Recessional Hymn: Missal #340 Sing With All the Saints in Glory

What a few days! Halloween yesterday, All Saints Day today, and All Souls Day tomorrow. Amid the costumes and candy, we sometimes miss or forget the connection. Halloween, indeed, does have Catholic roots. It comes from “All Hallows’ Eve,” meaning the evening before All Saints Day. “Hallows” refers to saints, the holy ones. These three days, more than many, remind us to remember those who have gone before us, reflect on our own call to holiness, and to place our hope in eternal life with God.

The Beatitudes are, by far, among my favorite Scripture passages. I use this Gospel at most of the weddings I celebrate because it offers a foundation for marriage, for life in general: humility, mercy, patience, and a willingness to make peace. These are qualities that sustain a marriage, that sustain us.

Perhaps one of the reasons I particularly like the Beatitudes is because they make me stop and think every time I read them and ask myself, do I live these words? That is the question we should each ask ourselves.

A Message from Our Clergy

Deacon Jared

We admire mercy. But how quickly do we forgive? I mean really forgive and not just say we do but don't. Do you always have to get the last word in an argument? Humility is important, probably the one I struggle most with, so it is most important to me. But how often does our pride get in the way?

Jesus gives us a way of life that reaches across all aspects of our life. The Beatitudes challenge how we speak to people, respond to a difficult situation, treat someone who doesn't agree with us, and care for someone who is hurting. Holiness takes shape in the ordinary, not only the extraordinary.

Some are familiar to us with feast days (little trivia: Saint Albert the Great and Saint Thomas Aquinas are two of my favorite saints. Any guesses why?) and many only God alone knows. Revelation gives us a vision of an immense gathering drawn from people throughout the world.

The saints knew struggle, disappointment, and their own need for forgiveness. Through the grace of God they learned to love and serve as examples to remind us that sainthood is our calling, too. In today's second reading, John reminds us that we already belong to God as his Children. Our growth in holiness towards sainthood is a response to that love.

Monday, we celebrate All Souls Day and pray for all the faithful departed. We remember parents, spouses, children, family, friends, and others whose absence we still feel. We entrust them to God's mercy and pray that any purification they need (for all the Souls in purgatory) may bring them into the fullness of his presence.

In particular, for those who have lost loved ones over the last year, Jesus' promise of comfort to those who mourn speaks with love and compassion. Our faith, your faith, leaves room for tears while giving us hope, hope for eternal life. This week, I encourage you, I challenge you, to select one Beatitude and put it into practice. Offer forgiveness; real forgiveness. Make peace. Sit with someone who is grieving. Choose gentleness when impatience would be easier (this one is for me this week).

As we pray for those who have gone before us, let us ask the saints to pray for us.
That, day by day, we may learn to live the words we love. Saint Michael, pray for us.

THANK YOU:

WE EXCEEDED OUR GOAL!

Thanks to the generosity of our St Michael Parish family, we have met our goal for the Parish Center Cleanup Project. As of October 28, 149 families have given $103,505, exceeding the $95,000 goal we set to fully fund the project. This was done in a relatively short amount of time! Every gift, regardless of size, made this possible.

Note that the funds raised include the proceeds from the October Portuguese and Brazilian Dinner Dance. We are grateful for those communities' contributions to this effort.

Your gifts paid for mold remediation, asbestos abatement in the affected areas, removal of the old basement carpet, new flooring in mold-affected rooms, and four high-intensity dehumidifiers. The Parish Center is back open. Work continuing this fall in the Parish Center includes painting rooms, fixing the underground drainage system, installing new gutters, and installing new doors to the boiler rooms that allowed water seepage.

Gifts beyond the $95,000 goal will go toward future tasks on our parish maintenance list. Thank you again!

Fr. Bert Proulx and the Fundraising Committee

ADVENT EXPERIENCE: PRAYING THE SCRIPTURES WITH IGNATIAN CONTEMPLATION

St. Michael's is offering a five evening Advent experience of praying with scripture in the Ignatian Tradition. Please join us for as many sessions as you can, November 13 and 20 and December 4, 11, and 18 at 7pm in the Parish Center. We will be starting a week before Advent officially begins to accommodate Thanksgiving and the busy holiday season. We ask that you contact the parish office to register for the program. This is not a formal commitment, but rather a help to let us know how many expect to attend.

The first evening on Nov 13 will be an introduction to St. Ignatius and an overview of Ignatian Spirituality and will last approximately 90 minutes. The next four sessions will be about 45 to 60 minutes in length and will be devoted to praying with the Advent scriptures for the upcoming Sundays.

This is not a Bible study series, but rather an experience of connecting with scripture through the use of contemplation and imagination. We will focus on connecting what we already know about the gospels stories with how we are affected by them.

The series will be presented by Ms. Kathy OhEigeartaigh, a trained spiritual director, who has accompanied many retreatants through the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises.

Upcoming Events at St. Michael's

Nov. 5: Mass of Remembrance - 7pm

Nov. 6: First Friday Eucharistic Adoration - 6pm

Nov. 13: Ignatian Prayer Series 7-8:30pm
and select Fridays to follow.

Nov. 14-15: Book Drive for Fr. Tony

Nov. 19: Booking opens for Mass intentions Bread & Wine, Candles, and Altar Flowers for January-June 2027

Nov. 21: Pie and Bake Sale after Masses

Nov. 26: Thanksgiving Mass - 9am

Nov 29: First Sunday of Advent - No Religious Ed.

Dec. 4: First Friday Eucharistic Adoration - 6pm

Dec. 8: Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception

Stuff-a-Truck!

St. Vincent de Paul members have scheduled a "Stuff a Truck" event the weekend of October 31 and November 1. We will be accepting gently used clothing, coats, shoes and books. Drive up to the truck located in the St. Michael parking lot and members will take your bags from your car and put them into the truck. Tax forms will be provided. SVdP volunteers will be available at the truck from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 pm on Saturday October 31, and 9:00 am to 3:00pm on Sunday November 1st.

CHILDREN'S BOOK DRIVE

Fr. Tony Didongo is an SMA priest in Ghana, and a long-time friend of the parish. He is asking for donations of gently-used children's books in English, ages 5 through 12, that can be used in the schools he manages. He will accept books of any topic -- they do not need to be religious.

Please consider donating to this cause! We will have a collection bin in the vestibule for any donations on Nov 14th and 15th.

Thank you!

Brazilian & Portuguese Community Information

Em particular, para aqueles que perderam entes queridos no último ano, a promessa de Jesus de consolo aos que sofrem ressoa com amor e compaixão. Nossa fé — a sua fé — abre espaço para as lágrimas, ao mesmo tempo em que nos oferece esperança: a esperança da vida eterna.

Nesta semana, eu os encorajo — e desafio — a escolher uma das Bem-aventuranças e colocá-la em prática. Ofereçam perdão; um perdão verdadeiro. Promovam a paz. Estejam ao lado de alguém que está vivendo o luto. Escolham a mansidão nos momentos em que a impaciência seria mais fácil (esta vale para mim, nesta semana).

Enquanto rezamos por aqueles que nos precederam, peçamos aos santos que rezem por nós. Que, dia após dia, possamos aprender a viver as palavras que amamos. São Miguel, rogai por nós.

Talvez uma das razões pelas quais gosto particularmente das Bem-aventuranças seja o fato de que, toda vez que as leio, elas me fazem parar, refletir e me perguntar: será que vivo de acordo com estas palavras? Essa é a pergunta que cada um de nós deveria se fazer.

Uma Mensagem do Nosso Clero
Deacon Jared

Admiramos a misericórdia. Mas com que rapidez perdoamos? Refiro-me a perdoar de verdade — não apenas dizer que perdoamos, quando, na prática, não o fazemos. Você sempre precisa ter a última palavra em uma discussão? A humildade é importante — talvez seja o aspecto com o qual mais tenho dificuldade, e, por isso, é o mais importante para mim. Mas com que frequência o nosso orgulho acaba atrapalhando?

Jesus nos propõe um modo de vida que abrange todos os aspectos da nossa existência. As Bem-aventuranças nos desafiam na maneira como falamos com as pessoas, como reagimos a situações difíceis, como tratamos quem não concorda conosco e como cuidamos de alguém que está sofrendo. A santidade ganha forma no cotidiano, não apenas no extraordinário.

No Dia de Todos os Santos, celebramos aqueles que alcançaram a plenitude da vida com Deus. Alguns nos são familiares, possuindo dias dedicados à sua memória (uma curiosidade: Santo Alberto Magno e São Tomás de Aquino são dois dos meus santos favoritos. Algum palpite do porquê?), enquanto muitos outros são conhecidos apenas por Deus. O livro do Apocalipse nos apresenta a visão de uma multidão imensa, composta por pessoas de todo o mundo.

Os santos conheceram lutas, decepções e a própria necessidade de perdão. Pela graça de Deus, aprenderam a amar e a servir, servindo como exemplos para nos lembrar de que a santidade também é o nosso chamado. Na segunda leitura de hoje, São João nos recorda que já pertencemos a Deus como seus filhos. Nosso crescimento em santidade, rumo à santidade plena, é uma resposta a esse amor.

Na segunda-feira, celebramos o Dia de Finados e rezamos por todos os fiéis defuntos. Lembramos pais, cônjuges, filhos, familiares, amigos e outras pessoas cuja ausência ainda sentimos. Nós os confiamos à misericórdia de Deus e rezamos para que qualquer purificação de que necessitem (por todas as almas no purgatório) os conduza à plenitude da presença divina.

De modo especial, para aqueles que perderam entes queridos ao longo do último ano, a promessa de consolo de Jesus aos que sofrem traz uma mensagem de amor e compaixão. Nossa fé — a sua fé — dá espaço para as lágrimas, ao mesmo tempo em que nos oferece esperança: a esperança da vida eterna.

Nesta semana, eu o encorajo — eu o desafio — a escolher uma das Bem-aventuranças e colocá-la em prática. Ofereça perdão; perdão verdadeiro. Promova a paz. Sente-se ao lado de alguém que está passando pelo luto. Escolha a mansidão quando a impaciência seria mais fácil (esta é para mim, nesta semana).

Enquanto rezamos por aqueles que nos precederam, peçamos aos santos que rezem por nós. Para que, dia após dia, possamos aprender a viver as palavras que amamos. São Miguel, rogai por nós.

St Michael Parish HUDSON, MA

OBRIGADO:

SUPERAMOS NOSSA META!

Graças à generosidade da nossa família da Paróquia de São Miguel (St. Michael Parish), alcançamos a meta para o Projeto de Limpeza e Restauração do Centro Paroquial. Até o dia 28 de outubro, 149 famílias contribuíram com um total de $103,505, superando a meta de $95.000 estabelecida para custear integralmente o projeto. Tudo isso foi realizado em um período relativamente curto! Cada doação, independentemente do valor, tornou isso possível. Vale ressaltar que os recursos arrecadados incluem o montante obtido no jantar dançante português e brasileiro realizado em outubro. Somos muito gratos a essas comunidades por suas contribuições a este esforço.

As doações permitiram cobrir os custos com a eliminação de mofo, a remoção de amianto nas áreas afetadas, a retirada do carpete antigo do subsolo, a instalação de novos pisos nos ambientes atingidos pelo mofo e a aquisição de quatro desumidificadores de alta potência. O Centro Paroquial já está novamente em funcionamento. Os trabalhos que continuam sendo realizados neste outono no Centro Paroquial incluem a pintura de salas, o reparo do sistema de drenagem subterrâneo, a instalação de novas calhas e a colocação de portas novas nas salas das caldeiras, por onde ocorriam infiltrações de água.

As contribuições que excederem a meta de $95.000 serão destinadas a futuras demandas da nossa lista de manutenção paroquial. Mais uma vez, muito obrigado!
