and awe-inspiring. But what moved me most was not just the grandeur—it was the deep sense of prayer that permeates every stone and chapel. We also visited the Basilica of St. Mary Major, one of Rome's oldest and most beautiful Marian churches. There, we paused in front of the chapel where Pope Francis has chosen to be buried—an intimate and deeply human reminder that even the pope places his hope and rest in the arms of the Blessed Mother and the promise of resurrection. Pilgrims from around the world, speaking dozens of languages, were united in a quiet, reverent conversation with God. It reminded me: prayer is the heartbeat of our faith, whether in the majesty of Rome or the simplicity of our own homes.

Today's Gospel opens with the disciples asking Jesus, "Lord, teach us to pray." In response, Jesus gives them—and us—the Our Father. This isn't just a prayer to be memorized, but a model for how we approach God: with reverence, trust, and boldness. When I heard the Our Father prayed in St. Peter's Square in a dozen different tongues, I was struck by the universality of that relationship. Across cultures, generations, and continents, we are all children of the same loving Father.

A Message from Our Clergy

Deacon Jared Auclair

Jesus goes on to teach about persistence in prayer. He tells the parable of a man who knocks on his neighbor's door late at night asking for bread. Though the neighbor may hesitate, persistence wins him over. If human beings respond like this, how much more will God respond with love to His children who ask, seek, and knock?

This echoes the reading from Genesis, where Abraham boldly negotiates with God, pleading for mercy on behalf of Sodom. Far from being annoyed, God listens patiently. Abraham's prayer is persistent and intercessory—and God's response reveals divine compassion.

In Colossians, St. Paul reminds us that through our baptism, we have already received the greatest answer to prayer: salvation in Christ. God has canceled the debt of sin and raised us to new life in Jesus. That's the foundation of our hope—God doesn't just hear our prayers; He has acted definitively in love.

Being in Rome brought these truths into focus for me and my family. In the Eternal City, faith is not confined to history books—it lives in the prayers of the people, in the art that lifts hearts to heaven, in the Eucharist celebrated daily in churches large and small. It reminded me that prayer isn't about eloquence or formality—it's about relationship. A relationship rooted in trust, shaped by persistence, and animated by love.

So this week, I invite you to pray boldly like Abraham, persistently like the midnight visitor, and confidently as Jesus taught. Wherever we are—whether in Rome or right here in our parish—we are never far from the heart of God, who is always ready to listen, respond, and bless.

ATTENTION ALL VOLUNTEERS

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

Thank you all for volunteering for the various ministries at St. Michael's. Your efforts keep our corner of God's vineyard fruitful. In our activities we always need to be keeping a safe environment for all. In the wake of the abuse scandal from two decades ago, the Archdiocese of Boston now requires certain tasks and trainings for all parish volunteers: every volunteer must complete and submit CORIs annually, and every parish volunteer must also take a class called "Protecting God's Children" (PGC) at least once. To assist in these efforts, St. Michael's is offering a PGC class at St. Michael's Parish, 21 Manning Street, at the Parish Center (ground floor) on the following dates:

Saturday, August 9th from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. - Portuguese

Tuesday, August 12th from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. - English

We are asking any parish volunteer who has not already taken this class to sign up. There are other sessions being offered throughout the Archdiocese at www.virtusonline.org. Please note, this requirement is not restricted to those who serve the youth – it is for every volunteer, every staff member, and every member of the clergy team. These training classes must be completed prior to the fall startup of the various ministries here at St. Michael's.

Preregistration is required. Again, to register or view the list of classes being held elsewhere, go to www.virtusonline.org, create an account, and register. If you do not have access to a computer and need assistance with the signup, please call or visit Lori or Andrea at the parish center. We thank you for your cooperation in this matter. This class is a requirement for continuing in any ministry in the Archdiocese of Boston.

ALTAR SERVING

We are planning to launch our altar service program training in August for both boys and girls, with program start in September. Students between grades 3 - 12 who have completed First Holy Communion are invited to join this ministry! If someone you know is interested, please have their parents contact Dcn Chuck and/or Jackie Johannes via email: deacon_chuck@stmikes.org and/or jjohannes1215@gmail.com.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Is the Holy Spirit calling you to become Catholic?

If you are an adult who has not received the Sacrament of Baptism, First Holy Communion or Confirmation, we invite you to register in our OCIA Program. Call the Parish office for more information.

Annual Wedding Anniversary Mass

Archbishop Richard Henning invites couples celebrating their 10th, 25th, 50th, or other milestone wedding anniversaries to attend the Wedding Anniversary Mass on Sunday, October 26, at 3:00 PM at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross in Boston. The couple will renew their marriage commitment and receive a special blessing.

PILGRIMS OF HOPE

ARCHDIOCESE OF BOSTON

SECRETARIAT FOR EVANGELIZATION AND DISCIPLESHIP

Jubilee FAQs

What is a Jubilee?

- A jubilee year is a time for forgiveness and renewal in our relationship with God.
- In the Bible, the year was marked by the remittance of debt and property as well as the healing of relationships between people, nations, and even the relationship between humans and creation (cf. Leviticus 25:8-55). The first Christian Jubilee was declared in 1300 by Pope Boniface VIII.

What is this Jubilee about?

- This jubilee is called Pilgrims of Hope. We are called to rediscover the hope of Christianity and then be signs of hope to others in our daily life. It goes from December 29, 2024 to December 28, 2025.
- May this "Jubilee be a moment of genuine, personal encounter with the Lord Jesus, the 'door' (cf. Jn 10:7.9) of our salvation, whom the Church is charged to proclaim always, everywhere and to all as 'our hope' (1 Tim 1:1)" (Spes Non Confundit, 1).

What is the connection with pilgrimages and doors?

- During Jubilee years, the pope opens doors for people to pass through to gain indulgences. Sometimes, he permits holy doors to be located in different parts of the world. This year, the only holy doors are in Rome.
- Passing through a "holy door" has traditionally been a sign of conversion, passing away from one's old life and into a life of renewed zeal and faith. People make pilgrimages to pass through holy doors and recommit to following Jesus.

What is an indulgence?

An indulgence remits the temporal punishment of sin already forgiven. Sorrow for sin can lead to repentance and forgiveness, but the disruption of God's order and the effect of the sin on others remains. For the sake of justice, there must be a mitigation of the evil effects of the sin; an attempt to "make up" for the evil caused. Temporal punishment is a consequence of the sin which helps to purify our souls and restore, as possible, God's order.

An indulgence, indulges us. It provides for our spiritual purification without pain or difficulty because the merits of Christ's death and those of the saints are applied on our behalf.

How can we gain indulgences by participating in the Jubilee Year if all the doors are in Rome?

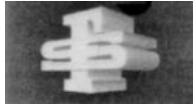

To receive an indulgence, we must do the action required, confess our sins and be detached from all sin, receive the Eucharist in Mass, and pray for the pope's intentions (within twenty days).
